The University

Oklahoma City University (OCU) is one of the nation's highly respected educational institutions. A private, United Methodist-related university, Oklahoma City University combines a unique blend of tradition, quality, community, and innovation. U.S. News and World Report consistently ranks Oklahoma City University among the best master's level institutions in the region. We are listed in both America's Best Christian Colleges[®] and America's 100 Best College Buys[®].

The university traces its roots to Epworth University, chartered in 1904 as a joint venture of the Methodist Episcopal Church and the Methodist Episcopal Church, South (now the combined United Methodist Church), and the Oklahoma City Trade Club (now the Greater Oklahoma City Chamber of Commerce). From 1911 to 1922, the university was located in Guthrie, Oklahoma, and known as the Methodist University of Oklahoma. Oklahoma City University has been at its present location at NW Twenty-third Street and Blackwelder Avenue in Oklahoma City since 1922, when what is now the Clara E. Jones Administration Building was completed.

Located in the capital city, Oklahoma City University's beautiful campus occupies over seventy-six acres in a diverse and vibrant metropolitan area. The architecture on campus is a pleasing blend of American collegiate, gothic, and functional contemporary.

Accreditation

Oklahoma City University is approved by the University Senate of the United Methodist Church. Oklahoma City University and many of its academic programs are accredited by nationally recognized organizations. The following information is provided so students may contact accrediting organizations:

A broad spectrum of courses is offered through the Petree College of Arts and Sciences; the Meinders School of Business; the Margaret E. Petree College of Performing Arts with its Ann Lacy School of American Dance and Arts Management, Bass School of Music, and Department of Theater; the School of Law; the Kramer School of Nursing; and the Wimberly School of Religion and Graduate Theological Center.

The institution takes pride in its dual role as Oklahoma City's university and the United Methodist university of Oklahoma. Its students come from forty-eight of the fifty states in the United States and from countries throughout the world.

Oklahoma City University has designed a program to bring together outstanding faculty, exceptional students, excellent teaching facilities, and the most advanced and innovative ideas in curriculum and teaching methods. Because of the friendliness and personal involvement possible on a small campus, OCU students are known as individuals by their fellow students and professors and benefit greatly from the personalized education offered by the university's low student-faculty ratio.

With a 100-year tradition of church-related service and academic excellence, Oklahoma City University today is a vital institution with a growing reputation as a center of quality, personalized, values-conscious higher education.

It is on the approved list of the American Association of University Women.

The Kramer School of Nursing is accredited by the National League for Nursing Accreditation Commission and is a member of the Council of Baccalaureate and Higher Degree Programs of the National League for Nursing. The school is approved by the Oklahoma Board of Nursing.

Oklahoma City University is an equal educational opportunity institution.

Assessment

Assessment is an integral part of the strategic planning process for Oklahoma City University. New students to the university will be asked to participate in the assessment process. Students also participate in the evaluation of the liberal arts/general education processes of the institution. A student near the end of his or her academic plan of study participates in outcomes assessment for his or her major field of study. Other constituencies of the institution also are asked about their satisfaction as part of the assessment process for system improvement.

Mission

Oklahoma City University embraces the United Methodist tradition of scholarship and service and welcomes all faiths in a culturally rich community that is dedicated to student welfare and success. Men and women pursue academic excellence through a rigorous curriculum that focuses on students' intellectual, moral, and spiritual development to prepare them to become effective leaders in service to their communities.

Core Beliefs and Values

Oklahoma City University is guided by the following core beliefs and values:

■ Academic Excellence

We believe that a university dedicated to excellence will enable each student to acquire the critical and analytical thinking skills, broad base of knowledge, and capacity to communicate effectively required for both personal success and capacity for leadership in service to communities.

■ A Personal Approach

We aspire to treat each member of this community as an individual with distinct needs for fostering his or her success and welfare.

■ A Religious Dimension

We seek to create a university community in which every member consciously cultivates ethical and humane behavior.

■ Service to the Community and Service Learning

We believe that excellence in education and development of the intellectual, moral, and spiritual capacities of students are best fostered when faculty, students, and staff actively use their knowledge and skills to assist others in our wider communities.

■ A Culturally Rich Community

We believe that a university flourishes only when it exposes the members of its community to cultural perspectives different from that of the place in which the university is rooted.

■ Student Success and Welfare

We believe that this university should consciously provide its graduates with a foundation for the acquisition of the knowledge, skills, and experience necessary for success in the vocations our graduates will pursue in the years to come.

Oklahoma City University pursues these beliefs and values by providing the following:

- Undergraduate, graduate, and professional academic programs that emphasize, examine, and encourage intellectual, moral, and spiritual experience and growth
- Lifelong learning programs empowering individuals to lead productive and creative lives
- Activities that enhance and support the quality of campus life
- Programs that foster physical fitness and good health
- Service to a global community of learners
- Opportunities for worship and service in the Christian and other traditions
- Cultural and aesthetic opportunities for the community

Oklahoma City

Oklahoma City, the capital of Oklahoma, offers a wide variety of cultural, civic, religious, entertainment, and sports events in the unique setting of modern facilities and old-fashioned Western hospitality. Oklahoma City is a dynamic, growing location with a wide range of opportunities to offer its students.

From the state capitol and the center of Oklahoma's political and governmental activity, to the cultural offerings of the Oklahoma City Philharmonic, Lyric Theatre, Ballet Oklahoma, and more, to the attractions of the National Cowboy and Western Heritage Museum, Oklahoma Museum of Art, the National Softball Hall of Fame, the Firefighters' Museum, the Oklahoma City Zoo and Omniplex, Bricktown, and professional baseball, basketball, and hockey, Oklahoma City stands as a vibrant, growing metropolitan center of the Southwest.

Out-of-state students are able to make use of the excellent transportation facilities available to the city. Oklahoma City is linked by interstate highways to other major cities in the region, and the city's Will Rogers International Airport, one of the busiest in the region, provides commercial service coast-to-coast as well as international flights to Asia, Europe, and South America.

The OCU campus is located near the center of Oklahoma City. While OCU is close to the business community, the state capitol, and all the conveniences of a major city, the campus is situated in a quiet, natural setting.

OCU students are involved in the life of Oklahoma City through participation in cultural events, through internships in governmental and social agencies, and through extracurricular activities that involve the city's many resources and facilities. The multitude of opportunities and activities in a growing metropolitan area such as Oklahoma City offers an added dimension to the high quality of education available at Oklahoma City University.

Admission and Registration

GENERAL ADMISSION POLICY

Oklahoma City University seeks to identify students who will benefit from the unique academic rigor and educational opportunity with the individual attention that is the hallmark of an OCU educational experience. The university does not discriminate against any individual because of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, age, handicap or disability, sexual orientation, or veteran status.

Oklahoma City University is interested in students who want to learn. Each application is given careful consideration based on the student's high school and/or college record, college entrance exam scores, class rank, required essay, desirable character and personality traits, and the applicant's interests and goals in relation to the programs of study offered by the university. All bachelor's degree candidates must have earned a high school diploma or GED certificate and must submit either the American College Test (ACT) or the Scholastic Aptitude Test (SAT) results (unless ten years have elapsed since the date of graduation). Minimum standards for full admission for incoming freshmen include a score of 22 on the ACT or a score of 1020 on the SAT or a high school cumulative grade point average (GPA) of 3.0 and ranking within the top 50 percent of the student's graduating class.

The admissions committee will give preference to those applicants whose evidence of academic fitness and professional promise indicates that they are particularly qualified to study at OCU, to succeed as degree candidates, and to develop the leadership potential to become productive citizens.

The Office of Admissions reserves the right to request any additional information before a decision for admission is made. Providing false or incomplete information on the application for admission may result in a denial of admission or revocation of enrollment. Students who have been admitted to the university and for whom academic success can be reasonably predicted are eligible to enroll at OCU.

For information on graduate admission policies, refer to the admission section in the graduate catalog.

High School Course Requirements

A broad preparatory academic program is required for the student who wants to study at Oklahoma City University. The following courses are required for admission to the university:

English: four units, excluding speech or journalism

Mathematics: two units of algebra; one unit of geometry, trigonometry, math analysis, or calculus

Social Studies: one unit of world history; one unit of state history and civics; and one unit of United States history

Foreign Language: two units of one language

Science: two to three units of science, at least one of which should be a lab science

Advanced Placement courses are encouraged. Appropriate exceptions may be made.

ADMISSION PROCEDURE

First-time Freshmen

Entering freshmen must submit the following to the Office of Admissions:

■ Application for Admission: An application for admission, accompanied by a $30 nonrefundable application fee, should be submitted as early as possible, but not more than one year before the term in which the student plans to enroll.

■ Transcripts: Entering freshmen should submit an official sixth- or seventh-semester high school transcript. The student's high school counselor or principal should send an official copy of the transcript to the Oklahoma City University Office of Admissions. An official final high school transcript with graduation date posted must be received prior to the start of classes.

■ Entrance Examinations: All incoming freshmen are required to take either the ACT or the SAT. The results are helpful in counseling and placement. Additionally, they are used in considering a student for academic scholarships. Test scores should be sent directly to OCU. The ACT code for OCU is 3416. The SAT code for OCU is 6543.

NOTE: An applicant who does not hold a high school diploma may be considered for admission by completing the following steps:

- Submitting GED test scores
- Presenting official transcripts of all high school work attempted
- Submitting official ACT or SAT test results
- Completing a personal interview with the director of admissions

An applicant who is home schooled may be considered for admission by completing the following steps:

- Presenting an official transcript, including course work and grades, from the home schooling experience
- Demonstrating that he or she is graduating no earlier than his or her class in the public school system
- Submitting an official copy of the ACT or SAT test scores

Transfer Students: Degree-Seeking

Transfer students seeking admission to Oklahoma City University must have a minimum 2.00 GPA from a regionally accredited institution of higher learning and must have been in good standing at the institution last attended. In addition, applicants must submit the following to the Office of Admissions:

- Application for Admission: A $30 nonrefundable application fee must accompany the application.
- College Transcripts: Two official transcripts from each institution attended is required. Students should request that one official transcript be sent directly to the Office of Admissions and one to the Office of Financial Aid.
- High School Transcripts: An official high school transcript is required for transfer students who have earned less than 29 hours of college credit.
- Entrance Examinations: Transfer students with less than 29 hours of transferable credit must submit ACT or SAT scores to OCU in order to be considered for admission.

Students ineligible to return to the school most recently attended will not be considered for admission until at least one semester has elapsed since the last term attended. (The summer session will not be considered an intervening semester.)

Readmission to the University

A student who is dismissed from OCU for academic reasons and wishes to reapply to the same program must wait one full academic year before applying for readmission. In order to be considered for the earliest possible readmission date, students must submit their requests to the registrar no later than the date indicated in the letter of dismissal from the registrar.

At the time of dismissal, the student will be informed of possible avenues to pursue, such as additional academic course work from other postsecondary institutions. This information will be communicated in the dismissal letter sent by the registrar. Official transcripts and records of academic work completed during the period following the dismissal must be included along with the request for readmission.

The Student Probations and Petitions Committee will review requests for readmission. Requests for readmission will be reviewed prior to the semester in which the student is eligible to re-enroll.

Academic Forgiveness

A former OCU student who has not attended the university for at least five years and does not have the academic credentials to receive clear readmission to the university may petition the Admissions, Financial Aid, and Special Accommodations Committee to be admitted under the academic forgiveness policy. Students may be admitted conditionally and must agree that no prior hours will count toward the degree. Likewise, their poor GPAs will not be counted against them while they are at OCU. This forgiveness policy does not extend the student's financial aid eligibility. Previous work will still be indicated on the transcript, although it will not be calculated into the GPA at OCU. Students admitted under this policy must understand that the policy is an internal policy only. Other institutions have their own rules and regulations regarding these situations.

Unclassified Students

Students may enroll at OCU for purposes of personal enrichment, professional growth, or transfer of credit to another institution. Such students will be designated as unclassified students.

Unclassified students who do not plan to seek a degree at OCU do not need to meet the admission requirements specified for degree-seeking applicants. Unclassified students may earn a maximum of 12 semester hours at OCU. In addition, unclassified applicants must submit the following to the Office of Admissions:

- Application for Admission: A $30 nonrefundable application fee must accompany the application.
- Transcripts: Students should submit an official transcript or a letter of good standing from the registrar of the last school attended.

Concurrent Enrollment

High school students with unusually strong records may concurrently enroll at OCU during their senior year. Students who are ready for college work before the completion of the usual four years of secondary school may take course work at OCU if they have an ACT score of 26 or higher and a GPA of 3.25 or higher. In addition, the applicant for concurrent enrollment must submit the following to the Office of Admissions:

- A letter of recommendation from the principal or counselor of the student's high school
- A letter from a parent or guardian of the student endorsing concurrent enrollment
- A letter from the applicant stating why she or he believes she or he is ready for college work before the completion of a traditional high school program
- A completed OCU application.

Conditional Admission*

Applicants who do not meet the admission criteria stated in this catalog may be admitted on a conditional basis. In order to be considered for conditional admission, the student must do the following:

- Submit at least two letters of recommendation from school officials, teachers, or counselors or submit a letter of recommendation from an OCU faculty member

- Write and submit a letter describing the student's academic history, and how he or she will be academically successful at OCU
- Provide any additional documentation that displays academic promise

Once the above items are complete, the student will schedule and attend a personal interview with the director of admissions. Following the interview, the director of admissions will rule on the individual appeal.

Students admitted conditionally must adhere to the following guidelines:

- Conditionally admitted students may enroll in no more than 12 credit hours for the first semester or term of attendance.
- Students with 0-29 attempted semester hours must achieve a minimum of 1.70 GPA in the first 12 credit hours of course work. Students with greater than 29 attempted hours must achieve a minimum of 2.00 GPA in the first 12 credit hours of course work.
- Conditionally admitted students will be allowed to participate in extracurricular activities, but may be required to attend academic enhancement activities such as study hall as a condition of admission.

The above guidelines must be met in order to continue beyond the first semester at OCU and to be removed from conditional status. Failure to meet the above requirements may result in dismissal from the university.

*International students should consult with the International Admissions Office about conditional admissions.

INTERNATIONAL STUDENT ADMISSION

Oklahoma City University has students from over sixty countries studying in its undergraduate and graduate programs. The university is authorized under federal law to enroll non-immigrant alien students.

Admission of International Students

All international student applications, graduate and undergraduate, are processed by the International Admissions Office. For applications and information, write to the following address:

International Admissions Office
Oklahoma City University
2501 North Blackwelder
Oklahoma City, OK 73106 U.S.A.
E-mail: iso@okcu.edu.

Oklahoma City University does not have application deadlines, but recommends that applications be submitted no later than one month before the semester begins.

English Proficiency

Students whose native language is other than English must demonstrate proof of English language proficiency. Applicants must achieve a score of at least 500 on the paper-based or 173 on the computer-based Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) for most programs. The requirements may also be met by completing level 109 of the intensive program at an ELS Language Center. A few programs require level 110. Students who have studied for at least two full-time semesters at an academic institution in the United States, Canada, the United Kingdom, or Australia are exempt from this requirement. Conditional admission may be given if the applicant indicates that he or she will be studying at the ELS Language Center located on the OCU campus. For applications and information about Intensive English training, write to the following address:

ELS Language Centers
1915 N.W. 24th Street
Oklahoma City, OK 73106
www.els.edu
e-mail: okc@els.edu

Financial Support

International applicants must submit a certified letter of support from a sponsor, family member, or other source showing that they have adequate financial resources to provide for educational and living expenses at OCU.

Housing

All single, full-time undergraduate students under the age of twenty-one are required to live in on-campus housing unless they are living with parents or legal guardians. Persons twenty-one years of age and older are excused from housing regulations.

General Financial Information

Tuition is the same for all students, whether residents or non-residents of Oklahoma. Tuition rates are published annually in a separate tuition and fees announcement. Laboratory and class fees are charged on a flat-fee basis in addition to tuition.

A music major will pay the general tuition, which includes two half-hour lessons. Charges for additional lessons and for those not required in the curriculum are based on the individual teacher's fees. (Contact the Bass School of Music for a list of teachers and their individual fees.) Special practice arrangements will be made for the student enrolled only in applied music. An applied music fee will be charged to any student enrolled in applied music. For applied vocal music classes, an additional charge is assessed for the accompanist.

Tuition for courses taken on an audit basis will be assessed a nonrefundable audit fee rate of $75 per credit hour plus fees. Audit fees are not considered part of the structure for block tuition charges and will be assessed in addition to regular tuition charges.

RULES GOVERNING PAYMENT OF TUITION

All tuition charges and fees are due on the published first day of class for each semester or term. Students, at the discretion of the Student Accounts Office, may be allowed to contract for deferred payment arrangements provided that all prior charges have been paid in full.

Deferred contract arrangements for fall and spring semesters will be allowed as follows: one-fourth of the unpaid balance after financial aid, if any, has been taken into consideration, will be due on the published first day of class; three additional payments will be due in accordance with the deferred payment contract. If the unpaid balance is paid within ten days of the due date of the first installment, no interest will be charged.

Deferred payment agreements are available for summer terms and accelerated nine-week cycles with two payments. Further information about deferred payment agreements may be obtained from the Student Accounts Office.

Students awarded financial aid in the form of work-study should be aware that this form of aid is not considered in determining the balance due in tuition, fees, room, and board for the semester. Students who so choose may request their work-study checks be forwarded by the Payroll Office to the Student Accounts Office to be applied to their accounts.

If tuition charges and fees are to be paid by a third party other than the student's family or financial aid, a written authorization from the third party must be presented at the time of enrollment; otherwise, the student will be required to meet the financial requirements listed above. Veterans attending the university under the G.I. Bill are required to comply with the same rules governing nonveteran obligations.

No student will be allowed to enroll in any semester or term if his or her account is past due. No student will be given a letter of good standing, transcript, or diploma until all financial obligations to the university are paid.

All tuition, fees, and charges made by the university are payable at the Student Accounts Office. Students may also submit payment for their OCU charges online on the OCU Web for Students.

Payments to student accounts are applied first to tuition and fees and then to other charges. The only exception to this application of payment is donor restriction on a gift or endowed scholarship.

SPECIAL SERVICE FEES

Fees are published annually in a separate tuition and fees announcement. The following fees typically are paid by all students but are subject to change annually.

There is a student services fee assessed during each semester in which a student is enrolled.

An annual parking permit is required of all students for on-campus parking.

A technology fee for access to the academic computer system is charged to all students each semester.

All students pay the academic enrichment fee on a per-credit basis. This fee funds the university's assessment program and enhances academic programs and opportunities for all students.

All non-law students pay the Dulaney-Browne Library fee. This fee supports the collections, facilities, and services of the Dulaney-Browne Library, including the costs of online computerized library service available to all students both on and off campus.

An international student fee and international student insurance fee are charged each semester. All fees are mandatory for international students.

A health service fee is assessed to all students (fall and spring semesters). The Office of Student Health and Disability Concerns is staffed by a full-time registered nurse who is available to assist students in resolving many health-related issues. This fee is included in the student service fee.

Students enrolling late will be charged a late registration fee. Those who pre-enroll and pay late will be charged a late payment fee.

Charges for tests given to persons not enrolled in the university vary depending upon the test taken.

All students pay a one-time comprehensive records fee for each degree earned. Payment of this fee entitles OCU students and alumni to copies of their official transcripts at no additional charge. The registrar reserves the right to limit the number of official transcripts an individual may receive within a particular time period.

Undergraduate degree, master's degree, and juris doctor degree candidates pay a graduation fee that covers the cost of a diploma and graduation ceremonies. The graduation fee does not include the cost of academic regalia, graduation announcements, or the cost of binding the required two copies of the master's degree thesis. The graduation fee must be paid at the beginning of the semester or term in which the work for a degree is to be completed.

Veterans Benefits

A Veterans Service Office is operated by Oklahoma City University as a service to the veteran student. It neither sets policy nor administers V.A. programs. University personnel assigned to the office process the forms as a service to the student who is claiming V.A. educational benefits and act as liaisons between the student and the Veterans Affairs Regional Office. Students who wish to receive benefits must report to the OCU certifying official in the Registrar's Office each semester to fill out a Request for Certification. For further information, please contact the Veterans Service Office.

Adding and Dropping Courses

Procedures and deadlines for adding and dropping classes are described in this catalog under Academic Regulations.

Withdrawals

Students unable to remain at the university to complete their courses for the term should process a full withdrawal.

Procedures for withdrawal from all classes are in this catalog under Academic Regulations. Full withdrawals from the university are not complete until the withdrawing student has been counseled by a financial aid representative and validated by the Student Accounts Office. Tuition adjustments, if any, are based on the date of Student Accounts validation. (See also "Return of Unearned Federal Title IV Funds" under Financial Assistance.)

TUITION ADJUSTMENTS

Each term has a published first day of class as outlined in the academic calendar. A 100 percent tuition adjustment is made for varying time periods beginning with the published first day of class. After this period, there will be no further adjustments. The time periods vary as follows:

Fall and spring semesters—up to and including Friday after ten semester class days.

Summer and accelerated cycles—up to and including the first Friday.

Refunds for financial aid on student accounts in excess of charges may be requested from the Student Accounts Office. No refunds are made against financial aid, which must be returned upon student withdrawal, until after the end of the third week of fall and spring semesters or the second week of summer semesters. Such aid would include Perkins Loans, scholarships, Pell Grants, Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grants (SEOG), and any other aid which would be cancelled upon student withdrawal.

All refunds are made by direct deposit or the Chase E-Funds debit card. Contact the Student Accounts Office for details.

E-Mail

The university e-mail system will be utilized as the official method of communication. All students will be given an e-mail account and expected to use and maintain their account. Official OCU correspondence such as financial aid and billing, as well as campus activities will be sent via e-mail to the OCU e-mail system.

Each student will be provided 50 MBs of disk space for their e-mail account. This provides enough disk space for a large amount of basic e-mail. However, large attachments could easily use up a student's disk space quota, and should be removed from the account in a reasonable time frame.

OCU has security monitoring and anti-spam software and hardware installed to secure its systems and reduce the amount of spam that enters the e-mail system. Students are required to secure their passwords and maintain their e-mail accounts.

OCU requires students to use the OCU e-mail system for their academic electronic communications. All students are responsible for the management and content of their account. Information for accessing e-mail is provided at: <http://stuweb.okcu.edu/>. Once a student has an e-mail account, he or she can access the e-mail system at: <http://email.okcu.edu/>.

Important Notice about E-Mail: Important information and notices will be sent to the student's OCU e-mail account. This information may include important dates, times, and deadlines. Paper notices will no longer be used. International students will receive all updates on immigration regulations and newsletters through their OCU e-mail accounts. All OCU students are required to activate their e-mail accounts and check them on a regular basis. A student's failure to check and maintain his or her account on a regular basis will not be accepted as an excuse for missing information, dates, and/or deadlines.

Identification Cards

Identification cards issued to all students are permanent for as long as the student is enrolled in the university. The card identifies the student and allows participation in student activities and elections. It admits the student to all home athletic events, various student activities, and enables students to receive free or half-price tickets to university drama, opera, and dance productions and concerts. A student identification card grants access to libraries and computer labs and serves as a meal ticket for students who are on a board plan.

The identification card is used to print documents in the computer labs, and money may be added by the student for use at Alvin's and the cafeteria.

Bookstore Book Bucks

Book Bucks are available at the Student Accounts Office to students having sufficient financial aid to cover books and are to be used only at the OCU Bookstore. Book Bucks may be ordered online at www.okcu.edu or by calling the Student Accounts Office.

Direct deposit or the Chase E-Funds debit card is required to receive Book Bucks.

FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE

Students who are sincerely interested in attending Oklahoma City University need not allow financial circumstances to stand in the way of applying.

Types of Assistance Available

The Office of Financial Aid will assist, to the extent possible, any admissible student in developing a financial aid package to help meet his or her basic educational expenses. By financial aid, the university means scholarships, federal grants and loans, and part-time campus employment.

Eligibility for Financial Assistance

The Office of Financial Aid will consider the student's cost of attendance at OCU, the family's ability to pay, and the student's academic potential to determine eligibility for financial aid. OCU scholarships may only be used to pay for charges billed to the OCU student account. These funds are not refundable to the student. The amount of the aid package for students who receive an offer for more than one scholarship award will be assessed within the limits of OCU financial aid policy. In many programs, scholarship awards cannot be combined. Reassessment by the director of financial aid is required if any additional scholarship is offered to the student.

Federal financial aid is available for study abroad if the student is receiving OCU credit hours toward his or her degree. All federal aid may be used to help defer expenses; however, institutional aid can only be used for study abroad programs as determined by the Office of Financial Aid, with the exception of scholarships available through the Office of International Education.

Application Procedures

To be considered for any type of financial assistance, a student must first be admitted to the university. Transfer students must have provided all official transcripts. Students must be at least half-time in order to be considered for financial aid, with the exception of the federal Pell Grant program. A student may be less than full time and receive a federal Pell Grant. Only students who are seeking a degree may apply for financial aid; audited courses will not be considered in the financial aid package. Students who repeat course work for which financial aid has already been received may not be eligible for additional financial aid for those repeated classes.

All students are encouraged to apply for federal student aid. The student should file a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) online at www.fafsa.ed.gov and designate Oklahoma City University (code 003166) to receive a copy of the results. The student will receive a Student Aid Report (SAR) from the Federal Student Aid Processing Center in response to the FAFSA.

In addition to the FAFSA, other forms may be required based on the student's individual circumstances. Students should contact the Office of Financial Aid for additional application procedures, including applications for summer school attendance and for need-based scholarship awards.

Deadline for priority processing is March 15. FAFSAs received after the deadline will be considered in the order received for as long as aid resources are available. Funding restrictions may alter eligibility for some programs.

Return of Unearned Federal Title IV Funds

Class attendance is important in determining a student's eligibility for federal financial aid. As mandated by the Department of Education, recipients of federal Title IV student financial aid—Pell Grant, SEOG, Stafford Loans, Perkins Loans, Parent Loans for Undergraduate Students (PLUS)—need to complete at least 60 percent of the term enrolled to earn all of the federal funding awarded for that enrollment period. When a recipient withdraws from the term for which funds are paid directly to the student or used to pay charges owed by the student for the specific enrollment period, a return of federal funds calculation is required.

Students earn the opportunity to receive federal funds based on the number of days attended in each enrollment period, expressed as a percentage of the total number of days in the term. This calculation translates into the percentage of federal Title IV funds earned by the student while in attendance. Unearned federal funds must be immediately returned to federal programs. This may leave the student owing charges directly to Oklahoma City University.

Two additional variables are important for students to understand if they are recipients of federal Title IV funds. After a student has attended through the 60 percent point of the enrollment period, no calculation for return of federal funds is required. The student is considered to have earned the funds received for the term enrolled. The second variable of importance is for students who have earned a percentage of funds they have been awarded but have not yet received. These students may still be eligible to receive a percentage of those funds after total withdrawal occurs. The required calculations will determine eligibility for funds.

Attendance is the key. A student awarded financial aid who is having difficulty should take advantage of advising, counseling, and tutoring to remain in attendance and successfully complete his or her courses. If enrollment is maintained in at least one class with attendance beyond the 60 percent date during the term, this policy will not affect the student. All withdrawals will impact satisfactory academic progress (SAP). Refer to the OCU Satisfactory Academic Progress Policy. Contact the Office of Financial Aid for more information.

OCU Satisfactory Academic Progress Policy (SAP) for Financially Aided Students

In accordance with federal, state, and university aid and scholarship program guidelines, academic progress toward a degree must be made in order for students to continue receiving funds.

1. Financially aided students are expected to make qualitative satisfactory academic progress to remain eligible for financial aid. Grade point average (GPA) requirements are defined in this catalog. Generally, all institutional scholarships require a minimum 2.50 GPA and full-time enrollment. Some individual aid programs require higher GPAs for eligibility. All periods of enrollment are considered, including all transfer work attempted. All undergraduate students must maintain a minimum cumulative GPA of 2.00.
2. Financially aided students are also expected to make quantitative progress. Successful hours earned of the total hours attempted is monitored quantitatively. Grades of I, W, WF, WA, F, NR, NC, and AU are not successful completions. The minimum earned-credit-hour requirement for a baccalaureate degree is 124. Following is the quantitative progress chart.

Full-time undergraduate academic years completed and GPA required:

Year 1 = 18 hrs	Year 2 = 36 hrs
Year 3 = 54 hrs	Year 4 = 72 hrs
Year 5 = 90 hrs	Year 6 = 108 hrs
Cumulative GPA = 2.00

Maximum hours for undergraduate work is 186.

Students who attend on a less-than-full-time basis will be expected to make equivalent satisfactory progress using the same formula but on a prorated basis. The minimum undergraduate completion rate is 75 percent. By federal regulation, financial aid is available only up to 150 percent of the normal quantitative time frame. Maximum time frame for a baccalaureate degree is 12 full-time terms or 186 hours attempted.

3. If a student does not meet his or her SAP requirements at the end of a semester, OCU will grant one semester of aid on financial aid probation. At the end of the next semester, he or she must have met the SAP requirement, or financial aid will be suspended until academic performance is raised to the required level. Students are allowed only one semester of aid while on probation. However, if a student is diligently working on raising his or her GPA, completing every hour attempted, and earning good grades, the financial aid advisor has the discretion to continue that student on probation. Students who have exhausted their quantitative eligibility will be placed on financial aid suspension.

4. If a student's financial aid is suspended, he or she is notified by mail and given the opportunity to submit an appeal and the required supporting documentation. The Financial Aid Appeals Committee will render a decision as to whether an additional term of aid eligibility would be appropriate considering the student's extenuating circumstances. The student will be notified by mail of the committee's decision. If the appeal is denied or the student chooses not to file an appeal, the student may enroll at his or her own expense if academically eligible. Successful completion of enrolled hours with appropriate grades may allow the student to re-establish eligibility for financial aid. The student must notify the Office of Financial Aid of regained eligibility. For a student to earn his or her way off suspension, he or she must enroll in classes at OCU. Transfer hours do not impact the OCU GPA. Correction of deficit hours or significant improvement of academic success is required for renewed eligibility. Information and forms are available in the Office of Financial Aid. Questions should be directed to the Office of Financial Aid at (405) 208-5211.

Renewals

Students must apply annually for renewal of financial aid. Federal renewal applications are available after January 1 of each year at www.fafsa.ed.gov. Conditions for renewal include continued financial eligibility, acceptable GPA, and SAP. Scholarship renewal is based on the SAP and is reviewed every semester. Scholarships generally require full-time enrollment.

ENDOWED SCHOLARSHIPS

Although students are not legally required to repay scholarships, if in the future they are able to return all, part, or in excess of the money granted to them, the university can help future deserving students. All scholarships require at least a minimum GPA of 2.50. Most require a higher GPA.

To apply for endowed scholarships, students need to complete their federal financial aid applications and submit a Departmental Merit and Need-based Scholarship application to the Financial Aid Office for consideration. Awards will vary based on academic merit, financial need, and availability of funds.

If a student is selected to receive an endowment, he is required to write a thank you letter to the donor who made the scholarship possible. The student must also submit a copy of the thank you letter to the Financial Aid Office to fulfill the requirement.

ON-CAMPUS HOUSING

Residence Halls

All single, full-time undergraduate students under the age of twenty-one are required to live in university housing unless they are living with their parent or legal guardian. Veterans, married or divorced persons, single parents, and persons over twenty-one years of age are excused from this housing regulation. Falsification of residence address may result in termination of enrollment. For more information concerning university housing, call (405) 208-7909.

The university believes that a valuable part of a student's learning experience occurs in the university residence halls. The student lives and learns with other students from different cultures and lifestyles. Numerous social and academic activities occur in the residence halls during the academic year.

There are five residence halls on the OCU campus: Walker, Banning, Smith, Draper, and Harris halls. Each residence hall is directed by a head resident and resident assistants, whose function is to answer questions and help solve problems related to community living.

Students living in on-campus housing are required to purchase a university meal plan.

Rates for Residence Halls

Housing rates for each academic year are published separately in a tuition and fees schedule. A $150 housing deposit is required along with a completed application and contract for residence halls housing. A portion of the housing deposit ($75) is nonrefundable. Scholarship students and athletes are NOT exempt from submitting a housing deposit. Refund information is stated on the housing application. Cancellation of a completed housing application must be received in writing by the director of residence life. No cancellations by telephone or other means will be accepted. Students with a housing deposit on account for whom a housing assignment cannot be made by the first day of classes each semester will receive a full refund of such deposit.

The housing assignment will automatically be cancelled if a student has not checked into his or her room by 8:00 a.m. on the first day of scheduled classes for each semester, unless the director of residence life is notified of the late arrival. The fall housing assignment will be canceled if a student's advance registration is canceled, and the deposit will be forfeited in full.

Apartment Living

The Cokesbury Court apartment complex offers the security of card-key entry and an eight-foot wrought-iron fence. Apartment options include efficiencies and two- and four-bedroom apartments with outdoor swimming pool, Jacuzzi, and on-site parking and laundry. Students classified as sophomore and above are eligible to apply for housing in Cokesbury Court. For more information, please call (405) 530-8100.

University Manor, located directly across from the campus on NW Twenty-third Street, offers one-bedroom unfurnished apartments for students classified as sophomore or above. Amenities include on-site parking and laundry facilities. For more information, contact the director of residence life at (405) 208-7909.

Food Service

There are several meal plans available to OCU students, including a variety of residence hall board plans and Stars Bucks, a flexible debit-card system. Students residing in the residence halls are required to participate in a residence hall meal plan, and students living in University Manor or Cokesbury Court apartments are required to purchase a Stars Bucks plan based on the length of their lease. Meals for students participating in any university meal plan or block meal plan are served in the Commons Food Court in the Tom and Brenda McDaniel University Center. Alvin's Café, located in the center, provides a quick snack or a full meal and a place to meet friends for relaxation or study. Food services are provided by Sodexo.

STUDENT LIFE

Oklahoma City University recognizes that learning takes place in many forms and places and not exclusively in the classroom. Students are encouraged to participate in activities both on and off campus. Activities sponsored by the Office of Student Life are for all OCU students and are well publicized around campus.

Students at Oklahoma City University play a large role in determining and regulating their own activities. Good student-faculty-administration relations are maintained through cooperative, responsible student leadership.

There are numerous social and academic organizations available to students on campus. When the school year begins, information is made available to all students about dates and meeting times for many organizations.

Religious Life

Religious Life services are under the direction of the clergy staff of University-Church Relations. The goal of Religious Life is to touch every life on campus. The program is not only a focus but a priority for school administration. Campus ministry includes the following:

Organizations: The OCU Wesley Foundation is the United Methodist campus ministry and is the home of Evensong Monday evening worship, the United Methodist Student Fellowship, and the Ecumenical International Disciple Fellowship.

Fellowship: Kappa Phi Christian Women's Service Organization and Sigma Theta Epsilon Christian Men's Fraternity.

Activities and communion: Thursday chapel, Evensong student worship, Bible studies, mission trips, spiritual formation groups, concerts, and luncheons for religion majors.

Services: The clergy staff of University-Church Relations are available to all students for pastoral services, premarital counseling, etc. Students are also encouraged to participate in area church services and special programming.

Student Senate

Student Senate is the governing body for all OCU students. The senate plans and implements a variety of activities for the caring community and serves as the voice for students in university governance. Senators develop leadership skills, gain valuable experience in making and delivering policy, and assist in organizing large, campus-wide events. The president of Student Senate serves as a voting member of the university's board of trustees. Elections for sophomore, junior, and senior senators are held late in the spring semester; freshman, graduate, and at-large seats are elected early in the fall semester.

Honorary Organizations

The following honorary and professional organizations are active on the Oklahoma City University campus. Partial membership requirements are listed.

Alpha Chi: Full-time student, junior standing or above, cumulative GPA of at least 3.80 and/or in the upper 5 percent of the junior and senior classes and recommended by the Honors and Awards Committee

Alpha Mu Gamma: Foreign language honor society

Alpha Phi Sigma: National Criminal Justice Society—criminal justice major completing one-third of course work and in the top 35 percent of the class

Alpha Psi Omega: Theater student honor society

Beta Beta Beta National Biological Honor Society, Alpha Chapter: Completion of three semesters in biology with 3.00 GPA in biology and overall

Blue Key National Honor Fraternity: Membership by election, second-semester sophomore standing or above, cumulative GPA of 3.40 or above

Delta Mu Delta Business Honorary Society: Membership is offered to undergraduate and graduate students who have completed half of their course work, have a GPA of .25 above a B or better, are in the top 20 percent of their class, and are in good standing with the university.

Honor Student Association: Open to students enrolled in the University Honors program.

Nursing Honor Society: Open to undergraduate nursing students who have completed one-half of the nursing curriculum, have a GPA of at least 3.00, are ranked in the upper 35 percent of the graduating class, and meet the expectations of academic integrity. Graduate nursing students who have completed one-quarter of the nursing curriculum, have a GPA of at least 3.50, and meet the expectations of academic integrity also are eligible for membership.

Phi Alpha Delta National Legal Fraternity: Membership by election

Phi Alpha Theta International History Fraternity: Membership by election

Phi Eta Sigma: Full-time student, freshman standing, GPA of at least 3.50

Phi Kappa Phi: an all-discipline national honor society. Election is by invitation only. Those elected must be ranked in the upper 7.5 percent of last-term juniors and upper 10 percent of seniors and graduate students.

Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia: National professional music sorority

Psi Chi National Honor Society: Psychology student honor society

Sigma Alpha Iota National Professional Music Fraternity: Membership by election

Theta Alpha Kappa: Religion student honor society

Greek Fraternities and Sororities

Three national sororities, Alpha Chi Omega, Alpha Phi, and Gamma Phi Beta and three national fraternities, Kappa Alpha, Kappa Sigma, and Lambda Chi Alpha, have chapters at OCU. The benefits of membership in a Greek organization include leadership experience, social and philanthropic activities, and opportunities to develop strong personal, supportive relationships with other members.

Each of the fraternities is housed in on-campus facilities that include meeting space, kitchen facilities, and residential space. Fraternity house residents are subject to campus regulations. Each sorority has meeting and storage space and kitchen facilities in the Nellie Melton Panhellenic Quadrangle.

The Interfraternity (IFC) and Panhellenic councils are composed of representatives from each of the active Greek organizations. These bodies regulate all interfraternity and intersorority matters with guidance from university-appointed administrators.

Membership in fraternities and sororities is by invitation only. Formal rush (membership selection) is held early in the fall semester. Other membership opportunities are available throughout the academic year. Contact the Office of Student Life for more information about membership eligibility.

EXTRACURRICULAR ACTIVITIES

Varsity Athletics

Oklahoma City University sponsors twelve varsity sports programs, including men's and women's basketball, women's softball, men's baseball, men's and women's golf, men's and women's rowing, men's and women's soccer, men's wrestling, and women's volleyball. Oklahoma City University is a member of the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA) and the Sooner Athletic Conference. The tradition of our sports programs is known nationwide.

Junior Varsity Athletics

Oklahoma City University sponsors five junior varsity sports programs, including men's and women's basketball, men's soccer, and men's and women's golf.

Cheerleading

The varsity cheerleaders play an exciting part in OCU athletics. In addition to cheering for the men's and women's basketball teams, the cheerleaders are involved in receptions, charity events, and other activities in the community.

Cheerleader tryouts are held in September each year and are open to anyone interested. Judging will be based on performance in a group cheer and an individual cheer. Jumps and tumbling will be evaluated.

Dance

All full-time students are eligible to audition for The American Spirit Dance Company, the OCU Liturgical Dancers, and the OCU Pep Dancers. Contact the dean of the Ann Lacy School of American Dance and Arts Management for further information.

Theater

All students, regardless of their majors, may audition for parts in the productions presented each year by the theater department. Contact the Department of Theater at (405) 208-5121 for detailed audition information.

Intramural Sports

The intramural sports program at OCU offers a full selection of individual and team sports. Awards and prizes are given for placement and participation alike. The program is designed to accentuate and enhance the interaction that students have with one another as well as with faculty and staff. The intramural sports program offers individuals an opportunity to maintain physical fitness while communing with friends. OCU has a variety of league and tournament events designed for both the competitive and the recreational player.

Events are scheduled so that the majority of students can participate without taking away from opportunities to get involved with other university programs. All students are required to register in the Intramural Sports Office for their particular sports of interest. The office is located in the Henry J. Freede Wellness and Activity Center. Registration does not obligate participation. For more information, call (405) 208-5378.

Music

University students are encouraged to continue participation in music activities, including performing in ensembles, taking private music lessons, and auditioning for productions. All qualified students are eligible to participate in Bass School of Music performing ensembles (Symphony Orchestra, Wind Philharmonic, Ad Astra, Men's Choir, University Singers, Chamber Choir, Jazz Ensemble, Pep Band, and various small ensembles). Auditions for Oklahoma Opera and Music Theater Company productions are open to all students. See the director of the organization in which you are interested for further information, or call the music office at (405) 208-5474.

Student Publications

All students, regardless of their major fields of study, are invited to apply to work on The Campus (the university newspaper) and The Constellation (the university yearbook). Students may also submit original poetry, fiction, artwork, and photography to the university's student and faculty literary journal, The Scarab.

CULTURAL ENRICHMENT EVENTS

A wide range of events is annually scheduled on campus in music, drama, musical theater, art, literature, cinema, and a variety of lectures.

Among the cultural enrichment opportunities available and easily accessible in the Oklahoma City area are the Oklahoma City Philharmonic concerts, Oklahoma Art Center, the Omniplex, and several theaters. By presenting their ID cards, OCU students may attend all Civic Music Association concerts held in the Kirkpatrick Fine Arts Building, Kirkpatrick Auditorium, at no charge.

C. G. Jung Lectureship

This lectureship presents lectures and discussions led by distinguished Jungian analysts and scholars to introduce and amplify Jungian psychology. Such eminent scholars as Robert L. Moore, Jean Shinoda Bolen, Tom Boyd, Ann Wilson Schaefer, and J. Philip Newell have spoken in recent years.

The Distinguished Speakers Series

The Distinguished Speakers Series was established to enrich the academic experience of students, faculty, and staff—and to create a Chautauqua experience that is free and open to the public. Nobel Laureates have joined a remarkable lineup of world-class thinkers, writers, and opinion-leaders who know that OCU is where ideas are freely expressed, and learning is a continuous process of being challenged and inspired. This lecture series fulfills one of the central purposes of a university by hosting provocative speakers from a wide variety of backgrounds and multiple perspectives, which generates new thinking, productive discussions, and the rare opportunity for future servant leaders to meet some of the most remarkable human beings alive today. Previous speakers include Wilma Mankiller, Elie Wiesel, Rabbi Harold Kushner, Brian Greene, Archbishop Desmond Tutu, Helen Thomas, Kurt Vonnegut Jr., Jonathan Kozol, Robert F. Kennedy Jr., George Will, Anne Simon, Sister Helen Prejean, and Morris Dees.

The Film Institute

The OCU Film Institute offers the university and the greater Oklahoma City community the opportunity to view classic and contemporary international films. Since 1982, the institute has been screening eight to ten films per year on designated Sunday afternoons to an audience of 150 to 425 people. The 2006-2007 academic year will be the Film Institute's twenty-fifth year. Each year the series focuses on a theme, and reading material on the theme and individual films is available at the showings. A discussion session follows each screening. The films are also available for university courses. In 1996, the Oklahoma Humanities Council awarded the institute one of four awards for excellence in humanities programming over the past twenty-five years in the state of Oklahoma. The film series is supported by OCU, the OCU Film Institute Endowment, the designated endowment in the Community Foundation of the Kirkpatrick Family Fund, and the Thatcher Hoffman Smith Endowment for the Center for Interpersonal Studies through Film and Literature.

The Neustadt Lectures

Mr. Walter Neustadt of Ardmore, Oklahoma, established the lecture series in 1983 for the purpose of strengthening understanding of the great contributions of the Judaic religious tradition to Western civilization and thought. Each year, a scholar is invited to the campus to speak on informative themes in the area of Hebraic scriptures, Judaic thought, and Jewish ethics and art.

The Willson Lectureship

This lectureship is provided by an endowment from Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Willson of Floydada, Texas. The lectures are held annually and are directed to the interest of students in the areas of religion and society.

STUDENT ASSISTANCE SERVICES

Alcohol and Drug Education Program

Oklahoma City University recognizes that drug and alcohol abuse diminish the strength and vitality of human resources. The Office of Student Life coordinates programs to educate students regarding the harmful aspects of alcohol and substance abuse and provides referral services for counseling and treatment. A copy of the complete policy can be found in the Student Handbook.

Campus Security

Several university programs exist to inform students, faculty, and staff about campus security and to educate them regarding methods of crime prevention. A session of the annual student orientation is devoted to this area. At various times during the year, OCU security officers participate in programs to inform individuals of the need to secure rooms and vehicles and to protect valuables.

The university is committed to providing a safe and secure environment for its students and staff. Toward that end it maintains a fully staffed security department, ensuring security services twenty-four hours a day. The officer-to-student ratio is one of the best nationwide and partially accounts for the university's low incidence of crime.

Seven emergency phones are strategically located across the campus to provide instant access to security dispatchers and, when requested, officers provide escorts across campus after dark.

Counseling

The university provides students with free counseling services. Students are urged to become acquainted with these opportunities and to make use of them. The dean of students and the advisor assigned for enrollment are always ready to refer the student to counselors in special areas such as academic difficulties, health problems, financial problems, occupational choices, employment on or off campus, religious problems, or mental health issues. The university chaplain is also available to counsel students.

Student Health and Disability Services Office

The Student Health Clinic is staffed by registered nurses and an advanced registered nurse practitioner and serves enrolled students, staff, and faculty. Services include health assessment, diagnosis, and treatment of minor illnesses and injury. Other services include gynecology care, male reproductive health, and referrals to community or specialty providers.

Reference materials on a variety of health topics are available in the clinic.

Disability Services is housed with the Student Health Clinic and provides classroom accommodations and assistance to undergraduate and graduate students with documented disabilities. The disability services provider works with university administration to develop and implement policies and procedures regarding students with disabilities. More information regarding the Student Health Clinic and Disability Services can be found at www.okcu.edu/admin/stuaffairs/stuhealth.asp.

Student Health Insurance

A university-sponsored commercial health insurance plan is available to students. Information regarding student health insurance for domestic and international students is available on the OCU Web site at www.okcu.edu/admin/stuaffairs/stuhealth.asp.

POLICIES ON STUDENT PRIVACY AND SEXUAL HARASSMENT

Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974

Oklahoma City University makes every effort to comply with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (Buckley Amendment). This act is designated to protect the privacy of students' educational records, to establish their right to review and inspect their records, and to provide guidelines for the correction of inaccurate information through informal and formal hearings.

The policy permits disclosure of educational records under certain limited circumstances and routine disclosure, at the university's discretion, of information referred to as directory information: name, local address, phone number, e-mail address, major, participation in sports, height, weight, degrees, honors, dates of attendance, and previous colleges attended. A student has the right to prevent disclosure of directory information by filing a request in the Registrar's Office. A copy of the complete policy and procedures is printed in the Student Handbook.

Policy on Sexual Harassment

It is the policy of the university to prohibit sexual harassment of its students, faculty, and staff by any member of the academic community. The purpose of this policy is to prevent any misunderstanding of OCU's intent to prohibit sexual harassment, to explain the procedures available, and to fully investigate complaints of harassment.

Sexual harassment is defined as an attempt to coerce an unwilling person into a sexual relationship, to subject a person to unwanted sexual attention, to punish a refusal to comply, or to create a sexually intimidating, hostile, or offensive working or educational environment. Sexual harassment consists of the following:

- The conditioning of the granting or denial of any employment or academic benefit upon the entering of a social or sexual relationship
- The use of an employee's or student's submission to, or refusal of, a request to enter a social or sexual relationship as the basis of employment or academic decisions affecting that employee or student
- Unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature that either unreasonably interferes with an individual's work or academic pursuits or creates an intimidating, hostile, or offensive work or academic environment

Sexual harassment can consist of a wide range of behaviors, from coercion of sexual relations to the unwelcome emphasizing of sexual identity. This definition will be interpreted and applied in accordance with accepted standards of mature behavior, academic freedom, and freedom of expression.

Sexual harassment in any situation will not be tolerated; it is particularly serious when it exploits the dependent relationship between students and faculty. When student-faculty relationships are abused in this way, there is a risk of great harm to students, to the faculty, and to the educational climate of the institution. While a particular interaction must be offensive and nonconsensual to be defined as harassment, faculty members and other individuals in positions of authority should be sensitive to the questions about mutuality of consent and to conflict of interest inherent in these kinds of relationships.

Individuals who believe they have been sexually harassed may obtain redress through the established informal and formal procedures of the university. Complaints about sexual harassment will be responded to in a prompt and equitable manner. The right to confidentiality of all members of the academic community will be respected in both informal and formal procedures consistent with the full and fair investigation of all allegations. Retaliation against individuals for bringing complaints of sexual harassment is prohibited. Formal procedures will not be initiated without a written, signed complaint. An individual found to have violated this policy is subject to disciplinary action consistent with existing procedures.

Faculty and other employees who wish to register a complaint may do so through informal discussion with their immediate supervisor. If the allegation is against the immediate supervisor, the complaint may be made to the appropriate vice president overseeing the department or to a member of the University Committee on Sexual Harassment. Allegations involving student-to-student or faculty-to-student sexual harassment should be submitted to the dean of students or to the vice president for administration and finance.

Any individual dissatisfied with the response to an informal complaint may file a written complaint with the University Committee on Sexual Harassment. The complaint should be submitted to the Assistant Vice President for Human Resources in Room 105 of the Clara Jones Administration Building.

GENERAL REQUIREMENTS FOR DEGREES

1. Degree requirements for students will be listed in the catalog in effect at the time of their first semester at OCU. Students who are not in attendance for one calendar year will be required to complete the degree requirements listed in the catalog in effect at the time of their re-entry.
2. All students entering OCU who have not completed ENGL 1113 and/or ENGL 1213 or a course accepted by the university as an equivalent or completed the requirements of ENGL 1113 and/or 1213 by way of examination are required to enroll in ENGL 1113 during the first semester of attendance and ENGL 1213 during the second semester of attendance.
3. The last 15 hours, including the last 6 of the major of a baccalaureate degree, must be completed in residence at OCU.* A minimum of 40 hours must be completed at OCU. A minimum of 124 hours is required for a degree.
*Student teaching may not be counted as the last 6 hours of an education major in this instance.
4. Concurrent enrollment at another institution must be approved by the student's academic dean.
5. A candidate for a degree must have a cumulative GPA of not less than a 2.00. Only courses taken at OCU are used to compute the cumulative GPA. (For the purpose of determining a student athlete's eligibility for participation in varsity and junior varsity athletic competitions, the student athlete's GPA must meet all applicable standards of all appropriate institutions including the conference, the athletic association, and the university, using each institution's methodology for calculating GPA.)
6. A candidate for a degree must have completed a major with at least a C average.
7. Undergraduate degree programs at OCU can include no more than 6 hours of credit from kinesiology (KES) courses at the 1000, 1100, and 1200 levels (or equivalent for transfer work). No more than 2 of these 6 credit hours may be earned from junior varsity and varsity sports combined.
8. The dean of each school/college is responsible for ensuring fulfillment of graduation requirements for each student receiving a degree in his or her respective school/college. The school/college is the final authority in determining the fulfilling of major graduation requirements for each student receiving a degree in his or her respective school or college.
9. Responsibility for meeting graduation requirements lies with the student. Students should be familiar with all requirements for a degree and the academic regulations of the university.

Second Baccalaureate Degree

A candidate for a baccalaureate degree must have a minimum of 124 semester hours. A candidate wishing to receive a second baccalaureate degree must complete a minimum of 154 semester hours. Additionally, the candidate must meet the major requirements for the second baccalaureate degree as well as any additional general education requirements not satisfied by the first degree.

Attendance and Academic Pursuit

Because education is the prime objective of the university, every student is expected to attend classes regularly unless prevented by genuine emergency reasons or by representing the university in an organized activity. Students are expected to make up all work missed, regardless of the reasons for absence. Students should keep teachers informed of the reasons for absences. It is the student's responsibility to be informed of the attendance policy in each course in which he or she is enrolled.

Time Limits on Course Work

If any course on a student's transcript was taken at OCU ten or more years ago, the transcript will be evaluated by the appropriate academic dean in the same manner as a transcript received from another institution.

ACADEMIC HONESTY

Academic honesty is required in all aspects of a student's relationship with the university. Academic dishonesty may not be course-specific and includes falsification or misrepresentation of a student's academic progress, status, or ability, including, but not limited to, false or altered transcripts, letters of recommendation, registration or advising forms, or other documents related to the student's academic career at Oklahoma City University or other colleges or universities. Students are personally responsible for the correctness and accuracy of information supplied to the university. Any student who knowingly gives incorrect information to the university is subject to disciplinary action that may lead to suspension.

Students are advised that cheating and plagiarism are not tolerated. The university expects all students to maintain a high standard of ethics in their academic activities. In this context, forms of academic dishonesty include, but are not limited to cheating on tests, examinations or other class/laboratory work; involvement in plagiarism (the appropriation of another's work and/or the unacknowledged incorporation of that work in one's own); collusion (the unauthorized collaboration with another person); misrepresentation of actions; and falsifying information.

Grievance procedures, found elsewhere in the catalog, do not apply to the academic honesty policy procedures listed below.

Law students are subject to the code of conduct published in the Oklahoma City University School of Law Student Handbook.

Course-based procedures: Each faculty member will include in his or her syllabus either the Oklahoma City University's academic honesty policy or a reference to the appropriate Oklahoma City University Web site regarding the academic honesty policy. The faculty member will include in the syllabus a description of the course-based consequences if a student fails to adhere to the academic honesty policy.

If, in the judgment of the faculty member, a student fails to conform to the academic honesty policy the faculty member shall inform, in writing, the student's academic dean, the provost/VPAA and the student. (University Studies students are a part of the Petree College of Arts and Sciences). Sanctions for a student's breach of the academic honesty policy vary according to the nature and the seriousness of the offense. Sanctions are at the discretion of the faculty member involved within the constraints of the course in which the offense occurred. Sanctions by the faculty member may include but are not limited to, requiring a student to redo an assignment; recording an F (Failure) for a particular test, examination, class/laboratory assignment which involved dishonesty; or recording an F (Failure) for a final course grade.

Appeal: A student's appeal of the charge or the faculty-imposed sanction must be made in writing and delivered to the faculty member's dean within ten university business days after the date of the faculty member's letter outlining the infraction of the academic honesty policy. The appeal period is increased to twenty-one calendar days when the faculty member's letter must be mailed to a student residing outside the United States. If the tenth day (or twenty-first day, in case of a student residing outside the United States) falls on a weekend or university holiday, the appeal is due on the next university business day.

The faculty member's school/college will elect faculty members to serve on a faculty/student committee to hear all school/college appeals for that academic year. The dean of the school or college will appoint student(s) to serve on the committee. If a faculty member is on the committee and the faculty member taught the course in question, he or she will not serve on the school/college committee for this appeal. The dean will appoint a replacement member for this appeal. If the dean taught the course in question, the appeal will go directly to the provost/VPAA or associate provost.

There is a presumption that the faculty member's decision is correct and, in the absence of extraordinary circumstances, shall not be changed. The faculty committee will render a decision, in writing, regarding the student's appeal within fifteen university business days of receiving the appeal. The faculty/student committee may lessen the sanctions but may not increase the course-based sanctions. The faculty appeals committee's decision will be final, and there will be no further appeal of the faculty member's decision. If the student is exonerated no further action will occur.

School/College-based Procedures: If the student chooses to appeal and the appeal is not upheld or the student chooses not to appeal the faculty member's actions, the student's dean has the option of adding sanctions. Consequences may include loss of school/college-based scholarship funds, community service, or dismissal from the school/college. The dean can not change the student's grade. The dean must notify the student within ten university business days of the decision to impose additional sanctions. The appeal process is increased to twenty-one calendar days when the dean's letter must be mailed to a student then residing outside the United States. If the tenth day (or twenty-first day, in the case of a student then residing outside the United States) falls on a weekend or university holiday, the appeal is due on the next university business day.

Appeal: The student, within ten university business days after the date of the written notification of sanctions, imposed by the dean of the student's college/school, may appeal, in writing, to the provost/VPAA or associate provost. The provost/VPAA or associate provost's decision is final, and there will be no further appeal.

Loss of privilege to withdraw from a course: A student who has violated the academic honesty policy shall lose the privilege of withdrawing from the course in which the violation occurred in order to avoid the collateral consequences of sanctions which may be imposed by the faculty member teaching the course.

Provost/VPAA-based Procedures: The Office of the Provost will keep a file of all student violations of the academic honesty policy across the university. The provost/VPAA or associate provost may, at his or her discretion, convene the Student Probations and Petitions Committee to consider dismissal of the student from the university for grievous or repeated violations of the academic honesty policy. The provost/VPAA or associate provost must inform the student at least ten university business days prior to the time the Student Probation and Petitions Committee meets. The student has the right to appear before the Student Probation and Petitions Committee. The Student Probation and Petitions Committee will convene and render a decision regarding dismissal of a student from the university or other actions. The decision of the Student Probation and Petitions Committee is final and can not be appealed. Students dismissed from the university for academic honesty violations will not be eligible for readmission.

Student Discipline

Every student is expected to observe the highest standards of conduct, both on and off the campus. The university cannot accept the responsibility for the education of any student who is not in sympathy with the purposes and the regulations of the university. Note: In the case of Law School students, the Law School Student Conduct Code Article 2.01 governs, and such students are subject to the Law School Disciplinary Tribunal.

OCU reserves the right to exclude any student whose conduct or academic standing it regards as undesirable, without assigning any further reason. In such cases the fees due or which may have been paid in advance to the university will not be remitted or refunded in whole or in part. Neither the university nor any of its officers will be under any liability whatsoever for such exclusion. Any student under disciplinary suspension will be persona non grata on campus except for official business.

The entire judicial structure of the university is set forth in the Student Handbook, which is available on the university Web site. Students are responsible for all information contained in this catalog, the Student Handbook, and all class schedules. Copies of class schedules can be obtained in the Registrar's Office.

Academic Advisement

OCU provides guidance for admission, course selection, and instruction. Every student is assigned to an academic advisor who counsels on academic matters. Academic advisors approach their counseling responsibilities in different ways. In general, they can answer questions about courses and majors. Students are assigned to faculty members in their major area of interest, with undecided students—who are classified as “university studies” students—being advised by the dean of the Petree College of Arts and Sciences. The student's relationship with an academic advisor can provide unique opportunities that may enrich his or her academic experience. An advisor will not make decisions for the student but will offer support and encouragement. It is understood that the counselor works in an advisory capacity and is not responsible for the failure of the student to follow the requirements for graduation set forth in the catalog. The provost is the ultimate authority on interpretation of requirements for graduation.

ADVANCED STANDING CREDIT

Transfer credit from accredited colleges and universities or noncollegiate credits earned from the FAA, military experience, American Institute of Banking, and other approved programs are posted on a student's permanent record after successful completion of 12 credit hours at OCU.

Credit by Examination

The university allows capable students the opportunity to earn advanced placement and credit in selected areas by participating in various testing programs recognized by OCU.

OCU allows high school students the opportunity to earn college credit in selected areas by participating in the College Entrance Examination Board's program of advanced placement examination. The Advanced Placement (AP) tests are administered through high schools by the Educational Testing Service.

International Baccalaureate Scores

OCU recognizes credit earned through the International Baccalaureate (IB) program, which is administered through selected high schools. Credit will be awarded to students who have taken "Higher Level" courses and scored at least four (on a seven-point scale) on the Higher Level course examination. The following is a list of courses for which IB credit can be earned.

Subject Area	OCU Course Number	Credits Earned
General Biology	BIOL 1214	4
General Chemistry (nonmajors only)	CHEM 1014	4
Economics	ECON 2013 & ECON 2113	6

Oklahoma School of Science and Mathematics

OCU awards college credit for the following courses successfully completed by students attending the Oklahoma School of Science and Mathematics (OSSM).

OSSM Subject Area	OCU Course Number	Minimum Grade	Credit Earned
General Biology	BIOL 1214	80%	4
Anatomy & Physiology	BIOL 2003 and BIOL 2041	80%	4
Vertebrate Zoology	BIOL 2303 and BIOL 2341	80%	4
General Chemistry I	CHEM 1104 and CHEM 1141	80%	5
General Chemistry II	CHEM 1204 and CHEM 1241	80%	5
Calculus I	MATH 2004	90%	4
Calculus II	MATH 2104	90%	4
Mechanics	PHYS 2104	90%	4
Electricity & Magnetism	PHYS 2204	90%	4

Students should inquire in the Office of Admissions for additional information on the acceptance of credit for AP, CLEP, IB, and OSSM. Please consult with your OCU admissions counselor and/or the director of admissions to clarify any questions you have prior to registering or taking an advanced standing test.

Transfer of Undergraduate Credit

Acceptance of transfer credit is a twofold process. All transfer work must be from an institution that has been accredited by a regional accrediting agency. Eligibility of the transferring institution will be determined by the Registrar's Office. The transfer work from the regionally accredited school will then be posted on the student's OCU transcript by the Registrar's Office. Posting of this course work does not guarantee that the courses have been accepted towards a specific degree. The student is responsible for requesting an official transcript from any and all other institutions. Official transcripts are defined as transcripts mailed directly from one institution to OCU. Any transcript marked "Issued to Student" and/or hand-carried transcripts are not considered official and will not be accepted for transfer purposes. The student is also responsible for confirming that transcripts have been received by the Registrar's Office.

The applicability of any transfer credit to a specific degree is subject to the requirements for that degree. Interpretation of transfer credits is made by the chair of the department in which the comparable course is taught. Transfer credit must also meet all of the criteria outlined in the Transfer of Undergraduate Credit guidelines included below. Each student should receive a copy of a degree plan that has been prepared by his or her advisor, indicating the transferability of any or all courses.

Any student providing a transcript from an international institution is required to provide original documents for review by the International Admissions Office. Specific requirements for verifications will be determined by the International Admissions Office. The International Admissions Office may offer a preliminary review of all transfer work, but the chair of the department in which the comparable course is taught is responsible for approving transferred course work for credit toward an OCU degree.

General Requirements for Transfer Work

1. A maximum of 84 hours of credit is accepted from other regionally accredited institutions toward a degree at OCU. (A maximum of 68 credit hours is accepted from two-year college-level institutions.) Applicability of any transfer credit to a specific degree is subject to the requirements for that degree. Interpretation of transfer credits is made by the dean of the specific school or college. (See PLUS program description and R.N.-to-B.S.N. program description for PLUS and R.N.-to-B.S.N. policies on transfer of undergraduate credit.)
2. Transfer courses for which the OCU curriculum has no specific equivalent, but which meet the aims and spirit of specific OCU general education requirements, will be reflected on a student's OCU transcript under the following course designations. Courses so designated will meet the noted general education requirements. To receive general education credit for particular courses that have not yet been evaluated by OCU, the student must provide specific documentation of each course's content with the transfer petition form to the appropriate department or program chair for evaluation. The chair will determine whether to award specific general education credit and will notify the registrar of that decision.

3. Students with a baccalaureate degree from another regionally accredited college or university may transfer up to a total of 94 credit hours in pursuit of an additional baccalaureate degree from OCU.
4. Credit for military service may be granted in accordance with recommendations of the American Council on Education. Credit for military service, transfer work, AP, IB, CLEP, and OSSM credit are posted to a student's permanent record after successful completion of 12 credit hours at OCU. Credit for military service combined with transfer credit from regionally accredited institutions, AP, IB, CLEP, and OSSM credit is not to exceed 84 credit hours.
5. Once a student matriculates at OCU, the student must petition the dean of his or her specific school or college prior to enrollment to take credit hours at other regionally accredited colleges or universities to apply these credits towards an OCU degree. After matriculation at OCU, students may take no more than 12 hours as a transient student. These hours combined with transfer hours accepted before matriculation are not to exceed a total of 84 credit hours.
6. Students wishing to transfer college credit to OCU must have at least a 2.00 GPA.
7. A grade below a C- or its equivalent will not transfer.
8. Students seeking admission with fewer than 29 hours of college credit will be subject to the same admissions requirements as first-time freshmen, and their college transcript(s) must show a 2.00 GPA or better.

EVALUATION OF ACADEMIC WORK

Grading System

The following system of points is used for computing GPA:

A	4.00
B+	3.25
B	3.00
B-	2.75
C+	2.25
C	2.00
D+	1.25
D	1.00
D-	0.75
F	0.00

Students with credit from Honors courses will receive an additional 0.25 points. The grading system is for undergraduates and graduates in all schools except the School of Law.

Credit/No-Credit

The credit/no-credit option is available within the approved guidelines of each school. Please review the specific guidelines for each major to determine the eligibility of courses to be taken for a credit/no-credit grade.

The credit/no-credit option may only be selected from the time of pre-enrollment for the semester until the final day to drop courses without a transcript record (see academic calendar). Once this deadline has passed, the option to request a credit/no-credit grade is forfeited. A student must earn a C- or better to earn credit in the course. Students must obtain permission and the signature of the instructor in whose course they wish to earn a credit/no-credit grade. The instructor has the right to refuse students the option of a credit/no-credit grade. A separate credit/no-credit request form is available from the Registrar's Office.

Auditing Courses

An OCU student may audit a course (excluding courses offered by the School of Law) by attending class sessions and completing classroom assignments. No examinations are taken and no credit is given. The student transcript carries the designation AU. The AU designation, once recorded on the transcript, may not be changed to a letter grade. Audited courses do not satisfy degree requirements. If a student determines that a course that has been audited is needed to fulfill a major requirement, the student must repeat the course and earn a letter grade.

A student may audit only if permitted by the appropriate school or department policy and on a space-available basis. Students may not audit individualized academic experiences such as internships, directed study, independent study, music lessons, dance instruction, etc. Audited courses will not be considered in a student's normal semester load.

Procedure: The audit option can only be selected through the second Friday of the regular semester and through the first Friday after four class days of a summer session. Once the drop/add period is over, the option to audit a course is forfeited. Students must obtain permission and the signature of the instructor whose course they choose to audit. An instructor has the right to refuse to permit students to audit a course. Students registered to audit a class are not guaranteed a space until after the drop/add period. A separate audit form is available from the Registrar's Office.

Fees: Students are assessed a nonrefundable audit fee. Fee schedules are available from the Student Accounts Office. Audit fees are not part of the structure for block tuition charges and will be assessed in addition to regular tuition charges.

Adding Courses

For the fall and spring semesters, courses may be added through the first Friday after four class days of the semester without instructor approval. Courses added after the first Friday after four class days and through the second Friday after nine class days may be added only with instructor approval. Courses may not be added after this date. For the first and second summer terms, courses may be added through the first two class days. Courses added after the first two class days and through the Friday after four class days may be added only with instructor approval. Courses may not be added after this date.

Dropping Courses

The final date to drop a course is listed in the academic calendar. Students dropping courses before the final drop date will receive a W (withdrawal). After the final drop date, a student must receive approval from his or her instructor. The instructor must assign a grade of WP (withdrawal passing) or WF (withdrawal failing) for the course. A grade of WF will be calculated into the student's grade point average as a failing grade. The student then must receive approval from his or her advisor, academic dean, and the associate provost before the change in class schedule can be processed. No course may be dropped after the last day of classes.

Courses dropped through the 100 percent refund date will not appear on the student's permanent record. Changes in class schedule become effective on the day the form is processed by the Registrar's Office.

A 100 percent tuition adjustment is made for varying time periods beginning with the published first day of class. After this period, there will be no further adjustments. The time periods vary. See Tuition Adjustments for more information. Student attendance in a course does not affect the tuition reduction. The date the completed form is processed by the Student Accounts Office is the determining factor.

Withdrawal

A student who is completely withdrawing from the university must obtain a withdrawal form from the Office of the Registrar, International Student Office, Financial Aid Office, or his or her dean's office. Once this form is properly completed and processed through the Office of the Registrar and the Student Accounts Office, the withdrawal becomes effective on the date it is validated by the Student Accounts Office. A "W" (withdrawal) will be assigned for each course. Nonattendance of classes does not constitute official withdrawal. Withdrawal will be permitted up to and including the final regular day of classes for all semesters or terms. No withdrawals are permitted during finals week.

Incomplete Courses

When a course is not completed by the end of the semester or summer session, an instructor may assign an incomplete (I) at his or her discretion. The student must be performing at a passing level and have a legitimate reason to receive an "I."

Students cannot be assigned an "I" because they have excessive unexcused absences or because they are failing the course. Academic units and faculty members may establish their own policies regarding legitimate reasons to assign the "I" grade.

At the time that the incomplete is issued, a copy of an incomplete report form, which specifies what must be done to remove the "I" and the grade to be assigned if the work is not completed, must be submitted by the instructor. This form must be submitted to the Office of the Registrar no later than the date grades are due for the term that the "I" is assigned. A copy of the form will be sent to the student's dean by the Registrar's Office. The student is responsible for submitting the work by the deadline assigned by the instructor, not to exceed one year. If the "I" is not completed by the specified deadline, the grade will convert to the grade assigned on the incomplete report form.

In the event that a faculty member is no longer available, appropriate faculty shall be assigned by the dean or department chair to determine the grade.

Grade Points

The grades of W (withdrawal), WA (administrative withdrawal), WP (withdrawal passing), CR (credit), NC (no credit), I (incomplete), or NR (not reported) are omitted in counting grade points. The grade of WF (withdrawal failing) will be calculated into the grade point as a failing grade. Grade point totals are calculated by multiplying the number of credit hours of a course by the number of points for the corresponding grade received. A student's GPA will be determined by dividing the total number of grade points by the total number of hours attempted with the exception of courses in which marks of CR, W, WA, NC, I, and NR are received.

Repetition of Courses

An undergraduate course taken at OCU in which the original grade was C+ or below, including a WF (withdrawal failing) may be repeated only once unless special permission for an additional opportunity to repeat the course is received from the dean of the student's school. To repeat an undergraduate course, the course content must be the same as the original course (at the discretion of the faculty), and the course must be repeated at OCU. The higher grade will be calculated in the student's GPA. The lower grade will be recorded on the transcript as an R (repeat) and excluded from the student's GPA. The higher grade will be posted in the semester earned and included in the GPA. It will be noted on the transcript which grade has been excluded from the GPA. A student is permitted to repeat a maximum of eighteen semester hours or six different courses, whichever is higher. A grade of W, WP, or AU is excluded from this policy.

Course Numbering Systems

The first digit in each course number indicates the academic level at which the department places the course (1–freshman level, 2–sophomore level, 3–junior level, 4–senior level, 5 and 6–graduate level, and 7–9–law courses).

The second digit, in combination with the third, gives the course a unique number within its department and academic level. The second digit may be used to indicate sequence where two or more courses dealing with the same subject matter are sequential in arrangement. In the Bass School of Music, the second digit is also used to indicate the semester in which the course is offered (odd numbers for the fall semester, even numbers for the spring semester).

The third digit indicates the type of course. The type indicated by specific numbers varies from school to school. The fourth digit indicates the number of semester hours credit assigned to the course.

"I" following a course number denotes courses open only to international students for whom the first language is not English. "H" following a course number denotes courses for Honors students only and require permission of the Honors director to enroll.

Final Examinations

Final examinations are held in all courses upon the completion of each semester's or term's work. No one is to be excused from the final examinations. All classes will meet during the time stipulated by the Registrar's Office for final examinations. Students who have three final examinations scheduled on the same day may seek permission from either their instructors or their academic dean to have one exam rescheduled for another day within final examination week.

Course Cancellation Policy

The decision to cancel a course due to insufficient enrollment, faculty overload, or other circumstances will be made by the dean of the school offering the course in consultation with the instructor of the course. After notifying the Office of the Registrar of the cancellation, the dean will inform students enrolled in the course.

Departmental Independent Study

Most departments within the university provide independent study for as much as six hours of credit toward the major. This opportunity enables a student to expand the academic experience beyond the courses listed in the curriculum of a department by creating, in cooperation with the instructor and the chair of the department, special courses of interest to the student. It also allows the expansion of the student's educational experience into research and analysis of data, particularly advisable for those planning to undertake graduate study. The student may undertake independent study courses in blocks from one to six hours, but normally independent study courses are for three hours in a given semester.

Independent study courses are designed primarily for students who have declared a major in a specific department. A special contract must be completed by the student and signed by the instructor and the department chair. A student will not be permitted to register for independent study unless this contract is completed and filed in the appropriate dean's office.

Classification

A student who has fulfilled entrance requirements and is working toward a degree is designated as a classified student. Such a student will be classified as a freshman until 29 semester hours have been completed, as a sophomore if 30–59 semester hours have been completed, as a junior if 60–89 semester hours have been completed, and as a senior if more than 90 semester hours have been completed.

Student Academic Load

The minimum full-time academic load during the fall or spring semesters is 12 credit hours. Each school and college at Oklahoma City University may determine the maximum number of credit hours in which its undergraduates may enroll. For schools and colleges permitting maximum enrollments exceeding 18 credit hours, academic advisors are responsible for setting the credit hours for which an advisee may enroll, based on considerations that include, but are not limited to, a student's general academic record, semester and cumulative grade point averages, and demonstrated ability to successfully complete heavy academic loads. Each school/college will inform the registrar of its overload policy including the number of credit hours that will require dean's approval. Students may not enroll in more than 22 credit hours for fall or spring semesters.

A student whose GPA for the semester is below 2.00 will carry no more than 12 semester hours in the subsequent semester.

A student employed as much as twenty-five hours per week should carry an academic load at least three semester hours below the normal full-time load. If the student is working twenty-five to thirty-five hours per week, the academic load should be reduced six semester hours below the full-time student. If the student is working more than thirty-five hours per week, not more than one-half the normal full-time load of semester hours should be carried.

A student wishing to enroll at another institution simultaneously with an enrollment at OCU must have prior approval of the dean of his or her school. If the student is receiving veteran's education benefits, the Registrar's Office must be notified immediately to ensure that the required documents are submitted to the Veterans Affairs Regional Office.

Grade Reports

Midsemester grades are made available to students through the Web for Students and are available from advisors. Final grade reports are posted only through the Web for Students unless the student has requested, in writing to the Office of the Registrar, that grades be mailed to a specific address.

Records and Transcripts

All permanent records are in the Office of the Registrar. Requests for grades, transcripts, and diplomas should be made to that office.

A student who completes the requirements for a degree cannot be issued a complete transcript or a statement that the requirements have been completed until the end of the semester or term in which he or she is registered for credits needed for the degree. Students who complete the requirements for a degree prior to the next graduation date may secure from the Office of the Registrar a statement that the requirements for the degree have been completed.

Official transcripts may be ordered online, by mail, in person, or by fax to the Office of the Registrar. A request for official transcripts must include the following information:

- student's full name (while enrolled)
- student identification number
- date of birth
- last date of enrollment
- current address and phone number
- address where the transcript is to be sent
- student's signature

The cost of official transcripts is included in the comprehensive records fee; therefore, there is no additional charge for transcripts. The registrar may limit the number of transcripts a student may receive within a given time period. Transcripts are not issued until all outstanding accounts with the university are paid in full. Students and former students may call Student Account Services at (405) 208-5146, or go to the Student Account Services office to determine their financial status.

Photo identification is required when picking up transcripts from the Office of the Registrar. Written authorization is required for a transcript to be released to a third party. Parents may obtain a student's transcript provided they have written authorization from the student or a signed affidavit stating that the student is their financial dependent according to IRS regulations.

Grievance Procedure for Grade Appeal

A grade awarded by the course instructor is presumptively correct, and the instructor's determination is generally final. Other than for mathematical or data entry errors, no final grade can be changed except on proof of exceptionally egregious circumstances as defined below.

If a student has reasonable grounds to believe that a final grade received or final academic judgment made with respect to him or her in any course or program of study was based on violation of established university policies, procedures, or regulations, substantial error, bias, or miscarriage of justice, the student may, within ten school days of the receipt of the final grade or judgment, initiate a grievance. School days are defined as Monday through Friday when classes are in session, excluding breaks, final exam periods, and holidays. Grievance procedures for students attending programs outside the United States must be facsimiled within twenty-eight calendar days in order to meet the remainder of the deadlines. The process is composed of both informal and formal procedures.

I. Informal Grievance Procedure

- A. The student should arrange to speak with the instructor in an attempt to resolve the issue.
- B. If, after speaking with the instructor (or if, after reasonable effort on the part of the student to contact the instructor, she or he remains unavailable), the student still believes that the grade or judgment is based on violation of established university policies, procedures, or regulations, substantial error, bias, or miscarriage of justice, the student may take the grievance to the chair of the department in question. The chair will attempt to mediate the dispute. If there is no chair or the chair taught the course in question, the student should proceed to section II.

II. Formal Grievance Procedure

- A. Only if the issue is still unresolved after meeting with the chair of the department, as outlined in section I, the student may initiate the formal grievance process with the dean or the associate provost if the dean taught the course in question. The levels of action are clearly defined and include strict time limits designed to effect speedy resolution. No formal appeals procedure will be enacted if six months or more have elapsed since the incident. It is the responsibility of the student to initiate the process and follow it through. Failure of the student to move the appeal forward in the specified time limits will terminate the appeal.
 1. The student will first present his or her appeal to the dean of the college or school or the associate provost if the dean taught the course in question. The appeal will be in writing, in as much detail as possible, stating all aspects of the issue which the student feels pertinent.

Grounds for review will be limited to a showing by the student of violation of established university policies, procedures, or regulations, substantial error, bias, or miscarriage of justice. Copies of pertinent material in the student's possession or access will be included as appropriate.

2. Upon receipt of the material provided in section I, the dean, or associate provost when appropriate, will determine, within five school days, if the student has a prima facie case of violation of established university policies, procedure, or regulations, substantial error, bias, or miscarriage of justice. If the dean, or associate provost when appropriate, determines that insufficient evidence has been presented by the student, he or she will dismiss the appeal. If the dean, or associate provost when appropriate, determines that there is evidence which, if believed, would constitute a prima facie case of violation of established university policies, procedure, or regulations, substantial error, bias, or miscarriage of justice, the dean, or associate provost when appropriate, will provide, within ten school days of this determination, a copy of the written material to the faculty member in question. The dean, or associate provost when appropriate, will request a written response that details as completely as possible the position/opinion of the faculty member on all issues raised. Copies of exams, assignments, grade books, or other relevant information will be submitted with this response. The instructor will have ten school days in which to prepare his or her response.
3. The student will be given the opportunity to review the instructor's response and to provide additional written comments to the dean, or associate provost when appropriate. This response will be given within five school days of the receipt of the faculty member's response to the dean or associate provost when appropriate. The dean, or associate provost when appropriate, will then render a decision on the appeal within five school days of receiving all materials and responses. Unless the dean, or associate provost when appropriate, determines that sufficient evidence exists to support the student's allegation of violation of established university policies, procedure, or regulations, substantial error, bias, or miscarriage of justice, the dean, or associate provost when appropriate, will deny the appeal. The dean or his or her designee has the right to request, from any party, any additional information he or she feels is pertinent and appropriate. This discovery may not extend beyond five school days following the student's opportunity to respond. The dean has the authority to deny the appeal or forward the appeal to the associate provost, who will convene the Student Probation and Petitions Committee. The dean does not have the authority to change the grade, but may make a recommendation to the committee.

- B. Either the student or the faculty member may appeal the dean's adverse decision within five school days of the receipt of the dean's decision by giving written notice of intent to do so. Upon written notice to the dean of intent to appeal, the dean will forward copies of all written material to the associate provost, who will convene the Student Probation and Petitions Committee, which must meet within ten school days of receipt of the appeal. The committee will review all documentation and will reach a decision based on the original issue submitted. The committee may request additional documentation if it feels it is appropriate to do so and may adjourn until the documentation is available. Both parties have the right to appear before the committee; however, to the fullest extent possible, the decision will be based on the written documentation provided. The committee will uphold the originally issued grade or judgment unless it finds substantial evidence of violation of established university policies, procedure, or regulations, substantial error, bias, or miscarriage of justice. The committee judgment will be rendered as soon as practical after receipt of the documentation, but must be rendered within thirty days.
- C. If the committee determines that the above described process has not been followed correctly, the committee will order a rehearing of the case following the correct process.
- D. The decision of the committee is final.

ACADEMIC PROBATION AND SUSPENSION

In order to remain in good academic standing, a student must maintain a GPA above the minimums listed below. (Students placed on academic warning, while technically in good academic standing should recognize that they are at risk for academic probation if they fail to raise their GPAs.)

1–29 attempted semester hours . . .
below 1.70 GPA student is placed on academic probation

1–29 attempted semester hours . . .
above 1.70 GPA but below 2.0 GPA student is placed on academic warning

Greater than 29 semester hours . . .
below 2.0 GPA student is placed on academic probation

Academic probation: Any student whose cumulative GPA falls below the retention requirements noted above will be placed on academic probation. A student placed or continued on academic probation must maintain a 2.00 GPA in 12 hours of regularly graded course work (excluding activity and/or performance courses not required for the major) each semester until she or he attains the retention GPA. Upon raising her or his GPA to meet the retention requirement, the student will be removed from academic probation.

Only students who are in good academic standing may participate in extracurricular activities. Extracurricular activities are defined as activities such as athletic competitions, artistic performances, and academic competitions that are not required by the student's course work or major program. Students who are not in good academic standing will be prohibited from representing the university in the participation in intercollegiate athletic events, artistic performances except as required for their course work or degree requirements, and intercollegiate academic contests. Traveling with athletic teams, performance groups, or academic teams also will be prohibited.

Academic suspension occurs automatically when a student who was placed on academic probation the previous semester either fails to raise his or her GPA to the retention requirement or fails to achieve a 2.00 semester GPA in at least 12 hours of regularly graded course work (excluding activity and/or performance courses not required for the major). Any student suspended for academic reasons cannot be reinstated until one full academic year has elapsed unless upon appeal the Student Probation and Petitions Committee grants immediate reinstatement. Students wishing to appeal suspension should inquire about procedures and deadlines from the Office of the Registrar. Any student who is reinstated to the university will re-enter on probation and must achieve a minimum semester GPA of at least 2.00 in a minimum of 12 regularly graded hours each semester until he or she succeeds in meeting the retention GPA requirement appropriate to his or her classification. Once the retention GPA requirement is met, the student will be removed from probation.

Readmission Policy for Students Dismissed for Poor Academic Performance

A student who is dismissed from the university for academic reasons and wishes to reapply to the same program must wait one full academic year before applying for readmission. The latest date by which readmission requests must reach the Registrar's Office in order to be considered for earliest possible readmission will be indicated in the letter of dismissal sent by the registrar.

At the time of dismissal, the student will be informed of possible avenues to pursue, such as additional academic course work from other postsecondary institutions. This information will be communicated in the dismissal letter sent from the Office of the Registrar. Official transcripts and records of academic work completed during the period following the dismissal must be included along with the request for readmission. The Student Probation and Petitions Committee will review all requests for readmission. Requests for readmission will be reviewed prior to the semester in which the student is eligible to re-enroll.

Suspended seniors (students with 90 or more hours in a specified degree program) who fail to meet either the 2.00 retention GPA or the semester GPA of 2.00 may enroll in an additional 12 semester hours (excluding activity and/or performance courses not required for the major) in a further attempt to achieve the requirements for retention. Seniors will be afforded this extension only one time. This extension applies to seniors enrolled in more than six hours. Seniors enrolled in six or fewer hours will be placed on academic suspension after two successive enrollments with less than the required GPA for their classification.

Students must have a GPA of 2.50 or better in at least 12 hours of work for the preceding semester or a cumulative GPA of 2.50 for all work taken previously in the university to be granted university honors or awards. Students who are in good academic standing or students who have been continued on academic probation are judged to be making satisfactory progress toward their degrees.

The university reserves the right to place on academic warning a student whose semester grades fall below a 2.00. The academic warning letter will indicate what the student needs to do academically to retain a good academic standing with the university.

Appeal Procedure for Academic Dismissal

If a student has reasonable grounds to believe that his or her academic dismissal constitutes a material misrepresentation, misapplication, or violation of established university policies, procedures, or regulations, the student may, within fourteen calendar days of the receipt of the written notice of dismissal, initiate an appeal in the following manner:

1. The student must submit a written appeal to the registrar. The appeal should have as much detail as possible, stating all aspects of the issue that the student thinks pertinent. It is the responsibility of the student to initiate the process and follow it through. Failure of the student to move the appeal forward in the specified time limit will terminate the appeal.
2. After making a determination that the appeal is filed in a timely manner, the registrar will convene the Student Probation and Petitions Committee to consider the student's appeal within ten school days of its receipt. School days are defined as Monday through Friday, when classes are in session, excluding breaks, final exam periods, and holidays. The Student Probation and Petitions Committee will review all documentation and reach a decision on the appeal. The committee may request additional documentation and may postpone the hearing until that documentation is available. The student has the right to appear before the committee; however, to the fullest extent possible, the decision will be based on written documentation provided.

3. The committee may affirm the decision to dismiss, overturn the decision to dismiss, or qualify the decision to dismiss. The decision will be affirmed unless the committee determines that the student has met the burden of showing material misrepresentation, misapplication, or violation of established university policies, procedures, or regulations.
4. If the committee affirms the decision to dismiss, the president may review the documentation to determine that these procedures were followed. The presidential review will only address procedural matters.
5. The associate provost will notify the student within three school days of the decision of the Student Probation and Petitions Committee.

NOTE: This procedure applies to all departments and schools within the university except the School of Law. Appeals of academic dismissal in the School of Law are heard by the Law School's Petitions and Retention Committee under the procedures and regulations set forth in the Law School's Student Handbook. Decisions of that committee are final, except that the president may review the documentation solely to determine that due process has been followed.

GRADUATION PROCEDURES AND COMMENCEMENT

Degree candidates, in the latter part of their junior year, should check with their advisor on their progress in satisfying graduation requirements. Students who plan to graduate should file an application for graduation in the Registrar's Office before the deadline specified in the academic calendar.

There are three graduation dates (fall, spring, and summer) and two commencement ceremonies (December and May). Students completing degree requirements in the fall participate in the December commencement ceremony. Students completing degree requirements in the spring or summer terms of an academic year participate in the May commencement ceremony. All students should complete the application for graduation by the appropriate deadline published in the academic calendar—typically October for December commencement and February for May commencement calendar.

A student who has three or fewer credit hours to complete in the fall semester of the following academic year may participate in the May commencement ceremony. To do so, the student must request permission from the Academic Affairs Office and complete the application for graduation before the application deadline published in the academic calendar. Completion of any degree-required comprehensive exam is not a requirement for participation in the commencement ceremony.

Before filing the application for graduation, each candidate should contact his or her dean to initiate a final degree check. A final degree certification must be submitted to the Registrar's Office by the appropriate dean. Consult the appropriate pages under education for the requirements pertinent to certification.

A candidate for a degree must have a cumulative GPA of not less than 2.00 for the degree to be conferred. Only courses taken at OCU are used in calculating the GPA. Responsibility for meeting graduation requirements lies with the student.

The date recorded on a diploma will be the graduation date following the semester or summer session in which the student completes all requirements for the degree.

Graduation Honors

The university recognizes the academic achievements of its candidates for degrees by the following honor awards:

Summa Cum Laude—a cumulative GPA of 3.900 with a minimum of 80 hours of graded courses at OCU

Magna Cum Laude—a cumulative GPA of 3.750 with a minimum of 60 hours of graded courses at OCU

Cum Laude—a cumulative GPA of 3.500 with a minimum of 60 hours of graded courses at OCU

Courses that are nongraded or graded as credit/no-credit may not be included in the minimum hour requirements. To determine honors candidates for the actual commencement ceremony, the GPA and the hours accumulated through the semester prior to commencement will be calculated. For the official honors designation which is placed on the transcript and the diploma, the final semester's hours and grade points are included. Only the GPA of hours completed at OCU will be used in the calculation of graduation honors eligibility.

Letzeiser Medals—For the three senior men and the three senior women with the highest GPA. One hundred-five OCU graded hours or a combination of OCU graded hours and OCU approved hours from AP, CLEP, IB, and OSSM, are required for the award. Transfer hours and advanced standing hours accepted by other institutions will not be included toward the 105 hours.

Cum Honore (University Honors Program)—completion of 25 hours of Honors courses with a 3.50 cumulative GPA and an Honors GPA of 3.25.

UNIVERSITY HONORS

President's Honor Roll—All undergraduate students are eligible for this honor provided they meet the following requirements: (1) enrolled for and completed a minimum of 12 graded hours for the semester; (2) have not received any incomplete, no-credit, or unsatisfactory grades for that semester; (3) receive a current-semester GPA of 3.900 or above.

Vice President's Honor Roll—All undergraduate students are eligible for this honor provided they meet the following requirements: (1) enrolled for and completed a minimum of 12 graded hours for the semester; (2) have not received any incomplete, no-credit, or unsatisfactory grades for that semester; (3) receive a current semester GPA of 3.750-3.899.

Dean's Honor Roll—All undergraduate students are eligible for this honor provided they meet the following requirements: (1) enrolled for and completed a minimum of 12 graded hours for the semester; (2) have not received any incomplete, no-credit, or unsatisfactory grades for that semester; (3) receive a current semester GPA of 3.500-3.749.

Phi Kappa Phi: Phi Kappa Phi is an all-discipline national honor society. Undergraduates, graduate students, faculty, professional staff, and alumni are eligible for membership. The organization is more than 100 years old, and election is by invitation only. The mission of Phi Kappa Phi is "to recognize and promote academic excellence in all fields of higher education and to engage the community of scholars in service to others."

Blue Key Honor Fraternity—Membership is by election. Second-semester sophomore standing or above and a cumulative GPA of 3.40 or above are required.

Junior Marshals—Junior men and women are chosen for this honor on the basis of scholarship, leadership, and character by the faculty of the Petree College of Arts and Sciences, Meinders School of Business, Ann Lacy School of American Dance and Arts Management, Bass School of Music, Kramer School of Nursing, and the Wimberly School of Religion and Graduate Theological Center.

OCU Leadership Award—Outstanding senior man and woman in the Petree College of Arts and Sciences, Meinders School of Business, Ann Lacy School of American Dance and Arts Management, Bass School of Music, Kramer School of Nursing, and Wimberly School of Religion and Graduate Theological Center are chosen for this award.

Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges—An annual publication in which the biographies of outstanding undergraduate students on American campuses are included. Students are selected by the University Student Life Committee. Both graduate and undergraduate students may participate.

SPECIAL PROGRAMS AND SUPPORT SERVICES

University Honors Program

The mission of the University Honors Program is to provide enhanced educational opportunities to challenge academically gifted undergraduate students in any major. The program cultivates open-mindedness and progressive deepening of purpose.

Each new class of Honors students at OCU is a special community of scholars. Students have the opportunity to become acquainted with one another and the Honors program in the Honors Colloquium, a course required for all new Honors students during their first semester in the program. Honors students have opportunities to meet with visiting scholars and participate in special events. As part of a network of honors programs through the National Collegiate Honors Council and the Great Plains Honors Council, students may present research at national and regional honors conferences and participate in exciting summer and semester programs.

To qualify for the University Honors Program, an incoming first-year student must have a minimum 27 ACT or a high school 3.75 cumulative GPA. The admission process requires that a student answer two of three essay questions determined by the Honors Committee. On-campus recruitment occurs during the fall semester with the application process including verification of current and past OCU grades to meet a 3.50 minimum GPA, recommendations from two OCU instructors, and submission of two brief essays. The Honors Committee selects members of the program.

Transfer students are eligible to become members of the University Honors Program through the same application process used by entering first-year students. Students may count up to 12 hours of transfer work for Honors credit provided the hours have been accepted for credit by OCU, the hours were designated "Honors" at the former institution, and the former institution is a member in good standing in the National Collegiate Honors Council.

The requirements to graduate with University Honors Program honors (Cum Honore) are completion of 25 hours of Honors courses with a 3.50 cumulative GPA and an Honors GPA of 3.25.

Required Courses:

ENGL 1213H	Honors Composition II (waived for students who have earned Composition II credit through AP, CLEP, or other advanced placement exams, or who have already completed Composition II)
INDP 1061H	Honors Colloquium
INDP 3163H	Honors Junior/Senior Seminar

Learning Enhancement Center (LEC)

The LEC offers a wide variety of free services to students, such as one-to-one tutoring in most areas of the curriculum and specialized assistance for the visually and hearing impaired. Tutoring is provided in approximately forty-five-minute sessions. Students may discuss any aspect of their papers with tutors, and tutors may assist with specific areas suggested by faculty. Selected PCs located in the LEC are equipped with screen magnification software. Also available is a dedicated PC that allows visually impaired students to scan text and have the computer read text aloud.

The LEC is located on the second floor of the Walker Center for Arts and Sciences. Contact the LEC at (405) 208-5040 for a schedule of operations. Students may schedule appointments on sign-up sheets located in the LEC or by calling the center.

Computer and Information Resources

Campus Technology Services maintains three public access computer labs on campus.

- 1. Meinders School of Business (Room 104), this fifteen-seat lab is composed of Pentium-based personal computers and printing services. The lab is mainly "open access" to all students; however, some classes are scheduled for lab use. Lab hours are Monday through Thursday, 8:30 a.m.-10:00 p.m.; Friday, 8:30 a.m.-6:00 p.m.; Saturday and Sunday closed.
- 2. Meinders School of Business (Room 204), this twenty-four-seat lab is composed of Pentium-based personal computers and printing services. This lab is mainly "open access" to all students; however, some classes are scheduled for lab use. Lab hours are Monday through Thursday, 8:30 a.m.-10:00 p.m.; Friday, 8:30 a.m.-6:00 p.m.; Saturday and Sunday closed.
- 3. Tom and Brenda McDaniel University Center: This fifty-two-seat computer lab is composed of Pentium-based personal computers and printing services. This lab is mainly "open access" to all students. Lab hours are Monday through Thursday, 8:00 a.m.-12 midnight.; Friday, 8:30 a.m.-6:00 p.m.; Saturday, 12:00 noon-6:00 p.m.; and Sunday, 12:00 noon-12:00 midnight.

Each public-access lab has MS Windows XP installed as its operating system. All students are provided a user ID and password and are required to log into the campus network to use the labs. MS Office 2003, MS Visual Studio, and MS Internet Explorer are the key software titles installed in each lab. Other software specific to course instruction is installed in the labs when necessary. Student lab assistants are employed to operate the labs.

E-mail accounts are provided to all students through the log-in process from the OCU main Web page. All students are provided disk space on the campus network to store files and create Web pages. Internet Web browsing and limited printing services are available in all three public-access labs. E-mail can be accessed through the Internet from any location on or off campus.

There are a several “specific use” computer labs located in the Nursing, Music, Arts and Sciences, and Law schools. Each owning school provides specific software and services.

All resident hall rooms are wired for Internet and network connectivity. Dorm residents may connect one PC or laptop to the campus network from their dorm rooms. A limited number of PCs are maintained in each dorm lobby by Campus Technology Services. The computer-use policy is published on the university Web site at starport.okcu.edu. All students should read this policy.

ELS Language Centers

Oklahoma City University provides international students instruction in the English language through the ELS Language Centers® located on campus in Harris Hall.

The Intensive English program at ELS Language Centers® provides thirty hours of instruction per week to move a student quickly to the goal of university entrance. New sessions begin every four weeks, and students are tested and placed in one of twelve levels. The intensive course is a complete English program including classes in structure/speaking, conversation, reading, writing, multimedia lab, and special-interest subjects.

ELS Language Centers® is accredited by the Accrediting Council for Continuing Education and Training (ACCET) and by the Oklahoma State Board of Regents for Higher Education. For information regarding this service, contact ELS Language Centers®, 1915 NW Twenty-fourth Street, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma 73106, (405) 525-3738, www.els.edu or e-mail okc@els.edu.

Center for Interpersonal Studies Through Film and Literature

The center's mission is to develop creative programs through film and literature that engage individuals on the intuitive and experiential levels to understand themselves and others across time and space. Begun in 1997, the center brings a distinguished creative person to the campus each year (Poets Robert Pinsky, Jane Hirshfield, Michael Ondaatje, Mark Doty, Naomi Shihab Nye, Li-Young Lee, Billy Collins, and Ted Kooser have been featured. Joy Harjo will be poet for April 2007.); develops an annual documentary film series each spring; develops for the university and community an archive collection of quality videos and DVDs along with viewing suggestions and some lesson plans for grade school through university-level teachers; conducts field trips to OCU for teachers and students from upper elementary through high school to view and discuss distinguished films; holds a book discussion series for the university and Oklahoma City community; collaborates with other campus and metropolitan organizations to support and encourage different groups to work together on creative projects; sponsors international cultural study trips for students from upper elementary grades through high school; and contributes to the support of the OCU Film Institute. The director teaches university courses related to the mission of the center as well as courses in the English department and courses for the film studies degree in the Moving Image Arts Program. The Thatcher Hoffman Smith Endowment Fund and an advisory committee support the development of the center.

The Washington Center Internship Program

Oklahoma City University's partnership with The Washington Center (TWC) provides students with opportunities for full-time internships in the nation's capital. The program provides a unique combination of benefits: a structured program for which students receive academic credit from OCU; an extensive internship tailored to the interests of the student, whatever his or her major; and a varied selection of course work, lectures by national and international leaders, small group meetings with members of Congress, embassy visits, and workshops.

TWC maintains ties with thousands of organizations—governmental, nonprofit, and corporate—that can provide high-quality placements in the Washington, D.C., area. Internships run a wide gamut of interests and opportunities. The student selects from fifteen different thematically organized programs (for example, Congress, mass communications, NAFTA, business and information technology, law and criminal justice, among others). Internships are available for all majors, and the placement sites provide tremendous opportunities to work for corporations such as Merrill Lynch or Citibank; such government sites as the EPA, the White House Office of Public Affairs, Congress, or the Smithsonian; or mass communications placements at CNN or USA Today.

TWC offers internships year round. Students with a 3.00 GPA or higher may apply after the completion of their sophomore year and receive 9 to 12 hours of credit. The timing of the semester's internship and the number of credits to be received must be preapproved by the student's departmental advisor. Internships generally are assigned 3 to 6 hours of credit, TWC course work earns 3 hours, and the student may earn another 3 hours of credit for portfolio work assigned by a center supervisor and approved by the student's departmental internship advisor.

TWC provides safe, attractive, and conveniently located housing in high-rise apartments in northern Virginia. Program supervisors counsel, place, supervise, and plan activities for interns during their semester. The center also offers students many opportunities to explore the cultural vitality of Washington. For information, contact the fellowship/scholarship coordinator at (405) 208-5127 or the director of career services.

The Washington Semester Program

The Washington Semester program is a cooperative arrangement between the American University and Oklahoma City University. Qualified students are selected to spend a semester in Washington.

Program participants study one of many offerings, including specialized semesters devoted to American politics, American foreign policy, peace and conflict resolution, economic policy, justice, public law, international business and trade, information technology and communications policy, gender and politics, the arts, and journalism. Full semester credit is earned through one of these offerings.

The purpose of the Washington Semester program is to provide an intensive inquiry into institutions and policy making which cannot be achieved within the traditional academic environment. Seminars and internships are integral parts of the program.

Washington provides numerous opportunities for recreational and cultural activities. These include outdoor and indoor concerts, film festivals, plays, museum exhibits, and special events, as well as lectures, professional meetings, and conferences relating to all aspects of American life. For further information consult the political science department at (405) 208-5232.

INTERNATIONAL EDUCATION (STUDY ABROAD)

The Office of International Education (OIE) at Oklahoma City University recognizes that an understanding of other cultures, languages, and global issues has become increasingly significant in the education of tomorrow's leaders. OIE has a goal of integrating the campus into this interconnected world by providing opportunities for students to internationalize their educational experience, encouraging OCU faculty to expand their own international experiences and internationalize their curriculum, and facilitating global awareness campus-wide.

International Education Opportunities

At OCU, students may travel to many countries with the intent of studying the language and culture or pursuing their required academic course work. OCU students have opportunities to participate in study abroad programs for a semester or an academic year (reciprocal exchange); one to five weeks (faculty-led trip), or during summer and winter breaks (affiliated/approved programs).

Reciprocal Exchange: A reciprocal exchange is specifically designed for students who wish to study at a foreign institution but who do not seek a degree from that institution. Reciprocal exchange allows OCU students to pay OCU tuition and fees but study at the foreign institution while remaining concurrently enrolled at OCU. Institutional and federal financial aid is applicable toward OCU tuition costs associated with reciprocal exchange programs as determined by the Office of Financial Aid.

OCU currently has exchange agreements with the following institutions:

Argentina—Universidad del Centro Educativo

Latinoamericana (UCEL): Students may study Spanish or pursue regular course work at UCEL, the first Methodist-affiliated university in Argentina. UCEL is located in downtown Rosario, Santa Fe, 300 km northwest of Buenos Aires, Argentina's capitol city. Prerequisite: Three semesters of college-level Spanish.

Austria—Alpen-Adria University at Klagenfurt: Students interested in studying in Klagenfurt will find intensive language classes in German and Italian, as well as a variety of classes taught in English. The university is located in the capitol city of the beautiful southern province of Carinthia, nestled in the Tyrolean Alps next to the Worthersee Lake. Venice, Italy, is only a short train ride to the west and Vienna, Austria, is four hours due north. Carinthia is a charming example of the Austrian countryside, with welcoming people and a long history. Prerequisite: Three semesters of college-level German or Italian for language study.

England—Edge Hill College: Many students enjoy the opportunity to study at OCU's partner institution in Ormskirk, England. Edge Hill College has been providing high-quality education in liberal arts, business, and education for well over a century. Its impressive outdoor facilities include rugby, soccer and cricket fields, a full-size running track, plus tennis courts, a double gymnasium, and swimming pool. The picturesque campus is conveniently located in northwest England, removed from urban noise and distractions, only a short distance from Liverpool and Manchester, two of England's major centers for the arts. Prerequisite: None.

Japan—Ritsumeikan University (RITS): One of the newest reciprocal exchange programs at OCU, RITS offers both undergraduate and graduate courses to OCU students in areas such as law, social sciences, economics, international relations, and Japanese language studies. RITS is comprised of three university campuses, all part of the OCU exchange program. RITS offers semester, academic year, and summer programs. The name Ritsumeikan means "the place to establish one's destiny," offering OCU students the unique opportunity to learn within an education system committed to cultivating individuality and internationalism simultaneously. Prerequisite: three semesters of college-level Japanese for language study.

Faculty-led Trip (short term): OCU's academic departments offer a range of international study opportunities for credit each year. For example, the modern language department offers German courses in Austria and Spanish language courses in Mexico; the biology department offers a course in the natural history of Belize; the criminal justice department plans a course in Europe exploring the European criminal justice system; the Meinders School of Business provides study abroad opportunities for credit in Nicaragua and M.B.A. credit in China; and the Kramer School of Nursing offers a mission service-learning course in Mexico. Additionally, OCU sponsors trips for performing arts majors. Past programs presented abroad include: The Fantastiks (Singapore), The Boyfriends (Singapore and Malaysia), and the musical Oklahoma! (Malaysia) from the Margaret E. Petree College of Performing Arts; The OCU Chamber Choir has performed in Taiwan, Thailand, Korea, and Hong Kong; and the OCU Symphony Orchestra toured the People's Republic of China in 2004.

Faculty-led study abroad trips are coordinated through OIE, therefore students are encouraged to contact their specific departments to inquire about planned trips for the academic year, then apply for the trips through OIE. Faculty-led trip pricing does not typically include OCU tuition and fee costs, but may include the cost of roundtrip airfare, accommodations, and some meals and activities associated with the program.

Affiliated/Approved Programs: OCU students have studied in Australia, Ecuador, France, Ireland, Italy, and Russia through third-party providers or other U.S. university programs. OCU holds affiliation agreements with private study abroad organizations such as Cultural Experiences Abroad, International Studies Abroad, and Study Abroad Italy, to name a few. The advantage for OCU students to study abroad through one of the affiliated programs is it expands the options available to our students and OCU students are eligible for affiliate scholarships. In addition, affiliate organizations make periodic site visits to OCU to assist students with program information.

Global opportunities at OCU expand each year for our students. We invite students to keep informed of developing and upcoming international education opportunities by visiting the annual study abroad fairs, contacting OCU departments and faculty, browsing the OIE study abroad resource library, or by scheduling an appointment with the Office of International Education at (405) 208-5022.

DULANEY-BROWNE LIBRARY

Oklahoma City University supports two libraries, the Dulaney-Browne Library and the Law Library. While the collections and services of both libraries are available to all university students, faculty, and staff, all nonlaw-related library materials and services are provided through the five-story Dulaney-Browne Library building in the center of the campus.

The Dulaney-Browne Library provides access to thousands of high quality research resources for OCU students, faculty, and staff. Library resources and services are available in the library or through the library's Web page (www.okcu.edu/library) and include more than 166,500 books, 316,000 government documents, 800 current periodical subscriptions, 8000 full-text online periodical titles, and 14,800 electronic book titles. A reference librarian is available during all regular library hours to provide assistance in finding information in the library and via the Internet. Reference librarians also offer formal instruction to individuals and groups in the use and evaluation of information resources. Additional library resource services include the Archives and Special Collections (including the University Archives, the Oklahoma Methodist Archives, and the Shirk Oklahoma History Center), the Foundation Center Cooperating Collection, and Government Documents provided through the federal depository program.

The library cooperates with other libraries in Oklahoma and around the world to provide students, faculty, and staff with access to their collections through OK-Share (a cooperative library card for Oklahoma academic libraries) and interlibrary loan (delivery to the library user of articles and books from other libraries).

Please contact the library (405) 208-5065, (405) 208-5068, or AskALibrarian@okcu.edu or visit during regular library hours (Monday-Thursday 8:00 a.m.-11:00 p.m., Friday 8:00 a.m.-6:00 p.m., Saturday 10:00 a.m.-6:00 p.m., and Sunday 1:00-11:00 p.m.) for more information.

CAREER SERVICES

The Office of Career Services is committed to assisting undergraduate and graduate students and alumni position themselves for success within their chosen fields of interest. The aim of Career Services is to assist students and alumni in identifying and implementing strategies to aid in career exploration and the career decision making process.

Through Career Services there are a number of resources and services that can help students who are entering the world of work or those that are looking to advance their careers. Current students of all majors and graduate programs and OCU alumni are eligible to use the comprehensive resources available through Career Services, including the following:

- Individual career counseling
- Job search strategies
- Résumé and cover letter writing
- Graduate school planning
- Internship resources
- Career fairs
- Interviewing techniques
- Alumni networking and mentoring
- Online career and employer resources
- Career planning for international students
- Self assessments
- Online job/intership posting system: www.okcu.edu/careers

Students are encouraged to schedule an individual appointment and discuss how the Office of Career Services can help provide valuable information and review the skills needed to be successful within their professional areas of interest.

The Office of Career Services is located in the Meinders School of Business, Suite 200. Career Services office hours: Monday – Friday 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. and evening hours by appointment. Call (405) 208-5171 or visit www.okcu.edu/careers.

Air Force Officer's Training Corps Program

Three- and four-year programs are available to OCU students through a cooperative agreement between OCU and the University of Oklahoma. This "crosstown" agreement allows students to commute to the University of Oklahoma one or two afternoons per week to attend Air Force ROTC classes while continuing their studies at OCU. Students who attend AFROTC at the University of Oklahoma under the agreement pay only for the semester hours that they take, and most fees and additional costs are waived.

Students who enter the Air Force ROTC program during the first half of the four-year program enter the General Military Course (GMC) of study on a noncompetitive basis. If they elect to go on, students compete for entry into the Professional Officer Course (POC), the second half of the four-year program, by first being selected to attend Field Training in the summer prior to the junior year.

Selection is based on a recommendation by the instructor of aerospace studies, GPA, a test equivalent score (based on SAT, ACT, or Air Force Qualifying Test), and a physical fitness performance test.

Any questions concerning Air Force ROTC or aerospace studies course descriptions should be addressed to

Aerospace Studies (AERO) Course Descriptions

(All aerospace studies courses are offered by the University of Oklahoma in Norman, Oklahoma.)

1011, 1021 THE FOUNDATIONS OF THE U.S. AIR FORCE

Survey courses designed to introduce students to the U. S. Air Force and provide an overview of the basic characteristics, missions, and organization of the Air Force. Topics include officer-ship, professionalism, military customs and courtesies, Air Force officer opportunities, and an introduction to communication skills. 1011 (fall); 1021 (spring).

2011, 2021 THE EVOLUTION OF AIR AND SPACE POWER

Survey courses featuring topics on Air Force heritage and leaders, introduction to air and space power through competencies and functions, and continued application of communication skills. The purpose of these courses is to instill an appreciation of the development and employment of air and space power. 2011 (fall); 2021 (spring)

3013, 3023 THE U. S. AIR FORCE LEADERSHIP STUDIES

Survey courses that teach junior cadets advanced skills and knowledge in management and leadership. Special emphasis is placed on enhancing communication and leadership skills. Cadets have an opportunity to try out these leadership and management techniques in a supervised environment as juniors and seniors. 3013 (fall); 3023 (spring)

4013, 4023 NATIONAL SECURITY AFFAIRS/PREPARATION FOR ACTIVE DUTY

Survey courses designed for college seniors, giving them the foundation to understand their role as military officers in American society. These courses are an overview of the complex social and political issues facing the military profession and require a measure of sophistication commensurate with the senior college level. Within this structure, continued emphasis is given to refining communication skills. 4013 (fall); 4023 (spring)

1300 LEADERSHIP LABORATORY

All Air Force ROTC cadets take the Leadership Laboratory each semester. The freshmen and sophomore years include study of Air Force customs and courtesies, drill and ceremonies, and military commands. Leadership Laboratory examines the environment of an Air Force officer and areas of opportunity available to commissioned officers. The junior and senior years consist of activities classified as leadership and management experiences. They involve planning and directing activities of the cadet corps by applying the AFROTC Training Manual and lessons learned in the other AERO courses. The Leadership Laboratory also includes interviews, guidance, and information that increase the understanding, motivation, and performance of cadets. (2 hours, non-credit)

Cooperative Program in Military Science Army ROTC

Two-, three- and four-year programs are available to Oklahoma City University students through a cooperative agreement between OCU and the University of Central Oklahoma (UCO). This allows students to commute to UCO and attend Army ROTC classes while continuing to pursue their degrees at OCU.

Through the Army ROTC Program, the Department of Military Science offers two programs to qualified male and female students leading to a commission as a second lieutenant in the U.S. Army, the Army Reserves, or the Army National Guard.

The Four-Year Program

The four-year program consists of a basic course and an advanced course. The basic course (MS I and II) is normally taken in the freshman and sophomore years. This instruction introduces the student to national defenses, mission, and organization of the U.S. Army, role of the Army officer, leadership, military courtesy and customs, marksmanship, mountaineering, survival, and map reading. Classes meet two hours per week. Wearing a uniform and attending leadership lab is optional. Basic course students are under no military obligation.

The advanced course (MS III and IV) is normally taken during a student's junior and senior years. For admission to the advanced course as an ROTC cadet, a student must have completed or received placement credits for the basic course and signed a contract. Advanced course contracting is selective and based on specific criteria, including leadership potential.

Instruction includes leadership development, group dynamics, management tactics, and administration. Classes meet three hours a week. The advanced course includes a three-hour biweekly leadership lab period, physical conditioning classes, and a five-week ROTC Advanced Camp.

Contracted students receive a monthly stipend (freshmen, $250; sophomores, $300; juniors, $350; seniors, $400) during the school year. Contracted cadets agree to accept a commission as a second lieutenant, if offered, upon advanced course and degree completion to fulfill an initial obligation in either the active Army, Army National Guard, or Army Reserve.

The Two-Year Program

The two-year program involves only the advanced course as described above. Students may qualify for the two-year program by attending a five-week ROTC basic camp or by being granted credit for prior military service or high school junior ROTC. Eligible graduate students may participate in the two-year program.

General

1. OCU students who enroll in any of the four military science courses will receive academic credit which will satisfy elective hours required for OCU degree completion.
2. Enrollment in basic course classes will not incur a military obligation.
3. Students taking the UCO military science courses will pay the current tuition and fee rates required by UCO.
4. Grades and credits for the completion of ROTC courses will be transferred to the student's permanent record at OCU.
5. OCU students will also have an equal opportunity to compete for two- and three-year ROTC scholarships, which will pay tuition and laboratory fees for both OCU and UCO courses as well as provide $300 per semester toward the cost of books. Scholarship students also receive monthly subsistence pay (freshmen, $250; sophomores, $300; juniors, $350; seniors, $400) for the duration of the scholarship.
6. Those students interested in participating in ROTC while belonging to a Reserve or National Guard unit may do so under the Simultaneous Membership Program.

General Education*

VISION, GOALS, AND OBJECTIVES

The Vision of General Education: At Oklahoma City University, we believe that the liberal arts form the basis for learning and thinking in undergraduate students. We believe that general education should not only provide knowledge and skills but also promote personal values and communal development. We believe that general education should be multidimensional, cumulative, and integrated throughout the university through all disciplines and at all levels.

The Goals of General Education

- Provide a broad base of knowledge for critical and creative thinking
- Promote lifelong learning in all its various modes
- Cultivate ethical conviction, commitment to service, and spiritual growth

The Objectives of General Education

- Communicate effectively and ethically in spoken and written English to multiple audiences in a variety of settings
- Understand and employ basic concepts in mathematics and the natural and social sciences
- Understand the history and politics of the United States
- Develop competence in a foreign language and deepen understanding of a culture other than one's own
- Demonstrate the ability to use information technology
- Broaden and deepen critical appreciation of literature and the arts
- Build habits supporting healthy and ecologically responsible lifestyles
- Develop humane values, ethical behavior, participation in service, and an awareness of the spiritual and religious dimension of life

*This general education curriculum begins with undergraduate students enrolling for the first time in fall 2003. Students enrolled before fall 2003 may complete the general education curriculum that was in effect when they enrolled or change to the new curriculum, but they must fulfill all of the requirements for one or the other curriculum. (Students may not mix the two sets of requirements.) During the transition period, some substitutions may be necessary, but these substitutions must be approved by the General Education Committee and the associate provost.

GENERAL EDUCATION REQUIREMENTS FOR ALL UNDERGRADUATE MAJORS

The basic general education curriculum is a requirement for all undergraduate degrees at OCU. Particular programs and majors may add appropriate general education requirements or require specific courses from the approved curriculum.

Updated lists of courses approved by the General Education Committee and the associate provost are available on the university Web site.

REQUIREMENTS FOR THE BACHELOR OF ARTS AND BACHELOR OF FINE ARTS DEGREES

General Requirements

1. A candidate must have completed a minimum of 124 semester hours with a GPA of 2.00 (C) or better. (A student wishing to receive both the B.A. and the B.F.A. or B.S. degrees must complete a minimum of 154 semester hours.)
2. The student also must have completed a major with at least a C average.
3. The last 15 hours, including the last 6 in the major, must be completed in residence at OCU. A minimum of 40 hours must be completed at OCU.
4. Students in the Petree College of Arts and Sciences are required to be evaluated on the traditional grading system for all general education courses and on all courses taken in their majors. A maximum of 12 credit hours of elective courses may be taken on the credit/no-credit grading system.
5. Undergraduate degree programs at OCU can include no more than 6 hours of credit from KES courses at the 1000, 1100, and 1200 level. No more than 2 of these 6 credit hours in an undergraduate degree program may be earned from junior varsity and varsity sports combined.

REQUIREMENTS FOR THE BACHELOR OF SCIENCE DEGREE

General Requirements

1. A candidate must have completed a minimum of 124 semester hours with a GPA of 2.00 (C) or better. (A student wishing to receive both the B.S. and the B.F.A. or B.A. degrees must complete a minimum of 154 semester hours credit.)
2. The student also must have completed a major with at least a "C" average.
3. The last 15 hours, including the last 6 of the major, must be completed in residence at OCU. A minimum of 40 hours must be completed at OCU.
4. Students in the Petree College of Arts and Sciences are required to be evaluated on the traditional grading system for all general education courses and all courses taken in their majors. A maximum of 12 credit hours of elective courses may be taken on the credit/no-credit grading system.

General Education Requirements for All Undergraduate Majors

The basic general education curriculum is a requirement for all undergraduate degrees at OCU. See the General Education section of this catalog for specific courses and requirements. Updated lists of courses approved by the General Education Committee and the associate provost are available on the university Web site.

In addition to the university's general education curriculum, Petree College of Arts and Sciences B.A. and B.F.A. degrees require completion of 12 hours of college-level foreign language. The B.S. degrees require 6 hours of college-level foreign language.

OTHER PROGRAMS

Prior Learning + University Studies (PLUS) Bachelor of Arts in Liberal Studies Bachelor of Science in Professional Studies Denise Short, Director

The Petree College of Arts and Sciences offers through the Prior Learning + University Studies program an alternate way to achieve a B.A. or B.S. degree. This program is designed to meet the needs and busy schedules of full-time working adults who are self-directed and motivated. The best candidate for this nontraditional format is an adult over age twenty-two, who has completed approximately 30 to 60 credit hours or more from regionally accredited institutions and who has a minimum of three years' work experience. Prospective students will be evaluated on an individual basis for transfer of credit hours prior to admission so that both the institution and the applicant agree that this is the appropriate program for the applicant.

While in every sense as rigorous as the traditional B.A. or B.S. degree programs, PLUS differs from the traditional degree structure in the following ways:

1. PLUS allows, where applicable, the use of nontraditional course study or other advanced standing credits to fulfill degree requirements.
2. PLUS allows the adult learner to develop an academic portfolio to document college-level knowledge and skills acquired from work, life experiences, and training outside of the college classroom.

PLUS requires a high degree of self-direction and self-discipline on the part of the student. While the faculty and staff advise and assist the student, the student is responsible for academic success within the program. The policies for PLUS are presented in the PLUS Student Guide. The student is responsible for knowing the processes and procedures as stated in the PLUS Student Guide and this catalog.

Independent Study Opportunities

Several kinds of opportunities for independent study and the earning of credit in nontraditional ways are available at OCU. Students with appropriate academic maturity are encouraged to take advantage of these.

Most departments within the college provide directed reading and independent study options for 1 to 6 credit hours toward the major. Some departments also offer practicum and internship opportunities. These courses offer students the chance to extend their learning outside the boundaries of the classroom and expand it beyond the traditional curriculum. All these types of courses are established through individual learning contracts created between the student, his or her instructor, and the department chair. The contract must be on file in the Office of the Dean prior to registration in the course. These courses are designed primarily for majors in the department and are normally offered only at the junior and senior levels. Students should consult their department chairs for specific opportunities in their majors.

Art Degrees

The OCU art degrees provide strong foundational knowledge in a variety of art forms and media and prepare career-minded students for professional work. Aspects of graphic design, fine art, and photography are closely related, and many skills and media can be applied to all three. Our students acquire a range of knowledge and skills that are useful in many artistic endeavors.

Graduates

The art department is proud to have a high percentage of graduates who are active in all areas of the art world. Alumni are working from the East Coast to the West Coast as well as in Europe and Asia.

Norick Art Center

The Norick Art Center houses the art department. Our 7,000-square-foot addition to the Norick Art Center, which opened in fall 2003, includes a twenty-two-station computer lab, photography and sculpture studios, and double the ceramics studio space. It includes separate studios for advanced students. There is an active art club, which sponsors two all-student exhibits in the Nona Jean Hulsey Gallery of the Norick Art Center and maintains an exciting exhibiting program during the academic year.

Experimental Courses

OCU is a private, liberal arts university with small classes. This allows the art department the flexibility to offer experimental elective classes not normally offered in arts programs. These classes can include technological advances and changes in methods and materials or new related media.

Internships

Besides regularly scheduled classes, the art department offers internships in a variety of art-related subjects. Also available are independent study, special problems, and advanced studio classes on an individual studio basis. All graduating studio art, graphic design, and photography majors have an exhibit or capstone during their last semester at OCU.

Scholarships and Portfolios

Scholarships for art majors are available from a variety of sources including the Norick Family Scholarships in Art. These are awarded based on portfolio review, latest high school GPA, and ACT scores and, if possible, a personal interview.

Portfolios may be mailed to the Norick Art Center or brought to campus during one of three annual portfolio review days (preferably the annual juried High School Print and Drawing Competition). Original art is preferred; however, slides or Macintosh-friendly digital versions are acceptable. The three annual portfolio days at the Norick Art Center are in mid November (the weekend of the annual High School Print and Drawing Competition) and in early February and early June. Contact the Norick Art Center for specific dates.

Students who enjoy the visual arts and are serious career-minded individuals will find OCU has much to offer to help them find and achieve their goals in an environment that is both informal and challenging.

In addition to the Petree College of Arts and Sciences policy on transfer credit, the art department requires a conference with a department's advisor and may require a portfolio review of student work prior to acceptance. Contact the art department for further information.

Humanities

Advisor: Bennett

Faculty: Humanities faculty

The humanities major is designed for students who desire a broad undergraduate education with some specialization in one or two areas.

Students pursuing the major in humanities must take a minimum of 30 hours and a maximum of 40 hours of course work in humanities in addition to the general education curriculum for the B.A. degree. Any hours in humanities beyond the maximum of 40 must count as electives.

Distribution of the course work must reflect at least one course beyond the general education curriculum requirement from each of the five departments (art, English, mass communications, modern languages, and philosophy) within the division and from the Wimberly School of Religion and the Margaret E. Petree College of Performing Arts. In departments which do not have a general education requirement, such as mass communications, an introductory course will fulfill this requirement.

A minimum of 12 semester hours in humanities course work must be completed in residence at OCU.

A student pursuing the major in humanities must submit a contract for a major in humanities in consultation with his or her advisor. The contract will list each course in the five departments and the Wimberly School of Religion and the Margaret E. Petree College of Performing Arts that the student will count towards the major. The chair of each department and the dean of the School of Religion must sign the student contract, thereby approving the course work in his or her area. A copy of the contract, signed by the chair, the student, and the student's advisor, must then be filed in the Office of the Dean of the Petree College of Arts and Sciences, at least one semester prior to the student's anticipated graduation.

Relying on the shared heritage of rhetorical and literary traditions, the discipline of English explores the significance of language in culture and in comprehending and giving meaning to human experience.

The English major at OCU fosters an appreciation of literary creativity and encourages students to develop their own creativity in language. While developing aesthetic, ethical, and intellectual sensitivity toward the many dimensions of linguistic expression, the major in English prepares students to participate in the public discourses that shape our society. The major instills professional competencies and encourages the development of life-enhancing inner reserves that will enable students to live productive and creative lives.

In courses leading to the major in English, students learn to think critically; to read actively and creatively; to analyze and evaluate print, electronic, and visual texts; to be sensitive to the artistic, moral, and social dimensions of language; to improve writing skills; and to engage in meaningful research. Students also gain knowledge of literary terms and concepts, the major genres, the development of literary movements and periods, influential authors and themes, important critical and theoretical approaches to interpretation, the development of the English language, basic linguistic concepts, and current issues confronting the profession of English.

The English department strives to guide, direct, and teach students in an environment that supports personal and professional growth. To this end, the department has created a major with three tracks: literature, writing, and teacher education. The tracks are designed to prepare students for a variety of professions and endeavors, including public relations, literary publications, law school, business, and many other vocations. Graduate course work in English is available through the literature and writing tracks of the Master of Liberal Arts program.

Mass Communications

Chair: Hamilton

Faculty: Griffin, Harmon, Kalinski, Martin, Tyler

A student entering a communications-oriented career must be broadly educated to understand the constantly changing society in which he or she functions professionally and to interpret those changes for readers, viewers, and clients. He or she must also have a high skill level in all forms of communication.

The mass communications department, because of its location in Oklahoma City, is able to offer students a unique program. This program combines a sound liberal arts curriculum with theoretical and practical courses in mass communications. It also provides opportunities to gain experience and college credit by interning at area newspapers, radio and television stations, and advertising and public relations firms.

The mass communications department has as its general objectives the following:

- To work with each student personally in developing an individualized program based on his or her aspirations and previous experience
- To provide a sound theoretical foundation for understanding the principles and practices of the print media, radio and television, and public relations and advertising
- To allow students to build upon that theoretical foundation with practical experience in his or her field of study
- To stimulate an awareness in each student of the rights and ethical responsibilities of those working in the media

Modern Language

Chair: Arrow

Faculty: Buttin, Griffin, Hodkinson

The study of a modern language requires understanding and active use of the structure and linguistic patterns of language as a means of communication. Knowledge of a language provides insight into past and present achievements of international culture in the context of business, everyday life, and the arts.

The purpose of OCU's modern language program is to introduce students to international cultures and to provide the linguistic and cultural competencies to enrich students' education and expand career options in a multicultural world. B.A. degree programs are available in French, German, and Spanish. A minor is available in Chinese.

The objectives of the modern language department are twofold: to give students practical tools for the worlds of business, government, and the professions, and to give students the broad understanding of other cultures that is an integral part of a liberal arts education.

Students may enroll for Honors credit in language classes and may qualify for membership in the National Collegiate Honor Society, Alpha Mu Gamma. Foreign study scholarships for Alpha Mu Gamma members may be available.

Career options are manifold. Fluency in a second language and culture enhances any career—medical, public service, diplomatic/mission, international aid work, teaching, communication, travel, entertainment, business, and the arts.

FRENCH

The program features lecture/lab classes taught by native and near-native speakers. A computer lab features French learning/review programs. Foreign study is encouraged.

A major in French consists of 34 hours and must include Senior Seminar (FREN 4961). A student will receive credit for AP, IB (level 4), or CLEP. See department chair for details. The minor requires 18 hours in French. The last 6 hours must be completed in residence at OCU. Recommended electives are 8 hours of another foreign language and Critical Reading and Writing (ENGL 2303), taught by the English department. Other suggested electives are courses in English and Continental literature, History of Philosophy (PHIL 3114-3314), and history or political science courses related to the countries where French is spoken.

Teacher certification candidates must take Foreign Language Methods for Elementary and Secondary Schools (FREN 4313) and meet the professional education requirements.

Moving Image Arts

Director: Kiersch

Faculty: Moving Image Arts Faculty

Two Interdisciplinary Degrees:

B.A. in Film Studies

B.F.A. in Film Production

Program Description

Literacy in visual and aural “texts” has become a necessity in our world, and as technologies develop, individuals’ and cultures’ reliance on the visual and aural increases. Thus, the moving image arts have become a primary global means for communicating values.

The Moving Image Arts Program at OCU recognizes the centrality of visual and aural communications and responds to the continual emergence of new technologies by providing interdisciplinary liberal arts curricula focused on both the critical and the physical production studies of moving image content. Students in both degree programs study and create today’s dynamic products of artistic and informational communications.

Through required courses, students majoring in either film studies or film production will learn how to create recorded content and understand the effects of recorded content as both a narrative and non-narrative imaginative language of visual and aural art. Beyond the core course work, they will also have extensive elective course choices that will properly prepare and fulfill different professional objectives to enhance each student’s specific career direction.

The Moving Image Arts flexible programs of study will

- prepare students for professions in the current industries of the moving image arts or to pursue advanced studies in graduate programs.
- educate students in the history, theories, and concepts of the arts and sciences of the moving image arts as a global art form and their impact on social, economic, and cultural constructions.
- allow students to develop individual talents, skills, and personal creative voices by offering an intensive, hands-on production education coupled with a broad exposure to the liberal arts as a foundation to successfully engage in art and culture.
- add value to the studies of other majors, especially those in the already established programs of music, theater, and dance, by providing allied course work to expand their expertise into recorded as well as live performance.

Degree Programs

The Moving Image Arts Program offers two undergraduate degrees: a Bachelor of Arts in film studies and a Bachelor of Fine Arts in film production. Both degrees require completion of the same Moving Image Arts Program core courses in addition to the university general education requirements. However, each degree track additionally requires different specific major courses and a number of interdisciplinary electives from a pool of diversified subjects.

As part of its professional emphasis, the department provides an opportunity for practical work in both the classroom and the field. Internships are strongly encouraged.

Admissions

By setting expectations for its students and providing them with an environment of academic and professional excellence, the moving image arts degrees promote student success.

All students wishing to major in film studies or film production must meet certain specific admission requirements in addition to the general university admission requirements. Admission to this program is selective. An interview, résumé, and either a recorded content portfolio or writing sample (depending on degree plan) is required. Decisions are based on the applicant’s ability to demonstrate a high level of proficiency, potential, and a unique creative voice.

Proficiency

All moving image arts students are required to successfully complete formal competency measurements to further foster their development as a creative filmmaker and/or scholar: The first, a preliminary measurement, is taken prior to the sophomore year Project One course. All majors are introduced to the production process in a required, hands-on film production class. The outcome is a collectively produced short class project.

The second (Project One) measurement, taken in the second semester of the sophomore year, is an individually produced short, sync-sound moving image production. The third (Capstone) measurement, in the senior year, is either a comprehensively planned and produced moving image thesis project or an indepth senior seminar with a written thesis requirement in moving image theory/culture.

Failure by any student to demonstrate proficiency in the above mentioned courses will result in that student not being eligible for advanced classes or, in the case of the Capstone, the attainment of the moving image arts degree.

At the discretion of the moving image arts director, students failing to meet minimum requisites may be given one retest or re-evaluation or a 30-day time period in which to resubmit the course project in order to restore their academic standing. In the event a student fails to improve, no further considerations will be extended.

Philosophy

Chair: Werneke

Faculty: Davidson, Meyers

Adjunct Faculty: May

“Curiosity—that inborn property of man, daughter of ignorance and mother of knowledge—when wonder wakens our minds, has the habit, wherever it sees some extraordinary phenomenon of nature...of asking straightway what it means.” (Giambattista Vico, The New Science, Axiom XXXIX)

Philosophy is the ongoing process of disciplined reflection on such issues as the ultimate good or purpose of human life; the forms of knowledge and their limits; the different modes of reality and their relationships; the origin and nature of the fundamental social, political, and economic institutions that affect the quality of human life; and the extent to which human life can be understood in purely human terms. These issues confront each of us every day as implicit in the decisions we have to make about our relationships to others and ourselves, decisions about what our vocations will be, and what is required to excel in those vocations, decisions about which public policies are worthy of our support. Since everyone has to confront these decisions, the question is whether or not a person will make his or her decisions in an enlightened, disciplined, and philosophically responsible way.

The formal study of philosophy at OCU is designed to train persons to be philosophical. That is, it is designed to train people who are capable of acting most responsibly, because they have the clearest conception of their goals, the most comprehensive understanding of the world in which these goals are to be realized, and the most realistic assessment of the available means toward these goals. To accomplish this end, the philosophy major requires each student to refine his or her ideas in relation and response to the history of philosophical activity (in the form of three 4-credit-hour courses in the History of Philosophy). This is preparation for undertaking an original work in philosophy, the senior thesis. Additional courses are offered in the traditional areas of philosophy (e.g., ethics, political philosophy, philosophy of religion, metaphysics, epistemology, etc.), from which a student selects a minimum of four to complete the 27 credit hours required for the major in philosophy.

The philosophy major at OCU provides the necessary foundation for successful graduate study in philosophy as well as for advanced, professional training in law and the ministry. Indeed, philosophy is the ideal major for any student who contemplates a career which places a premium on the ability to think critically, creatively, and systematically.

For students majoring in other disciplines, a minor in philosophy is also available.

PHILOSOPHY/RELIGION

The joint major in philosophy and religion is designed primarily for those students who want to undertake ethical and religious studies within a rigorous philosophical and theological context in preparation either for advanced academic study in philosophy or religion or professional training for the ordained ministry. The core requirements in the History of Philosophy (PHIL 3114, 3214, and 3314) and the History of Christianity (REL 3013 or 3113) are intended to provide students with a systematic grounding in the major philosophical and theological resources of Western philosophy and the Judeo-Christian tradition. Students may then select one of four areas of emphasis (philosophical theology, ethics, religion-philosophy and culture, or biblical studies) as the subject of more concentrated study. The culminating experience for all majors is the writing of a senior thesis (PHIL 4893 or REL 4893). The thesis is a major research paper, an original work in the student's area of emphasis, prepared under close supervision of one or more members of the philosophy department and/or the School of Religion.

Other Minors

AMERICAN STUDIES

This minor provides a broad-based study of American culture, politics, history, and political institutions. From these courses, the student can better understand American values, why Americans believe and act the way they do, and, indeed, what it has meant to be American over the last 150 years or so. The mix of disciplines guarantees a variety of perspectives and approaches and should enrich a student's understanding of American life and thought.

MINOR IN AMERICAN STUDIES

HIST 2413	Popular Culture in America or the second half of American literature (either ENGL 3003 or 3103, whichever was not taken in #2 above)	3

RHETORIC

The minor in rhetoric is designed for students who want to study the art of persuasion in both written and oral form. Administered jointly by the English and philosophy departments, these courses will examine the intricacies of eloquence, exploring the theories, techniques, and ethical implications of human communication as an agent of change. The minor consists of 18 hours of course work beyond the general education requirements.

WOMEN'S STUDIES

Faculty: Bennett, Hessler, Hooper, Horn, Keegan, Keller, McCombs, McGuire, Short

This minor provides knowledge and deeper insights into women's issues. Students with a minor in women's studies are prepared to work in numerous areas related to women's lives, such as battered women's shelters, rape crisis centers, research on women, women in government, women in health, or women in management.

Biology (B.S.)

Cell and Molecular Biology (B.S.)

Biomedical Sciences (B.S.)

The Department of Biology offers three distinct majors and degree options to assist students in achieving their career and personal goals. Satisfactory completion of courses in the major and general education course work, plus additional electives to total at least 124 credit hours, are required to graduate with a Bachelor of Science degree. In addition to course work in biology, all students who major in the Department of Biology must complete additional specified chemistry and physics courses. The department offers a traditional biology major, a cell and molecular biology major, and a major in biomedical science. In addition, in collaboration with the Meinders School of Business, biology students have the opportunity to earn a minor in business. Students who complete a minor in business may complete a Master of Business Administration (M.B.A.) degree with as little as one additional year of study after earning their B.S. degree.

Each of the three B.S. degree programs offered in biology provide a broad liberal arts background as well as thorough training in biological sciences. A biology degree provides education and training for individuals who will work in careers such as biology education, research, health-related fields, forestry, medical institutions, animal care, wildlife management, naturalist positions, outdoor education, and many more. The Department of Biology recognizes the value and contributions of the sciences in the modern world and continually strives to provide programs of study that will enhance a student's future life, whether he or she plans to pursue further graduate or professional studies or to enter the job market immediately following graduation.

B.S. Biology (BIOL)

Our traditional major, this program offers a thorough grounding in the biological sciences. Students must earn 40 credit hours in biology, including 19 credit hours of core courses plus 21 credit hours of upper division (3000- and 4000-level) biology courses. An additional 17 credit hours of chemistry and physics courses are required. Because of its flexible design, this major will prepare students for a variety of career paths, including medical studies, graduate studies, and secondary science teaching.

B.S. Cell and Molecular Biology (CELL)

Our most specialized and rigorous major, students must earn 40 credit hours in biology, including 26 credit hours of core courses and 14 credit hours of biology electives. In addition, 26 credit hours of chemistry and physics courses are required. This major prepares students to pursue careers in medicine and is ideally suited for students who intend to pursue graduate studies in fields such as genetics, cell biology, and molecular biology.

B.S. Biomedical Science (BMED)

Our human-centered major, this program of study provides a solid foundation in biology, chemistry, and physics course work to help prepare students for many careers in allied health. Like our other majors, 40 credit hours of biology courses must be completed. This includes 24 credit hours of core courses, plus 16 credit hours of biology electives. An additional 17 credit hours of chemistry and physics is required.

4 + 1 = 6 Program (BMED + MBA)

Along with a major in biomedical science, many students will want to develop their skills and knowledge in business, to prepare them for careers that combine science and entrepreneurship. The Meinders School of Business offers a minor in business that allows students to develop a solid foundation in economics, accounting, and management. The courses in the minor also fulfill the prerequisites to enter the M.B.A. program offered in the School of Business, and allow students to complete this degree in as little as one additional year of study.

General Education Curriculum Note: Due to the fact that biology majors take many courses with labs, the lab science requirement is met by any of those required courses.

Chemistry

Chair: Nail

Faculty: Engebretson

The Department of Chemistry offers Bachelor of Science degree programs in chemistry and biochemistry and a minor program in chemistry. The minor is strongly suggested for students of other majors who are interested in the medical professions.

The B.S. in chemistry program is designed to provide a strong foundation for professional employment as well as for graduate studies in science and in medicine. The B.S. in biochemistry provides an excellent background in chemistry, biology, and biochemistry.

OCU chemistry and biochemistry graduates have a long tradition of admissions to medical programs. Others have furthered their studies by earning Ph.D. degrees; OCU chemistry and biochemistry graduates have been recruited for admission by prestigious graduate programs throughout the United States. Graduates who elect to enter the work force often can find positions with employers such as the University of Oklahoma Health Science Center, the Oklahoma Medical Research Foundation, and the Oklahoma State Department of Environmental Quality. Additionally, there are a number of smaller companies in the Oklahoma City area that hire chemists. Chemistry and biochemistry graduates often pursue opportunities in nonscientific areas such as business and law; the skills learned by studying the chemical sciences provide an excellent foundation for professions outside of science. Additional information on opportunities for chemists and biochemists can be found on the Internet.

General Education Curriculum Note: The laboratory science and mathematics requirements of the general education curriculum are met by the chemistry degree major requirements.

Departmental Objectives

The Oklahoma City University computer science major gives graduates well-developed programming capabilities, a well-rounded knowledge of computer structures and functioning, extensive hands-on experience with workstations and micro-computer systems, and the benefit of an exceptionally strong foundation in the liberal arts.

The academic strengths of the program are complemented by excellent access to both workstations and microcomputers. Computers currently available include two PC labs (twenty machines each), and a SUN lab (twenty workstations and a server). Additional computer acquisitions are made on a continuing basis to ensure student access to modern computing facilities. Computer science classes are typically small. Classes with a lab section are restricted to a maximum of twenty to ensure each student has individual access to instructors and computers. A unique characteristic of the program is its emphasis on the integrated knowledge of computers and computer systems that professionals need for the continued maintenance of their professional qualifications.

OCU offers two B.S. degree programs in this field: computer science, designed for students who intend to pursue a graduate degree, and computer information systems, designed to graduate computer professionals who will seek immediate employment in business, industry, or government.

COMPUTER SCIENCE (B.S.)

The degree in computer science is designed for students who may pursue a graduate degree in the field. The program includes a large number of electives so that the student may create a program suited to his or her particular interests.

COMPUTER INFORMATION SYSTEMS (B.S.)

The degree in computer information systems was designed for students who wish to pursue a career in computing or information technology immediately following graduation. Like the more traditional program in computer science, the computer information systems degree emphasizes hands-on learning and a solid core of computer science and allows a rich selection of electives so that the student can design a program that is well suited to their interests and career goals.

Mathematics

Chair: Rossberg

Faculty: Kombe, Trail

Mathematics is the language of science and, with the explosive development of computer applications in every facet of business and industry, it is rapidly becoming the language of society. Throughout history, mathematics has been studied for its beauty as well as for its utility. It has been considered more as a "way of thinking" than as a collection of facts, formulas, and procedures. The nature of mathematics requires the development and use of a variety of analytical skills and approaches to problem solving that impact the student's existence and are highly prized by prospective employers. The study of mathematics prepares a student for life as well as for a career.

The demand for quality students in mathematics is such that excellent opportunities exist for graduate study. Graduates of programs in mathematics have an excellent background for further study and/or employment in the related sciences as well as many areas of business and law. The Society of Actuaries constantly seeks graduates to pursue careers in the insurance field.

Physics

Faculty: Shadfar

The physics department offers Bachelor of Science degrees in physics and biophysics. The B.S. in physics degree program is designed to provide students with a strong background for careers in industry and government and for further education in graduate school. The physics department also provides several required courses for students seeking a degree in engineering.

The B.S. in biophysics is designed to prepare students for careers and advanced degrees in the fields of medicine, dentistry, environmental sciences, radiology, forensic law, and physical therapy as well as for advanced study in health physics or regular physics programs. Students will obtain theoretical and practical knowledge of the applications of the laws of physics and chemistry in biological systems.

Science Major

Coordinator: Nail

Faculty: Division of Science and Mathematics Faculty

The Division of Science and Mathematics offers a Bachelor of Science in science degree. The courses in the major are selected by the student and the advisor. The B.S. in science program enables the student to obtain a broad background in the sciences rather than the specialization of a departmental major. Students interested in secondary education, medicine, dentistry, allied health fields, and other areas may want to consider this program.

SCIENCE (B.S.)

Major Requirements

Credit Hours: 45

1. Required Course Work in the Science Major
 - a. A minimum of 42 credit hours in science and mathematics course work is required to complete the major. Remedial and nonmajors' courses may not be counted towards the major.
 - b. The student must achieve a concentration in one discipline within the division (biology, chemistry, mathematics, or physics) by completing a minimum of 24 credit hours in that discipline. Of this total, at least 18 credit hours must be above the 1000-level and must include the senior capstone course in the discipline.
 - c. In addition to the courses in the discipline of concentration, the student must complete a minimum of 6 credit hours from each of the other three disciplines within the division.
2. Required Ancillary Course Work in the Science Major
 - a. The student must satisfactorily complete (minimum grade C-) an upper-division (3000- or 4000-level) course in technical writing. Currently, this requirement can be met by ENGL 3223 Technical and Business Writing. Any course substitution must be approved in writing by the faculty advisor and the science degree assessment coordinator.
3. General Requirements for the Science Major
 - a. The student must complete all of the program objectives and assessment requirements, including but not limited to completion of the student portfolio and completion of the Educational Testing Service Major Field Test in the discipline of concentration in place when the student matriculates at OCU. A complete listing of those requirements is available from the faculty advisor or from the science degree assessment coordinator.
 - b. The courses that constitute the major and the discipline of concentration are to be specified in writing by the student and his or her faculty advisor and are subject to the approval of the science degree assessment coordinator.
 - c. A minimum 2.00 GPA is required in the major at graduation, and no course in which a grade below C- was earned may be counted towards the major:

- d. A minimum of 12 credit hours of the course work in the major, including the senior capstone, plus at least one other 3000- or 4000-level course in the concentration, must be completed in residence at OCU.

Logan College of Chiropractic

Through an agreement with Logan College of Chiropractic (LCC), OCU students who work toward a degree in biology and meet certain criteria will automatically be accepted into the chiropractic program at LCC. An OCU advisor is assigned to assist students regarding their academic preparation for admission to LCC and for their ultimate goal of chiropractic licensure.

Program Requirements

1. Students who are part of this program must meet the general education requirements of the university. Additionally, they must successfully complete the following biology course work and ancillary requirements:

Degree Requirements

Required Courses:

BIOL 2214	General Botany	4
BIOL 3114	Microbiology	4
BIOL 2414	General Zoology	4
BIOL 4853	Biology Capstone	3

CHEM 3203/3241	Organic Chemistry II and Lab	4
PHYS 1503/1542	General Physics I and Lab	4
PHYS 1603/1641	General Physics II and Lab	4

Elective Course work:

0-12

Transfer Credits:

32

Courses taken during the first two trimesters at LCC in the Basic Chiropractic and Clinical Sciences

2. Students are admitted to LCC as first-year doctorate of chiropractic students. Upon completion of the first year of studies, a maximum of 32 LCC credits may be transferred toward completion of the B.S. in biology degree at OCU.
3. The acceptance of transfer hours are governed by policies of OCU. No more than 20 credits of required courses and none of the science credits required for admission to LCC may be earned via examination or transfer from another school.
4. LCC will accept all students who successfully complete the pre-chiropractic program with a cumulative GPA of 3.25 or higher and meet all other criteria for admission.
5. Students who earn less than a 3.25 GPA but at least a 2.5 GPA will be eligible for admission to LCC, but will not receive assurance of a seat.
6. Students must make application to LCC one year in advance of their desired entrance date and will complete all required application procedures thereafter.

History

Chair: McCombs

Faculty: Clark, Cobb, Hooper, Musselman

Adjunct Faculty: Mauldin

Objectives

The history department has a three-fold objective. First, the department works to provide a major that prepares students for graduate study in history, law, public service, and archival work, while still encouraging a broad perspective and measured judgment appropriate for the graduate entering almost any career. Next, the department provides a minor and a variety of elective courses intended to hone interests and deepen knowledge in particular subject fields as well as enabling the student to synthesize knowledge from other disciplines. Finally, the department presents general education courses to help students better understand themselves, their national heritage, and the world in which they live. Through all of the above, the department hopes that students will also understand how events in the past did and did not happen and, perhaps most importantly, that neither the history of their country nor of the world is a simple morality play.

Features of the History Department

The history department is made up of exceptional faculty members, several of whom have won university awards for teaching. The history faculty has created a variety of programs to meet students' needs, including the Bachelor of Arts in history and the Bachelor of Arts in history/political science. The department proudly sponsors the Sigma Omicron chapter of Phi Alpha Theta, the international history honor society.

Possible Careers for History Majors

- Teaching (For certification requirements K-12 please refer to the education certification process found elsewhere in this catalog.)
- College teaching
- Public service
- Law
- Writing and research
- Editing and publishing
- Archives and museums
- Grant writing

HISTORY (B.A.)

Research papers are incorporated into 3000- and 4000-level offerings, and majors must satisfactorily complete two such courses with research papers prior to entering the Senior Research Project.

A grade of C or better is required in all history courses for history majors.

Political Science

Chair: Johnson

Faculty: Eberhardt

Adjunct Faculty: Mauldin

Just as the ancient Greeks used the word idiot to refer to one who took no interest in the affairs of the state, we believe that the study of political science is an essential part of the educational process.

Purpose

The purpose of the program is to provide a liberal arts education with an emphasis in the study of political science. The program prepares students for a wide variety of careers as well as for active and discerning roles in the community.

Objectives

1. Sensitize students to the issues of power, freedom, order, and authority in societies and on the international scene
2. Enable students to become more active and discerning citizens
3. Introduce students to the various subfields of the discipline
4. Assist in preparing students for graduate school, law school, and postbaccalaureate careers

Special Features/Careers

Student majoring in political science can choose among five degree options, of which four are designed to further specific vocational objectives:

Option 1: B.A., liberal arts emphasis—Designed for the student with broad interests in political science.

Option 2: B.S., preprofessional emphasis—Designed for the student seeking graduate work in political science leading to a career in college teaching or research.

Option 3: B.A., prelaw emphasis—Designed for students intending to go to law school.

Option 4: B.S., public management emphasis—Designed for students seeking either a position in government or graduate work in urban studies, public administration, or urban planning.

Option 5: B.A., international affairs emphasis—Designed for students seeking careers with the U.S. foreign service, corporations doing business abroad, or international nongovernmental organizations or for students who wish to teach or conduct research abroad.

The department offers a variety of courses from which all majors choose a “core curriculum” of 9 hours. Depending on the option selected, further specialized courses are taken in political science and related areas. There are options for off-campus study, including internships and the Washington Center as well as other opportunities. Students can work with faculty on a one-to-one basis in independent studies or directed readings and are encouraged to master basic career skills—writing, research methods, problem solving, and analysis. Culminating the major is a required Senior Seminar that includes advanced study incorporating either an experiential or a written research component. Student organizations foster learning and interaction outside the classroom; these include a prelaw chapter of Phi Alpha Delta, the OCU delegation to the Oklahoma Intercollegiate Legislature (OIL), Pi Sigma Alpha (the national political science honor society), the College Republicans, and the Young Democrats.

Psychology

Chair: Jowaisas

Faculty: Cataldi, Preisz

Psychology is the scientific discipline that seeks to describe and explain our thinking, emotions, and behavior.

Psychology's intellectual roots are in biology and philosophy, origins reflected in our curriculum. The psychology curriculum is designed to foster skills congruent with the liberal arts tradition of the university: oral and written expression reflecting a critical consideration of the data, issues, and concepts gained in the classroom and through the reading of original sources. The general goal of the curriculum is for students to attain a better understanding of themselves and others, an understanding of the nature of psychological research, and an ability to apply research findings for solutions to theoretical and practical problems in the psychological realm.

- 3 The psychology department has several other, less global objectives. We offer courses and a curriculum balanced between theory and application for the following purposes:
1. Preparing students for graduate work in psychology and related fields. The B.S. degree option provides a core of courses that satisfies the vast majority of graduate school entrance requirements in psychology.
 2. Satisfying students who wish to work in applied areas with a bachelor's degree. The B.S. degree option includes applied courses and allows students latitude to design unique programs suited to special interests.
 3. Providing nonmajors with sufficient resources to work in nonpsychological fields that require knowledge of human motivation, learning, attitudes, and behavior. Thus, business majors with an interest in management, sales, or advertising, or premedical majors interested in psychological functioning, or biology majors interested in the mechanisms of learning may pursue their interests with a minor in psychology.

3 The psychology curriculum prepares graduates for advanced study in psychology, law, social work, medicine, research, and teaching and for work in human services and related fields such as human resources management in business settings.

The OCU chapter of Psi Chi, the national psychology honor organization, and the Psychology Club, a local organization informally affiliated with Psi Chi, offer students opportunities for socializing and learning about the discipline in an informal setting.

PSYCHOLOGY (B.S.)

Sociology and Criminal Justice

Chair: Horn

Faculty: Cowgill, Kurtz

Adjunct Faculty: Bell, Farha, Rendon, Turvey, Wright

Founded in the late 1960s, the Department of Sociology and Criminal Justice has been producing top-quality students for over forty years. The department offers Bachelor of Science and Bachelor of Arts degrees in sociology and criminal justice. Graduates have gone on to work in research facilities, as professors, in nonprofit agencies, in law enforcement and sociology agencies. Students are required to complete an in-service learning component and internship. It has been our experience that these courses are instrumental in a student deciding on a particular career path. Moreover, many students are offered full-time employment after these experiences.

All full-time professors hold terminal degrees and have had real world experience in the field from correctional service officers to probation and parole officers to nonprofit employees working with terminally ill children, to a trial consultant. The faculty provides a solid base for critical thinking, reading, and writing in a curriculum infused with intellectual, spiritual, and moral development.

Courses

The required courses are offered on a two-year rotation. Students are responsible for taking the required courses when they are offered. Students who are having difficulties with course scheduling should consult their advisors.

Transfer Credit

Fifty percent of all criminal justice and sociology courses must be taken at OCU.

Attendance

Classes are conducted on the assumption that regular attendance is essential to satisfactory progress. The student is responsible for meeting course requirements, regardless of the causes of absences. A student unable to attend classes should confer in advance with the professors involved. Failure to attend classes may result in the loss of credit, exclusion from the final examinations, or both.

(Students must check with the department for additional information concerning departmental policies and procedures.)

Sociology

The mission of the sociology program is to prepare student to work in a diverse field with sociological understanding of human behavior. Each student's unique potential is nurtured through faculty mentoring.

Sociology at OCU introduces students to sociological concepts that enable students to become scholars who are more productive citizens and workers. Sociology at OCU provides a solid liberal arts education that prepares students for graduate school or a variety of career paths (e.g., social services, criminal justice, education, or government). Beginning in spring 2006, the sociology department began offering students the opportunity to take classes in two areas of concentration, Sociology of Culture and Gender and Family.

Criminal Justice

The mission of the OCU Criminal Justice program is to explore and understand the criminal justice system, i.e., courts, corrections, and law enforcement. Students are expected to understand the basic criminal justice concepts. Writing and research are central for preparation in the real world. Students also are expected to demonstrate expertise in criminological perspectives and ethical and diversity issues in the criminal justice system.

Transfer

No more than ten percent of the major criminal justice courses will be accepted through CLEP. The following required courses must be taken at OCU: Social Deviance; Criminology; Women, Law, and Social Control; Gender, Race, and Class; Senior Seminar; and Internships.

Adjunct Faculty: Binkley, Pape

The majors listed within the Department of Education section of this catalog are early childhood education, elementary education, vocal music education, and instrumental music education. Other certification areas listed in this section require degrees in the discipline plus any other courses required to meet competency requirements in that teaching field. The department offers a noncertification degree in general studies in education. The General Studies in Education program may be used to complete American Montessori Society certification.

Teacher Education

The teacher education program has been designed to prepare dedicated teachers to work effectively in diverse educational settings. Teacher preparation includes professional development, as well as a comprehensive knowledge base in the curriculum areas taught. The knowledge base is grounded in historical and contemporary education theory and practices that respect the changing school culture. In addition, the teacher education program is designed to develop leadership skills necessary for collaboration, service, and sustained success throughout the educator's career.

The general purpose of the program is to prepare the student for the teaching profession and to assist all candidates in becoming successful teacher leaders. The major goal of the program is to train educators who have the necessary knowledge, skills, and dispositions combined with a commitment to professional service. To accomplish this purpose, the department has established the following specific goals for students:

1. develop a strong knowledge base in subject area content, research, theory, and practice reflecting an understanding of physical, social, mental, and emotional patterns of development and their impact on the learning process;
2. develop competence in a variety of teaching methods and techniques to meet the needs of diverse learners;
3. create a successful climate for learning by using teaching practices that are sensitive and responsive to student needs;
4. become reflective teachers who are competent in their subject matter and methodology and dedicated to ensuring that all students learn;
5. describe, analyze, and reflect on authentic school situations and adapt instructional practices to support all students' learning;
6. exhibit a commitment to life-long learning.

Competency-Based Program

The passage of HB 1549 called for the implementation of a competency-based model for Oklahoma in teacher preparation. This program is aligned with specialized professional associations of the individual teaching disciplines and the competencies adopted by the state. As a competency-based program, courses are recommended within the major that assure students' knowledge in their teaching fields. The professional education courses have been sequenced to support students' mastery of general teaching competencies as they progress through the course of study. These competencies are documented by students and evaluated by faculty through the use of observations, individual conferences, portfolios, videotapes, examinations, projects, and other relevant supporting materials.

The teacher education program integrates theory and practice in the preparation of teachers. Through early practical experiences in the schools, students are engaged in the processes of teaching and learning as they develop a continuing awareness of children and the system of education. Beginning in their first education course, students observe in local schools. Each practicum observation experience has graduated responsibilities which culminate in student teaching for an entire semester.

Students are exposed to a variety of methods and materials. They learn to apply theory to practice in diverse educational settings. The faculty of the Department of Education strives to give students an accurate picture of public school teaching by placing them in a variety of settings. After completing the course of study, students are prepared to begin their teaching careers.

Admission to the Teacher Education Program

Students preparing for teaching should apply for formal admission to the teacher education program during their first professional education course, Introduction to Teaching (EDUC 2001), taken during their freshman or sophomore year. Prior to admission to the program, students should complete a minimum of 24 semester hours of college credit. Applicants must demonstrate a strong commitment to teaching and meet the following requirements:

1. A minimum GPA of 2.50 or above on all course work applied toward the degree prior to the date of making application. This GPA must be maintained throughout the student's enrollment in the program. (Course work from other institutions with the grade of D or F will not be accepted.) Grades of D or F in professional education courses or major requirements are not acceptable. These courses must be retaken.
2. Evidence of adequate reading, writing, mathematics, and verbal communication skills:

- a. Reading adequacy will be documented by the department reading test. A minimum percentile of sixty must be obtained.
 - b. Writing proficiency will be fulfilled by obtaining a 2.50 GPA from the Composition I and Composition II courses.
 - c. Verbal communication skills will be assessed in an interview with a committee of education faculty.
 - d. Evidence of writing, reading, and mathematics skills will be assessed by the Oklahoma General Education Test (OGET) that is administered statewide. With an ACT of 22 or a 3.00 GPA in the general education courses, the student may not be required to pass the OGET for admission to the Teacher Education Program.
3. Evidence of good moral character and personality traits that indicate potential for working with youth, parents, and other school personnel in diverse settings. Each applicant must take a personality assessment to provide evidence of stability and good personal adjustment, and receive positive evaluations of teacher dispositions; and
 4. Expressed interest in teaching as demonstrated by prior experiences and activities working with youth.
 5. First formal portfolio check during the faculty interview. An autobiography must be included in the portfolio.

Each candidate is evaluated on these criteria. Applications are approved or rejected by the Teacher Education Council. Continued admission to the program is contingent on the criteria being maintained throughout the program. Students who have not been admitted to the teacher education program will be allowed to enroll in Introduction to Teaching, Child Development or Human Development, Psychology and Assessment of Learning, and The Exceptional Child. Enrollment will not be permitted in Contemporary Issues and Culture in Education, Elementary Techniques, Curriculum and Methods for Early Childhood, K–12 or Secondary Methods courses, and Student Teaching without admission to the teacher education program.

Planning Programs

Any student seeking teacher certification should plan a program with the teacher education advisor and the advisor in the students' subject area. The licensure/certification requirements outlined for general education, professional education, and specialization fit into the degree requirements of the university. With proper planning, the student can meet the requirements for a teaching license and the requirements for a degree with a major in a chosen field.

Students seeking secondary or PK–12 education licensure are advised by the content/subject area advisors to ensure successful completion of degree requirements and are also advised in the education department to monitor teacher licensure requirements. These students should meet with their education advisors before enrollment each semester to check their status toward completion and to verify that their course selection meets teacher licensure requirements.

Students should verify their programs with the education teacher certification officer to meet licensure requirements in the state in which they expect to teach.

Transfer students who plan to seek teacher certification must meet the requirements for admission to teacher education and student teaching.

Students must participate in field experiences prior to taking student teaching. These field experiences are structured within the professional education courses and are requirements for successful completion of the courses.

All appropriate methods courses must be taken prior to student teaching. Student teaching and Contemporary Issues and Culture in Education are taken concurrently.

OCU offers eleven accredited licensure programs. The requirements for these programs are outlined on the following pages.

Professional Semester (Student Teaching)

During the semester prior to teaching, application should be made for admission to student teaching. Approval is dependent upon meeting the following criteria:

1. previous admission to teacher education,
2. a minimum overall GPA of 2.50. A GPA of 3.00 in both professional education and specialized education (major requirements) with no grade of D or F in those courses,
3. recommendation by the student's major department (teaching field),
4. an approved program of study on file and a certification check-sheet completed by the certification officer,
5. demonstrated record of disciplinary maturity,
6. completion of (or near-completion of) the first 13 hours in professional education,
7. completion of (or near-completion of) at least 85 percent of the course work required in the teaching field,
8. presentation of teaching portfolio with artifacts demonstrating content knowledge and teaching skills.

The Teacher Education Council approves or rejects all applications for admission to student teaching as well as to teacher education.

Student teaching is virtually a full-time job for one semester. It cannot be done in a legitimate manner if the student takes more than one other course and is active in extracurricular activities. Careful attention must be devoted to leaving the student teaching semester free of other obligations. Students desiring to take more than 13 hours during the student teaching semester must petition the Teacher Education Council for permission.

The evaluation of early childhood, elementary, PK–12, and secondary student teachers will be on a letter-grade basis. Final evaluation will be determined by the cooperating teacher and university supervisor.

Recommendation for Licensure/Certification

Three tests for all teacher candidates have been implemented by the Oklahoma Commission for Teacher Preparation as a component of the competency-based certification requirements. The Oklahoma General Education Test (OGET) tests the candidate's general knowledge. The Oklahoma Professional Teaching Examination (OPTE) tests the candidate's competence in pedagogy. The Oklahoma Subject Area Tests (OSAT) tests the candidate's knowledge in each subject area that will be taught.

All candidates must meet OCU's general education requirements for foreign language proficiency at the novice high level to be recommended for candidacy.

After successful completion of a degree program, passage of the three state certification examinations, and portfolio assessment, the candidate may apply for a license to teach in Oklahoma after being recommended by the OCU Department of Education certification officer.

Residency Committee

During the first year of employment in an Oklahoma state-accredited school, the licensed teacher will complete a year-long residency program. This program is designed to support the first-year teacher in the transition from licensed teacher to certified professional. A committee is set up which includes three professional educators: an administrator, a mentor teacher, and a university representative. These three professionals evaluate, coach, and mentor the licensed teacher. Upon successful completion of the first year of teaching, the residency teacher is recommended for Oklahoma teacher certification. When the first-year teacher needs additional support, he or she is recommended for a second year of residency.

Second Major in Education

The Department of Education has approved second majors in The Petree College of Arts and Sciences, supporting both content areas approved for Oklahoma State Certification as well as other majors within the university. This second major supports either a B.A. or B.S. depending on the content area of the first major.

Students majoring in the following secondary academic disciplines—English, social studies, science, speech/drama/debate, and math—will have a second major in education. PK-12 (art and foreign language) majors also will have a second major in education.

Second Major in Education—Noncertification

Students with a first major in religion/youth ministry, other noncertificate majors, and computer science may declare education as a second major. The professional education component of the teacher education program requires 25 hours of course work. A minimum cumulative GPA of 2.5 must be maintained, with a GPA of 3.0 in both professional education and the major.

EARLY CHILDHOOD

The early childhood program is based on the belief that educators must have a strong theoretical base of understanding in young children's growth, development, and learning processes. The educator must master a variety of instructional strategies and responsive behaviors for working with young children in the educational setting. A developmentally appropriate educational environment is imperative for young children to construct knowledge at various cognitive and experiential levels. The educator is taught to support children in their total developmental process.

All students are expected to work closely with their advisor to complete the 4 by 12 combination.

ELEMENTARY

In elementary education each candidate is trained to teach in diverse educational settings. The future teacher's preparation includes a knowledge base in professional development as well as a comprehensive knowledge base in the curriculum areas taught in the elementary schools. Each educator is trained to be a reflective and self-evaluative teacher. Classroom organization, planning, and management skills are incorporated throughout the professional and specialized curriculum. Leadership skills in the field of education are encouraged. The core of the program includes current educational strategies in effective teaching techniques and technology.

Both bachelor's degrees in elementary education require four courses in mathematics, science, social studies, and language arts.

SECONDARY AND PK-12 LICENSURE/CERTIFICATION

Secondary and PK-12 (pre-kindergarten through grade 12) education is a competency-based licensure option for students majoring in a discipline certified to be taught in the public schools. These majors can add teacher licensure to their degree by gaining admittance to the teacher education program, completing the required courses in professional education as well as a major in the discipline, and successfully passing the three certification examinations for Oklahoma licensure/certification. Oklahoma teacher certification is a competency-based program with competency examinations in general education (Oklahoma General Education Test—OGET), professional education (Oklahoma Professional Teaching examination—OPTE), and the student's discipline or area of study (Oklahoma Subject Area Test—OSAT). In addition, the student's competency is assessed by a portfolio demonstrating knowledge of students, teaching, and learning articulated through the Oklahoma General Competencies for Licensure and Certification adopted by the Oklahoma State Board of Education as required by House Bill 1549.

Teacher education programs are developed in accordance with Oklahoma State laws and therefore are subject to change. Students are advised to consult with their education advisor concerning requirements or any change in requirements that may occur. Grades of D or F in major requirements are not acceptable and must be retaken.

NONCERTIFICATION PROGRAMS

General Studies in Education

A degree in general studies in education is designed for students who want education-related careers that do not require teacher certification, such as child care work, recreation/fitness instruction, teaching in international schools, and working as teaching assistants. Admission to this track requires a 2.00 overall GPA with a minimum 2.00 GPA in English composition classes.

Kinesiology and Exercise Science

This program requires the following core courses for the general studies in education with specialization in kinesiology and exercise science:

Requirements	Credit Hours: 16-17
KES 1602	Introduction to Kinesiology and Exercise Science 2
KES 2203	Applied Anatomy 3
KES 3003	Cause and Prevention of Athletic Injuries or
KES 2002	First Aid: Responding to Emergency 2-3
KES 3213	Kinesiology and Biomechanics 3
KES 3303	Personal and Community Health 3
KES 4303	Motor Learning 3

Seven or eight elective hours in kinesiology should be chosen for a total of 24 hours. (Hours at the 1000, 1100, or 1200 level may not be used for the general studies major).

Students in this track may take one methods course with permission of the instructor.

*Students enrolled in this degree program will not qualify for teacher licensure.

Montessori Certification

An undergraduate student who has completed 60 hours and has a cumulative GPA of 3.00 may pursue the Montessori certificate awarded by the American Montessori Society.

Requirements include but are not limited to 20 hours of course work and six hours of seminars. A two-semester practicum (one-half days) is served in an approved Montessori school under an approved supervising teacher. Completion of an undergraduate degree and passing a written exam and an oral exam are necessary for Montessori certification. If the undergraduate degree is pending, associate certificate is awarded.

The Montessori certificate program can fit into the general studies in education. Students may choose Montessori certification for area of specialization with permission from both the Montessori advisor and the director of teacher education.

The Montessori teacher education program at OCU is accredited by The Montessori Accreditation Commission for Teacher Education.

Department Mission

The Department of Kinesiology and Exercise Science seeks to provide a quality learning environment to prepare students for a variety of careers in areas related to human movement, physical activity, and leisure. We seek to incorporate the cognitive, affective, and psychomotor domains of learning while providing outstanding field experiences and service learning opportunities.

Exercise and Sport Science

Exercise and sport science is a major with a broad application. This field can serve as preparation for several careers and educational endeavors. These include prephysical therapy, pre-occupational therapy, preathletic training, cardiac rehabilitation, personal training, strength and conditioning specialist, fitness and wellness management, sport nutrition, health promotion, and several other related areas. Our curriculum has been designed to meet the exercise science standards set by the National Association of Sport and Physical Education. The curriculum is also based on guidelines for educational preparation for fitness and personal trainer certifications by the American College of Sports Medicine and the National Strength and Conditioning Association. These two organizations offer the most prestigious and complete certification programs in the fitness industry.

Physical Education Teaching and/or Coaching

We currently offer secondary alternative teacher certification in physical education. The department faculty is available to advise students on this process. We can also provide interested students with information on the requirements and competencies necessary for applying to graduate school, seeking alternative teaching certification, and requirements for entering physical therapy programs.

Kinesiology and Exercise Studies (KES) Activity Courses

Undergraduate degree programs at OCU can include no more than six credit hours from KES courses at the 1000, 1100, and 1200 levels (or equivalent for transfer work). No more than two of these six credit hours may be earned from intercollegiate sports participation.

Meinders School of Business

Dr. Vincent F. Orza, Dean

Dr. Mahmood Shandiz, Senior Associate Dean

A Broad View of Management

The Meinders School of Business is committed to providing quality business education at the undergraduate and graduate levels. Curricula are designed to provide students with a broad-based view of management: a view that emphasizes the international environment, ethics, entrepreneurship, and social responsibility in the workplace; a view of management that will enable students to work effectively in the challenging global business environment of the twenty-first century. Course work features practice as well as theory and helps to provide students with the management skills necessary for effective leadership. Theoretical foundations are balanced by practical applications.

An Educational Environment That Serves the Student

The Meinders School offers students a wide variety of learning opportunities outside of the classroom. These enrichment activities provide valuable insight into the business world and augment traditional classroom study. These learning opportunities, such as industry visits, internships, and career coaching, focus on helping students develop strategies to reach their personal career goals. Through a series of professional development workshops conducted each semester, students also begin preparing for their careers after college. Among the topics covered are résumé writing, interviewing techniques, business etiquette, and communication skills.

Outstanding Facilities

The business school is located in the Meinders School of Business building, a $20 million facility completed in 2003. The three-story, eighty thousand square-foot building includes features that focus on student success and add value to students' academic experiences. The facility includes classrooms with state-of-the-art technology, breakout study rooms for small groups, a learning center, student/faculty lounge, and a resource center. The building houses faculty offices, the B.D. Eddie Business Research Center, and the Global Business Institute, as well as a 230-seat tiered auditorium capable of hosting videoconferences, guest speakers, and seminars.

Global Orientation

Since 1985, the Meinders School of Business has emerged as a major force in international management education. The school offers its highly regarded International Executive M.B.A. program in a small number of major cities in the Pacific Rim and Vancouver, B.C. The established reputation of the Meinders School's Pacific Rim programs has attracted the attention of a number of foreign governments and businesses. The OCU campus and the Meinders School faculty regularly serve as learning resources for business executives and government officials throughout the world. These varied international experiences provide faculty the insight necessary to design and deliver a global management education. Students at the Meinders School enjoy the opportunity to develop firsthand an understanding of international business customs and practices.

Business Research Center

Developed from the demand for practical application of the extensive professional services, current information and depth of resources available only from a university, the Meinders School of Business Research Center is an integral part of the business community—sensitive to local and regional concerns yet fully informed of the latest national and international developments.

The Meinders School of Business Research Center is designed to aid businesses in meeting the multifaceted challenges of our complex society. In cooperation with the business community, the center conducts and sponsors research projects. In the process of serving the business community, the center acts as an interface, providing both faculty and students the opportunity to confront significant business problems and apply the varied tools of their disciplines.

ACADEMIC POLICIES

Transfer Student/Credits

The academic dean and the student's advisor evaluate and approve graduate and undergraduate courses to be transferred from other regionally accredited colleges and universities. All courses accepted from other institutions must encompass the equivalent breadth and depth of courses offered in the school.

An OCU student wishing to enroll simultaneously at another institution must file a petition and obtain prior written approval of the academic dean.

Grading

Students enrolled in the Meinders School will be evaluated in all courses using the university grading system described in this catalog. The school does not use the credit/no-credit system.

Attendance Policy

Students are expected to attend classes and arrive no later than the designated starting time for all classes. Absenteeism and tardiness may lead to a grade reduction at the professor's discretion.

Academic Probation and Suspension Policy

The students will be placed on probation according to the policy described in the Academic Regulations section of this catalog.

Academic Appeal Process

A student may appeal decisions affecting his or her academic progress as follows:

1. The student initiates an appeal by filing a written petition with the school's academic dean.
2. The academic dean reviews the petition and determines if a meeting with the student petitioner is necessary.
3. The student petitioner will be informed in writing of the decision on the merits of his or her petition.
4. If the student does not agree with the decision, he or she may continue the appeal process with the associate provost.

Student's Responsibility for Degree Program

Each student enrolled in the school is responsible for being aware of and for meeting all the requirements of the degree program. Each student should maintain a personal record of his or her progress toward the degree.

Whenever an exception to the planned program of study is deemed necessary, such exception, having been made in consultation with a faculty advisor, must be documented for the official record and approved in writing by the dean of the school.

All requests for independent study, arranged courses, course substitutions, course waivers, concurrent enrollment, course transfer, or semester hour loads in excess of 18 credit hours (exclusive of physical activity courses) must be approved in writing by the dean.

DEGREE PROGRAMS

The Meinders School of Business offers the degrees of Bachelor of Science in Business (B.S.B.), Master of Business Administration (M.B.A.) and the Master of Science in Accounting (M.S.A.).

Degree Requirements

1. General Requirements

- A. A candidate must have completed a minimum of 124 credit hours with a GPA of 2.00 or better.
- B. The student also must have completed a major with a GPA of 2.00 or better.
- C. The last 15 hours, including the last 6 hours of the major, must be completed in residence at OCU. A minimum of 40 hours must be completed at OCU.

2. Course Requirements

The student program is composed of courses classified in four groups:

- | | |
|--|--------------------|
| A. General education curriculum | 43 credit hours |
| B. Basic business courses | 52-58 credit hours |
| C. Area of specialization or major requirement | 15-27 credit hours |
| D. Electives | 0-8 credit hours |

General Education Requirements for All Undergraduate Majors

The basic general education curriculum is a requirement for all undergraduate degrees at OCU. See the General Education Curriculum section of this catalog for the general education requirements. Updated lists of courses approved by the General Education Committee and the associate provost are available on the university Web site.

Credit Hours: 0-8

Students majoring in economics with arts and sciences second fields and students majoring in business administration may take business courses to fulfill their elective requirement. B.S.B./M.S.A. students are not required to take Quantitative Approaches to Management (ECON 2323).

Although a student, with the help of an advisor, has a choice of courses under these four main classifications, certain essential courses must be included. The four broad classifications permit maximum freedom in choosing courses to fit a student's individual needs while ensuring that each student receives a balanced preparation for business and life.

Accounting

Chair: Rodgers

Faculty: Austin, Stetson, Thompson, Ward

Program Description

The courses in accounting provide students with a broad knowledge of generally accepted accounting principles, cost accounting practices, not-for-profit and governmental accounting procedures, and tax laws. They are designed to meet the needs of the public accountant, industry accountant, government accountant, and the needs of the owner-manager of a business. The following are typical areas of professional activity that provide opportunities for graduates in accounting: public accounting firms, both national and local; small and large corporations; federal, state, and local governments; and service organizations, such as hospitals and universities.

BACHELOR OF SCIENCE IN BUSINESS WITH ACCOUNTING MAJOR/ MASTER OF SCIENCE IN ACCOUNTING

Program Description

Most states have changed the requirements for sitting for the uniform Certified Public Accountants examination from 124 hours to 150 hours. In response to this change, the accounting student may choose between the B.S.B. in accounting and a combined B.S.B./M.S.A. in accounting. Students in the B.S.B./M.S.A. program receive both a bachelor's degree and a master's degree upon completion of 150 credit hours.

Business Administration

Chair: Jones

Faculty: Brown, Carmichael, Crandall, Frew, Guild, Henley

Program Description

Reflecting the Meinders School's broad view of business administration, the business administration major allows the student to tailor the major course work to suit her or his particular interests and professional objectives. Students choose a first and second field from the six fields available. Students then select three courses in the first field and two courses in the second field. Courses in some fields must be taken in the proper sequence, and students must always meet stated course prerequisites.

Students choose two fields from the six fields listed below.

Students must complete three courses in the first field and two courses in the second field.

Economics

Chair: May

Faculty: Alli, McCown, McMillan, Moini, Shandiz, Shaw

Program Description

An economics major offers a student many professional opportunities in business and government. Economic analysis is regularly applied to many different real-world issues. One is not limited with an economics major. The analytical training emphasized is also valuable as preparation for graduate study in business, law, and many other disciplines. Economics provides the basic understanding of much of the business world. Typical employment after graduation is in insurance, securities, and banking industries. Other areas of employment where analytic skills are a priority are also common employment opportunities.

Math, as a second field, is necessary for a graduate degree in economics and highly recommended for graduate study in finance. For those planning to attend law school, economics is one of the most useful majors. See an economics or finance faculty member for more information.

Finance

Chair: May

Faculty: Quintero, Shafa, Shaw

Program Description

Knowledge and understanding of financial organization and structure have a very real place in our economic system.

Professional training in financial principles, practices, and promotion; operation and contribution of community and securities markets; investment and risk concepts; short-term and long-term financing for the firm; and expansion, consolidation, and merger of enterprises all prepare the student for work in a finance department or to work as a specialist in the areas of budget, investment, or credit and financial control.

Professional opportunities will be found in banks, savings and loan associations, investment firms, brokerage houses, or financial planning in the public sector.

Information Technology

Chair: Rodgers

Faculty: Carlton, Greve, Khader

Program Description

Knowledge of the computer has become increasingly important to the business student, as business firms are using computers in creative and innovative ways. There are many career opportunities for the student in the field ranging from programmers using various languages to managers of sophisticated information systems. Those who are primarily interested in programming will concentrate on the language courses—FORTRAN, BASIC, COBOL—which are taught in the computer science department. Information technology deals with the interaction between the business executives, who are the users of the information, and the operators, who program the computer. All courses in the information technology concentration stress global applications.

Marketing

Chair: Jones

Faculty: Brown, Gray, Howard, Monnot

Program Description

Marketing is a system of business activities that begins with an interpretation of the wants and needs of consumers, follows through with all activities involved in the flow of goods and services from producers to consumers, and ends with those services necessary to aid the consumer in getting the expected usefulness from the product or service purchased.

A marketing graduate could find professional opportunities in areas of sales promotion, advertising, distributing, retailing, and sales management.

Ann Lacy School of American Dance and Arts Management

John Bedford, Dean

The Ann Lacy School of American Dance and Arts Management provides professional, career-oriented programs for students interested in working in the American entertainment and performing arts industries as dancers, managers, master dance teachers, or as creative talent with strong business and liberal arts knowledge and skills. The school, which consists of the dance and arts management departments, seeks to produce graduates who are prepared to work in the commercial entertainment or nonprofit performing arts industries.

ACADEMIC POLICIES

Admission Requirements

Applicants to the dance performance and dance management majors must audition for admission and be accepted.

Applicants for admission to the entertainment business major must submit a goals-related essay and résumé and must be interviewed and accepted by the arts management faculty.

Applicants must have ACT scores of 19 or higher or SAT scores of 920 or higher to be eligible to audition for admission to the Ann Lacy School of American Dance and Arts Management as entering freshman dance performance majors. Applicants must have ACT scores of 21 or higher or SAT scores (math plus verbal) of 1000 or higher to be eligible to audition for admission to the school as entering freshman dance management majors or to be interviewed by arts management faculty for admission as entertainment business majors.

To be eligible to audition for admission as a dance performance or dance management major or to be interviewed by the arts management faculty for admission as an entertainment business major, transfer students with less than 27 completed semester credit hours of academic courses must have qualifying ACT or SAT scores as described above for entering freshmen and a cumulative college GPA of 2.75. Transfer students for all degree programs with over 26 completed semester credit hours of academic courses must have a cumulative college GPA of 3.00.

Applicants for the American Dance Master Teacher Program (ADMTP) degree programs must submit a goals-related essay and résumé and must be interviewed and accepted by the ADMTP faculty. Applicants graduating from high school with five or fewer years of post high school professional dance performance or dance teaching experience must audition by videotape or in person by arrangement with the ADMTP coordinator. Applicants with more than five years of post high school professional dance performance or dance teaching experience may be required to submit a videotape audition or audition in person if deemed necessary and appropriate by the ADMTP faculty to determine an applicant's knowledge of tap, jazz, and ballet technique.

To be eligible to apply for admission to the American Dance Master Teacher Program Bachelor of Science in American Dance Pedagogy degree program, an applicant must have an ACT score of 21 or higher or SAT (math plus verbal) of 1000 or higher.

The undergraduate degrees in the Ann Lacy School of American Dance and Arts Management are intended to be "first degrees." Applicants with undergraduate degrees will not be accepted into the school's undergraduate degree programs. Generally, transfer students expected to have completed more than 60 credit hours by the time they plan to attend OCU will not be accepted into the dance performance and dance management degree programs.

Dance Transfer Credits

Transfer credit for modern dance courses may not be applied toward the requirements of the dance performance or dance management degrees.

Credit/No-credit

Students within the school may not take courses for credit/no-credit to meet degree requirements.

Attendance

Students are expected to attend classes diligently and regularly in the same way that employees in the entertainment industry are expected to show up for work. Course grades will be lowered one full grade (i.e., A- to B-) for each absence beyond that allowed for the course under the appropriate dance or arts management Standards and Procedures. Three late arrivals or early departures from class will be considered equal to one absence.

Arts Management Course Projects and Papers

Course projects and papers must be turned in before or by the established due time and date deadline. Projects and papers will not be accepted after deadlines. Late projects and papers will receive a grade of F.

School Academic Probation

Students within the school with a semester GPA below 2.00 or with two or more F's in any subject during a semester, will be placed on Ann Lacy School of American Dance and Arts Management academic probation. In order to remain in a major within the school, students on school academic probation must achieve, during the following semester, a semester GPA of 2.75 or higher in an enrollment of at least 15 credit hours approved by the dean, with no grades of D or F.

Students who have been placed on school academic probation who do not meet the above requirements may apply for consideration for readmittance after completing an additional 30 credit hours in academic courses (not applied arts or nonacademic courses) with a GPA of 2.75 and no D's or F's for any semester in which the students were enrolled after leaving the school.

Minimum Grade Requirements for Dance Management and Entertainment Business Majors

For an arts management course (AMGT) or business course to count toward the B.S. in dance management degree or B.S. in entertainment business degree, a student must earn a grade of C or higher.

Full-Time Enrollment Required

In order to remain in the Ann Lacy School of American Dance and Arts Management, students must maintain full-time enrollment (a minimum of 12 credit hours) each semester. Last-semester seniors with less than 12 credit hours of remaining degree requirements may enroll in less than 12 credit hours as long as they enroll in all of their remaining degree requirements offered by the university.

Concurrent Enrollments

Students may not enroll in courses at other colleges or universities during the fall or spring semesters while attending OCU.

Employment in the Entertainment Industry and the Start and End of a Semester

Students will not be excused from classes, final exams, project and paper deadlines, dance leveling or juries at the end of a semester in order to begin employment. Students may not return late for the spring semester. Students may receive permission to miss certain classes at the beginning of the academic year in August due to summer employment in the entertainment industry. The process for receiving permission to return late in August is posted on the dance and arts management call boards each year and must be followed carefully.

Policy-Based Program

The Ann Lacy School of American Dance and Arts Management is governed by policy documents which include Dance Standards and Procedures, American Dance Master Teacher Program Standards and Procedures, Entertainment Business Standards and Procedures, Parents' and New Students' Guide to the OCU Dance Department, Parents' and New Students' Guide to the American Dance Master Teacher Program, and Parents' and New Students' Guide to the Entertainment Business Program. Students, faculty, and staff within the school are expected to adhere to the policies described in these documents.

Performance Opportunities for Dancers

Dancers may audition for The American Spirit Dance Company, OCU Pep Dancers, Spirit of Grace Liturgical Dancers, and opera and musical theater productions presented by OCU's Oklahoma Opera and Musical Theater Company. They may also find performance opportunities in the popular annual Student Choreography Show.

American Spirit Dance Company members and arts management majors may apply to be considered for The American Spirit Dance Company's special touring company, which travels and performs nationally and internationally. Students' transportation and lodging expenses for tours are paid by The American Spirit Dance Company.

Performance Opportunities for Entertainment Business Majors

Entertainment business majors constitute a multifaceted group with interests in all aspects of the arts and entertainment industry. Performing opportunities include university choirs, university theater, children's theater, university band, university orchestra, and Oklahoma Opera and Musical Theater Company. There are also a multitude of bands and ensembles formed by students providing opportunities for instrumentalists, vocalists, and songwriters.

Degree Programs

The Ann Lacy School of American Dance and Arts Management offers the degrees of Bachelor of Performing Arts in dance performance (B.P.A.), Bachelor of Science in dance management (B.S.), and Bachelor of Science in entertainment business (B.S.).

Commitment to Education

The Ann Lacy School of American Dance and Arts Management is committed to developing future leaders in the entertainment industry. We strongly believe that the best leaders will be those who are not only thoroughly trained in performance or arts management, but who are also well educated in the liberal arts. We believe that a solid education will produce greater future opportunities and personal reward for our students. Students are expected to maintain a balanced semester schedule which includes academic as well as performance or arts management classes.

Dance Department

Chair: Rowan

Faculty: Boday, Jacquemain, Martin, Oplotnik, Reed, Sandel, Shaw, Stevens, Shelley, van der Merwe, Wilcox
Adjunct Faculty: Cosby, Warford, Wells

Mission and Purpose

In 1981, the OCU dance department was reconceived and reorganized as a career-oriented program offering students the opportunity to study tap, jazz, and ballet with an emphasis on theater dance. The program aims to create well-rounded performers and thus encourages its students to also study voice, drama, music, and technical theater. Its primary goal is to help students to become "triple threats," a show business term for the performer who can dance, sing, and act.

The dance program has a double consumer orientation: It strives to meet the needs of career-oriented students who seek education, training, and experience in a professionally oriented (rather than an educationally oriented) program, and it strives to meet the needs of its own and future audiences by teaching students that audiences must be always remembered and entertained. In fact, the dance program is founded on the belief that art and entertainment are not mutually exclusive.

It is also the purpose of the dance program to instill in its students renewed appreciation and respect for the American dance forms. The dances and songs that evolved out of the American experience and traditions communicate to and touch a much larger audience than that which may prefer primarily Western European performing art forms.

Ballet is taught as a common framework and for the mental and physical discipline and training it provides. Even though the dance program offers more ballet training than most traditional ballet/modern programs at other universities, ballet is not a primary feature of the program, and modern is omitted as a result of a conscious effort to avoid duplication of the many outstanding ballet and modern programs taught throughout the region and nation.

The dance program narrows its focus to entertainment and theater dance and excels in these areas. Indeed, it is the purpose of the dance department to maintain a national reputation for as "the university" to attend if one wants a college degree and a career in musical theater or entertainment dance.

Being a dance major is a privilege granted by the university, not a right. Due to the strenuous nature of dance and the career orientation of the dance program, the university reserves the right to determine the eligibility of any student to continue majoring in dance based on considerations including, but not limited to, health and weight; regular attendance of dance classes; focus and commitment; probable success in attaining the dance degree as determined by the dance faculty's evaluation of the student's technical progress measured by leveling examinations at the end of each semester; and a student's record of class attendance and active participation and growth as an artist and performer as measured by a performance proficiency examination to be given at the end of a performance major's fourth semester as a dance major, if the student entered the dance program at the very beginning of his or her college career, or as scheduled by the faculty if the student was accepted into the program through change of major or transfer from another institution of higher education.

Regular class attendance is related to health and safety. A dancer who does not study and train regularly is subject to increased incidents of injury. Weight in dance is both an aesthetic and a health and safety consideration. Excess weight causes misalignment and leveraging of body parts that can lead to injury.

Dance Major

All students wishing to major in dance or dance management or to attend dance classes must audition and be leveled and approved for admission into dance classes or into the dance program by the dance department chair. Students wishing to enter the dance program in the fall semester should audition during the preceding spring. Students wishing to enter the dance program in the spring semester should audition during the preceding fall. Admission auditions are not given during the summer.

Students who are not able to audition in person may audition for admission by submitting a nonreturnable audition tape as described below. Students are strongly encouraged to audition in person.

Students wishing to be considered for a dance or dance management tuition scholarship should plan to audition in person at the annual dance admission and scholarship audition held each spring. Students auditioning for a scholarship and admission into the dance program will be judged on personality, college entrance test scores, body structure, weight and appearance, as well as on their technical ability and versatility.

For information about audition dates, contact the dance department by phone at (405) 208-5322 or by e-mail at ado@okcu.edu, or visit our Web site at www.okcu.edu/dance_amgt.

Videotape Audition Requirements

1. All videos must be standard VHS format. Other formats will not be viewed.
2. Video auditions will be used for determining admission to the dance, dance management, and dance pedagogy majors and for class technique levelings. Video auditions will not be used for scholarship determination.
3. Video auditions should show only the dancer who is auditioning and should not be taped in a performance.
4. Auditioning dancers for the dance performance and dance management majors will be judged on personality and body proportions in addition to technique. Please make sure that these factors are visible. Do not wear black or very dark leotards and tights.
5. Videos should show the following steps in ballet, tap, and jazz.

Ballet

1. Adage placement combinations showing balance and extension
2. Pirouettes
3. A line of turns of the dancer's choice (i.e. chaines)
4. Small jumps
5. Large jumps
6. Jumps with beats, if possible

Jazz

1. Inside and outside jazz turns
2. A jumping combination using different levels (i.e. jumps in the air with floor work between the jumps)
3. A short movement combination/dance showing dynamics, energy, aerobic stamina, and the ability to hit poses

Tap

1. A series of basic rhythm steps (i.e., flaps or shuffle steps)
2. Time steps and a time step break
3. Simple to complex riffs
4. Steps using pick ups, pull backs or drawbacks, and wings

Audition tapes should be sent to:

Chair, Dance Department
Ann Lacy School of American Dance and Arts Management
Oklahoma City University
2501 N. Blackwelder
Oklahoma City, OK 73106

Audition tapes will not be returned. Please do not send an original tape that you want to keep. The student's name, address, telephone number, height, weight, and desired major should be affixed to the cassette.

Weight Policy (for nonpedagogy majors)

Since the dance program is oriented toward preparing dancers for professional careers, weight is a very important factor in a student's success, happiness, health, grades, and retention in the dance program. Students seeking admission into the dance program will be evaluated in part on their weight and body structure.

Due to the variety of body types and structures, it is not possible to develop a weight/height table for objectively evaluating dancers. This is a subjective area, and judgments about weight and appearance will be made solely by the dance faculty.

Students who are considered by the dance faculty to be significantly overweight or underweight or who have structural problems will not be admitted as dance majors and may not be permitted to take numbered technique classes. They may take basic movement classes by permission.

Dance majors who do not achieve and maintain acceptable dance weight may be counseled out of the program at any time. Students are encouraged to seek professional assistance in setting up a nutritious weight adjustment and maintenance program. Dancers who are not able to actively participate in dance classes may be counseled out of the program at any time or may be required to drop their dance courses.

The dance department adheres to a uniform grading policy that applies the same grading standards to all students in dance technique courses regardless of academic major, prior dance training, or personal goals.

The weight and appearance standards for professional dancers in the musical theater and entertainment industries, as determined by the dance faculty, apply to all ballet, jazz, and tap courses at the A and B levels. Final course grades for students not meeting these standards, as determined by the course instructors, will be reduced one complete letter grade (e.g. a B- to a C-).

Double Majors

Dance performance and dance management majors may not double major. The dance program is extremely demanding and time-consuming due to its professional career orientation. Dance majors are involved in physically rigorous classes and rehearsals, performances, runouts, and tours. These activities take considerable time, energy, and concentration. Fatigue caused by overextension can cause illness, injury, psychological and emotional distress, poor grades, and loss of scholarships.

Minors

Dance performance majors who are interested in minoring in another subject area are strongly encouraged to do so. There are many minors available through other departments on campus. Most minors require 18–21 credit hours of concentrated work in a specified subject area. Information about minors can be obtained from the department in the subject of interest.

Dance performance majors should decide early in their college careers if they wish to pursue a minor and in which subject.

This is because they can use the six hours of academic electives required by the dance degree to satisfy requirements in their minor subject. In this manner, a student can usually obtain a minor with 12–15 credit hours of work beyond the dance performance degree requirements.

Health and Safety

The dean of the Ann Lacy School of American Dance and Arts Management or the chair of the dance department may require a student to take a physical at the student's expense before granting permission for the student to participate in dance classes and activities.

The dean of the Ann Lacy School of American Dance and Arts Management or the chair of the dance department may also suspend a student's participation in dance classes and dance activities out of concern for the health and safety of the student. The dean of the Ann Lacy School of American Dance and Arts Management or the chair of the dance department may require that a student be examined by a physician at the student's expense and be cleared for full participation in dance technique classes and dance activities before the student may resume participation.

Nondance Majors and Dance Technique Classes

Only students in degree programs specifically requiring dance technique courses may enroll in a dance technique course.

Dance courses may not be used to meet the general education kinesiology and exercise science requirement.

All students must obtain permission from the dean of the Ann Lacy School of American Dance and Arts Management to enroll in a dance course.

With the exception of Basic Movement (Tap, Jazz, Ballet) courses, all students must be leveled by the dance faculty before enrolling in dance technique courses. Contact the Dance Office at (405) 208-5322 for information about leveling schedules.

The dance department adheres to a uniform grading policy that applies the same grading standards to all students in dance technique courses regardless of academic major, prior dance training, or personal goals.

The weight and appearance standards for professional dancers in the musical theater and entertainment industries, as determined by the dance faculty, apply to all Ballet, Jazz, and Tap courses at the A and B levels. Final course grades for students not meeting these standards, as determined by the course instructors, will be reduced one whole letter grade (e.g. a B- to a C-).

Senior Performance and Technical Proficiency Exam

Students must apply to the dance program for permission to take the senior performance and technical proficiency exam. A student may be denied permission if the dance faculty determines that the student is unlikely to achieve required graduation levels. A student may be denied permission if achieving the predetermined graduation weight cannot be healthily accomplished within the available remaining time before the scheduled date of the senior performance and technical proficiency exam. A student may be denied permission if the dean of the Ann Lacy School of American Dance and Arts Management or the chair of the dance department believe that participation in the components of the exam jeopardize the student's health and safety. Detailed information about applying for permission to take the senior performance and technical proficiency exam and application procedures are contained in the Dance Standards and Procedures.

Professional appearance, weight as it affects technique, and professional presentation of self will be considered in determining levels and grades in dance technique classes.

In order to be awarded a B.P.A. in dance performance degree, dance performance majors must attain the following minimum competency levels as determined by the dance department leveling jury:

First-Choice Dance Style	Master level 7
Second-Choice Dance Style	Master level 6
Third-Choice Dance Style	Master level 5

In order to attain the required graduation levels, students may need to complete more than the minimum required credit hours in dance technique classes.

Dance performance majors must also successfully complete a senior performance project that includes performance of a solo dance of two to three minutes in length. The dance must be an original work created during the senior year. The senior performance project will be adjudicated as either Satisfactory or Unsatisfactory by the dance faculty on the basis of the quality of performance and choreography. To graduate with the B.P.A. in dance performance degree, a student also must attain at the time of the senior performance and technical proficiency examinations a graduation weight established by the dance department. The graduation weight will be established during the semester of planned graduation or during the semester before planned graduation.

In the event that a student does not succeed in one or more components of the proficiency exam, the following policies apply:

1. At the discretion of the dance department chair, within seven days after the first examination, the student may be given a re-examination covering the portion of the examination that he or she previously failed.
2. The student will have a maximum of eighteen months to take a second exam(s) of any and all portions of the examination which the student originally failed. During this period, the student may retake the required portion(s) no more than three times (not including the re-examination described in item 1, above).
3. The student must retake all failed portions of the examination at the same time.
4. The student may not schedule the first retake earlier than ninety days after the original examination.
5. The student must apply in writing to the dance department chair to schedule a retake and must indicate what measures have been taken to prepare for successful completion of the examination.
6. In the event that the student fails to successfully complete all parts of the proficiency examination within eighteen months and the three allowed retakes, the B.P.A. in dance performance degree will not be awarded and no additional examinations will be given.

Competency in Dance Technique – Ballet/Tap/Jazz

Competency in and knowledge of ballet, tap, and jazz technique will be determined by dance faculty evaluation or leveling examination. The appropriate method of determining competency will be selected by the dance faculty. An American Dance Master Teacher Program (ADMTP) level 5 or equivalent skill/knowledge/experience, as determined by the dance faculty, is required by the beginning of the junior year in the student's first-choice technique. Also required by the beginning of the junior year are ADMTP level 4's or equivalent skill/knowledge/experience, as determined by the dance faculty, in the student's second and third choice technique.

Students with deficiencies in dance technique levels or equivalent skill/knowledge/experience, as determined by the dance faculty, must enroll in appropriate ballet, tap, and/or jazz technique and analysis courses to achieve minimum requirements. Students who do not attain the minimum requirements will not be permitted to graduate with the B.S. in American dance pedagogy degree.

Competency in Basic Music Knowledge

American dance pedagogy majors must demonstrate minimum piano and percussion proficiencies of level 2A in order to graduate with the B.S. in American dance pedagogy degree.

Students with prior training in piano and/or percussion may request to be leveled through the Wanda L. Bass School of Music, for which a fee may be charged. To meet this requirement, students may also enroll in applied piano and applied percussion courses until a level 2A is achieved. Leveling at the end of a semester is a routine part of applied music courses.

Arts Management Department

Chair: Bedford

Faculty: Jacquemain, Shelley

Adjunct Faculty: Cosby, Millsap, Risi

The arts management department seeks to prepare students to become managers in the entertainment and performing arts industries or to become performers or creative talent who can better manage or understand the management of their business affairs. Arts management courses are designed to combine theory with the practical. Many courses require extensive projects, which can be used later by students as part of their job search portfolio. Hands-on experiences are provided through the many performance activities and productions presented both on and off campus.

Career-related academic electives should be selected in consultation with and approval of the director of entertainment business. The electives provide the student with an opportunity to custom design a track to support his or her specific management interests in the entertainment industry. Because the Ann Lacy School of American Dance and Arts Management offers a B.S. in dance management, the entertainment business program and the career-related academic electives may not be used to create a customized dance or dance management track.

Wanda L. Bass School of Music

Mark Edward Parker, Dean

WHO WE ARE

The Bass School of Music is renowned for its exceptional training of musicians in the liberal arts tradition. For eighty years its graduates have been in demand as singers, conductors, composers, instrumentalists, educators, critics, and commentators. Bass School of Music alumni include Grammy, Tony, and Emmy award winners.

It is the only school in the world to be both an all-Steinway institution and a member of the National Alliance for Music Theater. Over the past decade, students have enrolled from forty-eight states and five continents.

The school's versatile faculty features nationally known performers, composers, and clinicians who excel at teaching. Twelve OCU professors play in professional orchestras. Top guest artists give frequent performances and master classes. Students are well schooled in the classics and involved in the creation and exploration of new works.

OCU's Oklahoma Opera and Music Theater Company presents eighteen performances of six shows each year. Ensembles, open to all university students by audition, include the Symphony Orchestra, Wind Philharmonic, Ad Astra (Women's Choir), Men's Choir, Chamber Choir, Percussion Ensemble, Flute Choir, Jazz Ensemble, and Jazz Arts Combo. Project 21, organized by student composers, presents concerts of original works at least five times a year, and singers plan and perform programs for an informal on-campus cabaret. More than two hundred performances, ranging from solo recitals to collaborations involving several ensembles, are staged during the academic year.

Accreditation

The school is a full member of the National Association of Schools of Music. The requirements for entrance and for graduation as set forth in this catalog are in accordance with the published regulations of this association.

FIELDS OF STUDY

Bachelor of Music

Students preparing for a career in the fields of performance, music theater, private teaching, music business, or composition enroll in a four-year degree program. The music education curriculum requires four and one-half years.

Performance includes piano, organ, voice, guitar, and all of the orchestral instruments. The music education degree is offered in vocal and instrumental education.

Bachelor of Arts

The B.A. degree is offered with a major in music and with an emphasis in sacred music. Requirements incorporate additional course work from the general education curriculum. The emphasis in sacred music option allows additional study in religion and is approved by the Diaconal Ministries of the United Methodist Church.

Master of Music

This degree allows advanced study in the fields of opera performance, musical theater, composition, conducting, and performance (instrumental and voice). See the graduate catalog for detailed information.

Preparatory Division

The Performing Arts Academy offers noncredit programs for pre-college students and continuing education for adults in all instruments and voice, early childhood music, and ensembles.

The Faculty

Professors at the school are carefully chosen based on their educational, teaching, and performance backgrounds. Faculty members are active performers, composers, and researchers, but their top priority is teaching. The faculty is committed to student success. Each student receives individual attention. No classes are taught by graduate students or teaching assistants.

Facilities

The Bass School of Music is housed the 113,000-square-foot Wanda L. Bass Music Center which opened in 2006. This state-of-the-art facility features high-tech music labs for voice, composition, and sound recording as well as an additional thirty-seven teaching studios, sixty practice rooms, and seven rehearsal spaces for ensembles. Each classroom, teaching studio, practice room, rehearsal space, and performance hall features at least one Steinway piano. The Bishop W. Angie Smith Chapel houses OCU's choir and organ performance programs. The Italian-designed chapel is built around German stained glass windows depicting the four seasons. The main sanctuary features seating for 650. Offices, rehearsal rooms, classrooms, two practice organs, and the chapel's newly restored seventy-rank Holtkamp organ make the chapel a center of musical activity for the campus and the city.

OCU is the home of The Oklahoma Opera and Music Theater Company. Opera and musical theater productions performed in the 1,119-seat Kirkpatrick Auditorium are enhanced by special lighting, costume, and scenic design from on-campus technical theater faculty, staff, and students. The facilities include an orchestra pit capable of holding an orchestra of fifty and full dressing rooms. The 500-seat Petree Recital Hall hosts orchestral, wind band, jazz band, chorus, small ensembles, recitals, and theatrical productions. The hall is designed for audio and television recording of performances. The 255-seat Burg Theater is used for major dramatic productions, lectures, and other special presentations. A more intimate venue is provided by the 46-seat Wimberly Room, which features state-of-the-art equipment for recording and multimedia presentations. The Wimberly Room is used for master classes, lectures, and recitals.

The Dulaney-Browne Library houses a collection of books, scores, periodicals, and recordings in the areas of music and the performing arts. The Listening Laboratory in the Bass School of Music features more than thirty thousand recordings. Students have access to a computer/keyboard laboratory with Web access and extensive capabilities for composition, music sequencing, and computer-assisted learning.

Advising

The Bass School of Music gives individual advising attention to each student. In the field of music—where aptitudes, career-interests, and the individual preferences of students vary—advising is of great importance. All undergraduate music students will be assigned a faculty advisor. The faculty advisor must be consulted prior to each semester's enrollment. The coordinator of student services assists with the enrollment process.

Organizations

The Bass School of Music sponsors several student musical organizations: University Singers, Concert Choir, Chamber Choir, Surrey Singers, Wind Philharmonic, Symphony Orchestra, Percussion Ensemble, Jazz Arts Ensemble, Jazz Combo, Pep Band, Flute Choir, Double Bass Ensemble, and small instrumental and vocal ensembles. Project 21 is a consortium of OCU composers who collaborate with vocalists and instrumentalists to bring new musical works to life. Students also form informal groups that perform in clubs from Oklahoma City to Austin. Student societies include Alpha Zeta Chapter (1928) of Sigma Alpha Iota, an international music fraternity for women; Alpha Epsilon Chapter of Pi Kappa Lambda (1960), national music honor society; and Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia (1994) for men.

Performance

A full calendar of musical events is presented to the general public and university community each year. Visiting guest artists give performances and master classes for students and the community.

More than 500,000 people have attended OCU performances here and abroad. The Oklahoma Opera and Music Theater Company, Symphony Orchestra, Surrey Singers, Wind Philharmonic, and Chamber Choir have all toured extensively, including several international tours. OCU students travel widely, bringing their special talents to other parts of the world while learning from and interacting directly with other cultures.

Oklahoma City—A Thriving Cultural Center

Concerts by touring virtuosi, along with innumerable recitals and concerts by faculty and students, make Oklahoma City one of the most vital performing arts centers in the Southwest. By special arrangement, OCU students are admitted free to events sponsored by the Civic Music Association. The city is also home to the Oklahoma City Philharmonic, Ballet Oklahoma, Canterbury Choral Society, Oklahoma City Chamber Music Society, Lyric Theatre, and a variety of other musical and theatrical organizations.

Employment

The Placement Office assists students in finding part-time employment while attending the university. This may be in the field of performing arts or in a related area. Advanced music majors may have an opportunity to teach in the Performing Arts Academy. Students are made aware of national auditions and competitions throughout the academic year by the Bass School of Music and by studio instructors. On-campus auditions are held by professional organizations including Lyric Theatre, Music Theatre of Wichita, Disney, Busch Gardens, Opryland, and Discoveryland.

The Placement Office staff and Bass School of Music faculty make every effort to assist graduates in finding suitable positions. Employers seeking qualified performers and teachers frequently contact the university. Students pursuing graduate study frequently win admission to the world's top universities and conservatories.

Admission Requirements—Music

In addition to meeting the general university admission requirements, all students wishing to major in music must be accepted through audition. The applicant should have the following musical qualifications:

1. To enter the B.M. curriculum in piano or organ, the student should be able to play creditably such compositions as the Bach "Two-Part Inventions" and the easier sonatas of Haydn and Mozart. The student should be able to play major and minor scales, chords, and arpeggios with accurate fingering at a moderately rapid tempo.
2. To major on an orchestral instrument, the student should be able to play compositions of above-average difficulty on his or her instrument.

3. To enter the curriculum in voice, the student should have ability as a singer and knowledge of the rudiments of music. Some background in piano is highly desirable.
4. To enter the curriculum in vocal music education, the student should have a satisfactory singing voice and knowledge of music fundamentals. The ability to play simple piano music is highly desirable.
5. To enter the curriculum in instrumental music education, the student should be able to play at least one band or orchestral instrument well enough to have performed in a high school band or orchestra.
6. Candidates for the curriculum in composition must audition as a vocalist or instrumentalist, submit several scores and/or recordings of original work for evaluation, and complete an interview with the composer-in-residence.
7. To enter the curriculum in guitar, the student should be able to play compositions equal in difficulty to the studies of Sor, Giuliani, Carulli, or Carcassi, and be able to play major and minor scales, chords, and arpeggios.
8. To enter the curriculum in musical theater, the student should have ability as a singer, dancer (ballet, tap, or jazz), and actor. The student should have genuine interest in becoming proficient in these areas of performance.
9. All new transfer students who have not successfully completed freshman and sophomore music theory requirements must take the music theory advisory examination. The examination will be scheduled during the first week of classes of both fall and spring semesters.
10. If a student is enrolled in a degree program at OCU, prior approval by the dean must be obtained before taking courses at another institution for the purpose of applying those courses to a degree program at OCU.

The Bass School of Music will accept transfer credit for music or related courses in which the student has a grade of C or higher from institutions that are accredited by NASM. For further information on scholastic and admission audition dates, call the coordinator of student services at (405) 208-5980.

Credits in Applied Music (Performance)

Credits earned for private lessons in voice, piano, organ, guitar, or orchestral instrument are designed as credits in performance. The amount of credit earned in performance depends on the number of lessons per week, the amount of practice, and whether the student is advanced enough to earn major credit; it also depends on whether he or she is taking an instrument or voice as a secondary or minor requirement for his or her degree.

General Regulations

1. A student in the Bass School of Music follows the same academic and general regulations as students in other schools in the university. See the Academic Regulations section of this catalog. See the Expenses and Financial Aid section for information about payment of tuition, scholarships, and grants-in-aid.
2. Each student is carefully assigned to his or her major applied teacher. Requests for change must be submitted to the dean in writing with an explanation for the change. Changes cannot be made during a semester. Petitions are available from the coordinator of student services. Students must discuss their desire to change studios with their current professor before inquiring about study with another professor.
3. All students enrolled for credit in applied music, except OCU employees and/or faculty, must take a final exam ("jury"). All students are required to register for a jury time and date when the lists are posted. After a time and date have been scheduled, they cannot be changed or exchanged with another student. To avoid scheduling conflicts with other examinations, the final examination schedule for the university should be consulted before a student registers for a jury time and date. A student may be excused from taking a jury only in the case of a documented major illness, personal tragedy, or national disaster. A missed jury must be made up in the full semester immediately following the semester in which the jury was canceled. Makeup juries are posted in the Fine Arts building and take place during the first two weeks of the next full semester. A student failing to schedule a makeup jury may not advance in performance level.
4. Private lessons that have been missed, except in case of protracted illness, will be made up at the convenience of the teacher, provided twenty-four hours advance notice of the absence is given the teacher and reasons for such missed lessons are acceptable. A teacher is not required to make up a lesson that the student has missed without first contacting the teacher as described above.
5. Students late for private lessons will receive only the remaining portion of the lesson period.
6. Music students must receive permission from their applied music teachers before accepting musical engagements.
7. Unless otherwise specified, the term ensemble, as found in the following curricula, refers to one of the major ensembles: Symphony Orchestra, Wind Philharmonic, University Singers, Concert Choir, and Chamber Choir. The major ensemble to which a singer is assigned will be determined by audition. The major ensemble for string players is the Symphony Orchestra. The major ensemble for wind and percussion majors is the Wind Philharmonic. Selected wind and percussion majors will also be expected to participate in the Symphony Orchestra, Jazz Arts Ensemble, and Pep

Band, as appropriate. All students are strongly encouraged to participate in the various small ensembles in their area of performance. The ensemble participation requirements will apply during each semester the student is enrolled for seven hours or more, regardless of the number of semesters the student is enrolled at the university. The total ensemble requirements must be met before the degree can be completed. All voice students are required to audition for all opera and musical theater productions and to perform in them if cast.

8. All candidates for the B.M. degree except piano, organ, and composition majors are required to pass a piano proficiency test. Failure to do so is a barrier to graduation. All students must take a minimum of one semester of piano before they will be allowed to sit for the piano proficiency examination.
9. Music education majors will be required to perform satisfactorily a half recital. This recital can be performed by memory or with music at the teacher's discretion.
10. Credit for applied study at another institution is not transferable while a student is working toward a degree at OCU.
11. To qualify for graduation, a student must attain the designated level of performance as specified in each of the applied performance divisions. Levels are determined at the time of the jury examinations.
12. Vocal students are required to pay a standard fee for accompanists' services as part of their applied lessons. This fee covers accompanists' services for studio lessons, master classes, and juries for two credit hour students, and studio lessons and juries for one credit hour students. Instrumental students may need to provide an accompanist as instructed by their applied teacher.
13. A student may take up to six credit hours of the general education requirements as credit/no-credit.
14. Regardless of the number of hours earned, a student must be enrolled in at least one credit hour during the semester or term in which the recital is presented.
15. Beginning with the freshman class of 2004, all music majors must successfully complete six semesters of Music Assembly attendance. Music Assembly credit will be posted on the official transcript. Failure to meet this requirement is a barrier to graduation.
16. Applied music study requires a requisite knowledge of music fundamentals. Leveling exams in voice and basic music skills are prerequisites for Applied Voice (AMV) for all nonmusic majors. Students not at an appropriate level for private applied voice study will be placed in Voice Class (AMVC) and may be required to take Music Fundamentals (MUS 1102).

General Education Requirements for All Undergraduate Majors

The basic general education curriculum is a requirement for all undergraduate degrees at OCU. See the General Education Requirements section of this catalog for a complete list of required courses and competencies. Updated lists of courses approved by the General Education Committee and the associate provost are available on the university Web site.

In addition to the university's general education curriculum, both B.A. in music degrees require completion of 12 hours of college-level foreign language.

Bachelor of Fine Arts in Theater Design and Production

Department of Theater

Chair: Herendeen

Faculty: Boston, Foreman, Marsh, Palladino, Pasto, Taylor

Adjunct Faculty: Adams, Bhaird, Cox

WHO WE ARE

The Department of Theater offers a multidimensional, dynamic program that embodies the convictions of the liberal arts tradition of education. For eighty-two years its graduates have been in demand as teachers, performers, playwrights, technicians, and directors.

The department's versatile faculty joins students in outstanding productions of plays: the classics, revitalized or newly conceived plays, and experimental works. Through outside assessment, faculty, students, and productions from the Department of Theater have won awards at prestigious events such as The International Siglo De Oro Theater Festival and the Kennedy Center/American College Theatre Festival.

Great training and a chance to perform, design, and stage direct marks the OCU theater experience. Every season includes six mainstage productions. Two of these productions are specifically designed for young audiences. These shows are produced collaborations with Oklahoma Children's Theatre, a professional company housed and hosted by Oklahoma City University. OCU students are also involved with the company's entire season of professional works. OCU's Let's Pretend Players provide yet another performance opportunity for our students. This talented group tours the region with their imaginative school shows throughout the school year.

FIELDS OF STUDY

Three degrees are offered at the undergraduate level, including a Bachelor of Arts in theater, a Bachelor of Arts in theater performance, and a Bachelor of Fine Arts in technical theater. Teacher certification in the area of speech/drama/debate can be added to any of these degrees.

B.A. Theater

The critically acclaimed Department of Theater features curricular and cocurricular programs that boast academic balance, diversity, and broad educational value. In addition to meeting the needs of students who desire professional theater preparation, the liberal arts focus of the program builds the intellectual breadth, depth, and creativity necessary for success in any field.

B. A. Theater Performance

Undergraduates enrolled in the theater performance program receive more varied performance training—including on-camera acting, voice, and dance. The student's cross-training in voice and dance are provided by the Bass School of Music and Ann Lacy School of American Dance and Arts Management. Students will also take diction, history, theory, and technical theater classes—all leading to a B.A. degree.

B.F.A. Theater Design and Production

The B.F.A. in theater design and production is a new degree that offers students professional theatrical training as well as a foundation in the liberal arts. The B.F.A. provides strong foundational knowledge in the areas of scenic, lighting, and costume design, technical direction, stage management, scenic technology, and costume technology. The theater design and production program seeks to prepare students to enter the fields of theater design, theatrical production, entertainment technology, and stage management. The program also prepares students for graduate study in theater design, production, and technology. Course work provides practical "hands-on" experience in theatrical productions (ranging from theater to musicals to opera to dance) as well as the study of theory and history of theater.

The Faculty

The faculty of the Department of Theater comprises theater professionals carefully chosen for their educational, teaching, and performance backgrounds, and their genuine commitment to student success. Professors of the Department of Theater are active performers, directors, writers, and researchers. The top priority for our teachers, though, is teaching.

The faculty is personally supportive and genuinely interested in each student's program of study, training, and experiences. No classes are taught by graduate students or teaching assistants. The close interaction between professors and students is an invaluable aspect of the educational experience at OCU.

Admission Requirements

In addition to meeting the general university admission requirements, all students wishing to major in theater performance must be accepted through audition. Admission to the theater design and production program is selective. An interview, portfolio, résumé, and writing sample are required for admission. Students in the program must maintain a portfolio of their design and production work that they will present at the end of each semester. There will also be a formal annual review and assessment of each student at the end of the spring semester. B.F.A. students are expected to maintain good academic standing and have successful reviews for their production assignments. Students who do not meet these requirements could be removed from production assignments or put on probation. Continued poor performance can lead to dismissal from the degree program.

Department Prerequisite

Students for whom English is a second language will be required to achieve a score of at least 55 on the Test of Spoken English.

Credit/No-Credit

Students in the Department of Theater are required to be evaluated on the traditional grading system for all general education courses and on all courses taken in their majors. A maximum of 12 credit hours of elective courses may be taken on the credit/no-credit grading system.

General Regulations

1. A student in the Department of Theater follows the same academic and general regulations as students in other schools in the university. See the Academic Regulations section of this catalog. See the Expenses and Financial Aid section for information about payment of tuition, scholarship, and grants-in-aid.
2. Theater majors are required to audition for all department productions; if cast, they are to make themselves available for all scheduled rehearsals and performances.
3. Theater majors must have the permission of the department chair before accepting outside theatrical engagements.
4. Failure to comply with the university's and Department of Theater's academic and general regulations may result in disciplinary action and/or loss of scholarship.
5. Being an OCU theater major is a privilege granted by the university, not a right. Due to the intense activity, performance demands, and career orientation of the theater program, the university reserves the right to determine the eligibility of any student to continue majoring in theater based on considerations including, but not limited to, regular attendance of classes, focus and commitment, positive participation in departmental productions and activities, technical progress, and probable success of attaining a theater degree. Determinations and subsequent counseling, will be made by the theater faculty and administration through evaluations and observations gleaned from the regular semester auditions, performances, and classroom evaluations.

6. Private voice lessons have prerequisite levels in both singing and music fundamentals to assure success in the studio setting. Leveling will occur at the beginning of the semester. Students can level towards private voice lessons multiple times. If the student does not meet the required vocal level, they may be enrolled in Class Voice. Class Voice can be taken multiple times. Three semesters of Class Voice can also fulfill the voice requirements for the B.A. in theater performance. If the student demonstrates a deficiency in music fundamentals, they will be advised to take Music Fundamentals.

Master of Science in Nursing

Kramer School of Nursing

Marvel Williamson, Dean

Faculty: Barnes, Burton, Crane-Smith, Korvick, Loftis, Parrott, Prasse, Salmeron, Wisener

The Kramer School of Nursing (KSN) offers a traditional baccalaureate degree to prepare successful candidates for the Registered Nurse (R.N.) licensure examination, a sixteen-month Bachelor's-to-B.S.N. (Bachelor of Science in Nursing) for students who already have bachelor's degrees in other fields seeking eligibility for the R.N. licensure examination, and an accelerated option for R.N.s to obtain the Bachelor of Science in Nursing (B.S.N.). KSN also offers a Master of Science in Nursing. The Kramer School of Nursing is accredited by the National League for Nursing Accrediting Commission.

Role and Responsibility of the Oklahoma Board of Nursing

The Kramer School of Nursing is approved by the Oklahoma Board of Nursing. Graduates of this state-approved program are eligible to apply to write the National Council Licensure Examination (NCLEX) for registered nurses. Applicants for Oklahoma licensure must meet all state and federal requirements to hold an Oklahoma license to practice nursing. In addition to completing a state-approved nursing education program, requirements include submission of an application for licensure with a criminal history records search and successfully passing the licensure examination. Applicants for practical nurse licensure must also hold a high school diploma or a graduate equivalency degree (G.E.D) [59 O.S. §567.5 & 567.6]. To be granted a license, an applicant must have the legal right to reside in the United States (United States Code Chapter 8, Section 1621). The board has the right to deny a license to an individual with a history of criminal background, disciplinary action on another health-related license or certification, or judicial declaration of mental incompetence [59 O.S. §567.8]. These cases are considered on an individual basis at the time application for licensure is made, with the exception of felony charges. An individual with a felony conviction cannot apply for licensure for at least five years after completion of all sentencing terms, including probation and suspended sentences, unless a presidential or gubernatorial pardon is received [59 O.S. § 567.5 & 567.6].

Mission

The mission of Kramer School of Nursing is to provide unique educational and service opportunities that prepare professional nurses who practice with integrity, knowledge, and compassion while positively impacting the health care needs of diverse communities.

Goals

The goals of the Kramer School of Nursing are derived from our mission. The graduate of the Kramer School of Nursing will function as a professional nurse able to

- Demonstrate clinical competence in the provision of ethical and legal nursing care.
- Collaborate with and educate clients regarding self-care activities designed to promote health, restore wellness, and prevent illness.
- Utilize the nursing process as a critical-thinking framework for problem solving and making effective clinical judgments.
- Promote physical, mental, social, and spiritual health across the lifespan within diverse cultures.
- Manage, coordinate, and delegate care of clients within and in collaboration with the health care system.
- Exemplify the caring behaviors of acceptance of, respect for, and empathy with the client.

Admission to the Traditional B.S.N. Program

To declare nursing as a major, incoming freshmen and sophomores must be admitted to Oklahoma City University and not be on academic probation. OCU students changing majors to nursing also must not be on academic probation.

A student must have a 3.00 cumulative GPA or higher, a TOEFL score of 550 or higher if English is not the first language, and have junior-level nursing course prerequisites completed to progress to and enroll in junior-level nursing classes without undergoing further consideration. If more OCU students with a declared major in nursing meet these criteria than space allows, enrollment will be limited to the students possessing the highest GPAs.

If space remains, transfer students who meet the following qualifications will be allowed to enroll for traditional junior-level B.S.N. courses:

- 3.00 or higher cumulative GPA
- Junior-level nursing course prerequisites completed
- Admitted to OCU without probation

If more applicants seek entry than space will allow, admission will be granted to those possessing the highest GPAs.

If space still remains available, all students or applicants, whether already enrolled at OCU or transferring to the university, with cumulative GPAs between 2.50-2.99 and successful junior-level nursing course prerequisites, who seek to enter or progress to the junior nursing level will be ranked by GPA and granted enrollment to classes as space allows.

If there are more candidates than spaces available for any level nursing course, a waiting list ranking candidates by GPA will be maintained until the second day of classes. If spaces become available, candidates will move from waiting to active status in the order of GPA. Only students on the active list may enroll.

OCU nursing students not enrolled for fall courses by the end of spring enrollment will go onto the waiting list.

“Advanced” transfer students, i.e., those seeking admission who have already begun nursing courses at another college or university, will be considered for admission on a case-by-case basis by a faculty committee.

Although not necessarily required for admission, the following progression requirements also apply before proceeding with any clinical practicum:

- CPR certification
- Health requirements specified by each agency where clinical and practical experiences will occur, including immunizations and health tests
- Criminal background check

Note: Currently enrolled OCU students' GPAs will be based on all college courses taken at OCU. Transfer students' GPAs will be based on all college courses taken prior to entry to OCU.

To enroll in nursing courses, students must comply with the Oklahoma Board of Nursing mandate that all nursing students sign a disclosure statement regarding felonious acts and competency.

Admission to the Bachelor's-to-BSN Program

To be considered for admission to the sixteen-month Bachelor's-to-B.S.N. program, an applicant must meet the following requirements:

- Admission to Oklahoma City University
- A bachelor's degree in any field from a regionally accredited college or university*
- 3.00 or higher cumulative GPA
- TOEFL of 550 or higher if English is not the first language
- Any college chemistry course with a lab with a grade of B or better
- Any college microbiology course with a lab with a grade of B or better
- Any basic college psychology course with a grade of C or better
- Human anatomy and physiology course(s) with a grade of B or better covering the whole body and all systems; the anatomy portion must have had a lab
- Rank within the top applicants based on GPA and science course grades

* For students whose first bachelor's degrees were earned outside the United States, English must have been the language of instruction. The first bachelor's degree must also be equivalent to a bachelor's degree granted by a regionally accredited U.S. college or university. Course prerequisites to the Bachelor's-to-BSN program taken internationally must be equivalent to the corresponding courses offered at OCU. These equivalencies must be determined by a company acceptable to OCU that evaluates international transcripts.

To enroll in nursing courses, students must comply with the Oklahoma Board of Nursing mandate that all nursing students sign a disclosure statement regarding felonious acts and competency. After acceptance, students must submit proof of immunizations, CPR certification, and a criminal background check.

Admission to the RN-to-BSN Program

In order to be accepted into the R.N.-to-B.S.N. program, an applicant must have the following:

- A cumulative grade point average of 2.5 or better in previous college course work
- A score of 550 on the TOEFL if English is not the first language of the applicant
- A valid active Oklahoma Registered Nurse license
- After acceptance, students must submit proof of immunizations, CPR certification, and a criminal background check.

Eligibility Statement

Due to the strenuous nature of nursing and the practice orientation of the OCU nursing program, the school reserves the right to determine the eligibility of any student to enroll or continue in the nursing major. This decision is based on considerations including but not limited to characteristics required of a clinical nurse. Eligibility is determined by the faculty's evaluation of a student's ability to master the clinical skills necessary to complete the clinical and course objectives. These abilities are re-evaluated each semester.

Progression

To progress to each sequential semester, the student must earn grades as specified below, maintain a 3.00 GPA (2.50 for R.N.-to-B.S.N. students), or go on KSN probation, and complete prerequisites for that semester.

All students must earn a “C” or higher (2.00 on a 4.00 scale) in each nursing and transfer course and a “C-” or higher in each required support course taken at OCU used to complete the B.S.N. degree.

In nursing courses, students must receive a minimal grade of 75 percent in theory, 75 percent in clinical application, and a passing grade in clinical performance to progress to the next clinical course.

All nursing courses must be completed in sequence as listed in the degree requirements unless approved by the Faculty Organization at the Kramer School of Nursing. It is the responsibility of the student to enroll in courses as they are offered. Students may repeat only one nursing course. Failure to complete the repeated course with a grade of "C" or better within two enrollments will result in dismissal from the nursing major.

Transfer of Credit

Students in the nursing major must comply with university policy concerning transfer of credit. The Kramer School of Nursing faculty evaluates transfer of nursing credit from other nationally accredited associate and baccalaureate programs. All courses transferred into the degree major must encompass the equivalent breadth and depth of courses offered in the Kramer School of Nursing. Evaluation of students requesting transfer from another accredited nursing program will be based upon the following:

- letter of recommendation from the dean/director of the former school
- complete syllabus or course description of each nursing course completed
- request for specific course substitution and any other materials deemed relevant

A grade of less than C in any course will not be considered for transfer. Each transferred course must be approved by the dean or designee of the Kramer School of Nursing.

Grading Policy

Students enrolled in the Kramer School of Nursing will be evaluated in all courses using the grading system described in the Kramer School of Nursing Student Handbook. The school does not accept credit/no-credit grades, except for courses in physical education.

Graduation/Licensure

Students with a nursing major must comply with university policy on graduation procedures. Upon graduation, students in the traditional B.S.N. and Bachelor's-to-B.S.N. programs are eligible to apply for the NCLEX-RN examination. It is the responsibility of the student to complete the application during the last semester of the senior year. Candidates for licensure in Oklahoma who have been arrested for or convicted of any offense—including a deferred or suspended sentence—within the past five years, or have ever been convicted of a felony, or have ever had disciplinary action taken against another health-related license, or have ever been judicially declared incompetent are required to notify the Oklahoma Board of Nursing prior to being approved to write the NCLEX-RN. Failure to report such action may be a violation of the Oklahoma Nursing Practice Act.

Clinical Experience

In conjunction with the clinical experience, students must accept certain responsibilities which include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Transportation to the clinical area and to other special laboratory assignments
- Professional liability insurance with a $1,000,000/$3,000,000 limit throughout clinical course enrollments
- Evidence of selected immunizations
- Evidence of current CPR certification at the appropriate level from an approved provider.
- Additional expenses for nursing uniforms and equipment beginning at the junior level
- Background check

Master of Science in Nursing (M.S.N.)

The Kramer School of Nursing also offers a Master of Science in Nursing (M.S.N.) degree with two tracks: nursing education and nursing administration. Also offered through the M.S.N. program is an M.S.N./M.B.A. option. See the OCU Graduate Catalog for more information.

CURRICULUM

A minimum of 124 credit hours are required for the B.S.N. degree, including 60 hours in the major. The following is the science and nursing curriculum sequencing for the traditional B.S.N. nursing major (see separate listing of general education course requirements). Students should work with their advisors in enrolling to ensure that they complete the requirements by their expected graduation date.

R.N.-TO-B.S.N. OPTION

The R.N.-to-B.S.N. is available for R.N.s interested in completing their baccalaureate degrees in nursing. The 18 credit hours of nursing courses can be completed in as little as nine months. These courses are as follows:

Credit Hours:	18
NURS 4202 RN-to-BSN Professional Nursing	2
NURS 4403 RN-to-BSN Health Assessment	3
NURS 4503 RN-to-BSN Nursing Research	3
NURS 4605 RN-to-BSN Community Health Nursing	5
NURS 4805 RN-to-BSN Nursing Leadership	5

All nursing classes meet on one half day each week. No additional science or math courses are required other than those required for the diploma or associate's degree in nursing. A variety of options are available for general education courses, including independent study, directed study, Internet courses, and traditional classroom courses. The B.S.N. requires a total of 124 credit hours:

34 credit hours granted for R.N. license by OCU
30 credit hours taken at OCU (including 18 in nursing)
60 transfer credits and/or additional credits from OCU

Wimberly School of Religion and Graduate Theological Center

General Information and Policies

Religion

Religion/Religious Education

Religion/Youth Ministry

Joint Major in Religion and Philosophy

Dr. Mark Y. A. Davies, Dean
Faculty: Emler, Starkey

DESCRIPTION OF THE SCHOOL

The mission of the Wimberly School of Religion and Graduate Theological Center is to offer religious and theological studies in the United Methodist tradition that unite knowledge and vital piety, explore questions of meaning and value for the lives of all persons, and prepare persons seeking to enter a variety of Christian vocations in service to the church and community.

As a professional school, the Wimberly School of Religion and Graduate Theological Center plays the dual role of preparing persons for service in the church, while at the same time engaging the total student body in the study of religion for its own sake through the university's general education curriculum.

The curriculum of the Wimberly School of Religion and Graduate Theological Center focuses primarily on basic studies of the faith, values, and religious life that have undergirded Western civilization. The aim of these studies is an understanding of religion and how it relates to various cultures and issues in the modern world.

ACADEMIC POLICY

Credit /No-Credit

Up to 12 hours in the general education curriculum and elective courses may be taken for credit/no-credit.

Grade Point Average

A religion major must have a 2.25 GPA in religion courses to graduate, including the six hours under values and culture and Introduction to Biblical Literature.

Degree Programs

The Wimberly School of Religion offers the degrees of Bachelor of Arts in religion, Bachelor of Arts in religion with an emphasis in religious education, Bachelor of Arts in religion with an emphasis in youth ministry, Bachelor of Arts with a major in religion/philosophy, and Master of Arts in religion.

Religion Major

To major in religion at the undergraduate level has meaning and value for anyone who wants to understand religion in its several dimensions. It is particularly useful for persons planning to enter the Christian ministry, Christian education, or other church-related vocations. Studies in the major field, along with courses in English, history, philosophy, the social sciences, and various electives will give the student an excellent background for entrance into a theological seminary or for various service opportunities in the church and society.

A student majoring in religion may have no more than 36 hours in the major field, not counting the six hours under values and culture in the general education curriculum and the two hours of internship. Six hours of New Testament Greek or Biblical Hebrew may be counted as either elective or major credits.

The Internship in Religion course should be taken by all junior or senior religion majors who are employed in a ministry setting.

Religion/Religious Education

A major in religion/religious education is particularly useful to persons planning to enter the Christian ministry, Christian education, youth work, program coordination, or other church-related vocations. Studies in the major field, along with courses in English, history, philosophy, the social sciences, and various electives, will give the student an excellent background for entrance into a theological seminary or for service in the church and society.

The Internship in Religion course is required for majors in religious education. It is taken in the junior or senior year.

Religion Major/Youth Ministry

The major in religion/youth ministry is useful for students planning careers as directors or ministers with youth or planning to enter other forms of Christian ministry, such as Christian education or the pastorate.

The spiritual formation of youth as Christian disciples requires students who would serve as youth workers to be grounded in the biblical and theological understandings of the faith and be knowledgeable about the development of young people. Mature interaction with youth requires far more than the ability to present interesting programs.

Studies in the major field, along with courses in English, history, philosophy, the social sciences, and various electives, will give the student an excellent background for entrance into a theological seminary or for various service opportunities in the church and society.

United Methodist Certification in Christian Education and Certification in Youth Ministry

The religion/religious education and religion/youth ministry majors have been approved by the Section of Deacons and Diaconal Ministers, General Board of Higher Education and Ministry of the United Methodist Church. Persons graduating with a B.A. in religion/religious education or in religion/youth ministry will have fulfilled the educational requirements for certification in the respective areas. Information on additional requirements is available from the registrar of the student's Annual Conference Board of Ordained Ministry.

Religion/Philosophy

The joint major in philosophy and religion is designed primarily for those students who want to undertake ethical and religious studies within a rigorous philosophical and theological context in preparation either for advanced academic study in philosophy or religion or for professional training for the ordained ministry. The core requirements in the History of Philosophy (PHIL 3114, 3214, and 3314), the History of the Christian Church (3103 or 3113), and Contemporary Theology (REL 3423) are intended to provide students with systematic grounding in the major philosophical and theological resources of Western philosophy and the Jewish and Christian traditions. Students may then select one of four areas of emphasis (philosophical theology, ethics, religion-philosophy and culture, or biblical studies) for more concentrated study. The culminating experience for all majors is the writing of a senior thesis (PHIL 4893 or REL 4893). The thesis is a major research paper, an original work in the student's area of emphasis, prepared under close supervision of one or more members of the philosophy department and/or the School of Religion.

Honors in Religion

The designation Honors in Religion recognizes excellence in a student's work at OCU. To be eligible for Honors in Religion the student must have completed 60 semester hours at OCU and a minimum of 24 semester hours in religion in the School of Religion. The student must have a GPA of 3.50 in the religion major and a cumulative GPA of 3.25 in nonreligion courses taken at OCU.

Honors in Religion students must complete Senior Research Paper (REL 4893) with at least a grade of A-.

Minor in Religion

In addition to courses taken in the general education curriculum, students with a minor in religion will take a minimum of 15 hours in the Wimberly School of Religion. The courses will be from at least three of the following areas: Bible, church history, theology or religion, culture and ethics. Only the third semester of biblical languages may count toward the minor. At least six hours must be taken at the 3000-4000 level.

Students who wish to minor in religion must file an approved plan of study with the dean of the School of Religion prior to their enrollment for the 90th credit hour (beginning of the senior year). A student may not major and minor in the School of Religion. Religion minors must have a 2.50 GPA and take at least 50 percent of their religion courses in residence at OCU.

Honor Society in Religious Studies

Theta Alpha Kappa

Honor society in the School of Religion is open to both undergraduate and graduate students. Undergraduate students must have completed three semesters at OCU, completed 12 hours in religious studies, attained a 3.25 GPA in religion courses and at least a 3.00 GPA in their total academic program. Graduate students must have completed at least half of the residency requirements for their degree and attained a 3.50 GPA for this work.

RELIGION (B.A.)

Credit Hours: 33

At least one upper-division course (3000–4000) must be completed in each area: biblical studies; history of Christianity; and religion, ethics, and culture. A minimum of 18 hours must be taken at the 3000–4000 level in the School of Religion.

Certification Studies in the United Methodist Church

Certification is the church's recognition that a student has met the required personal and church qualifications, academic preparation, and work experience necessary to achieve and maintain professional excellence.

Certification is available in the United Methodist Church in the areas of Christian education, youth ministry, church music, parish nursing, church business management, spiritual formation, camping and retreat ministries, and communications. The School of Religion provides the academic programs related to certification in the areas of Christian education and youth ministry.

The following are ways a student can fulfill the academic requirements of certification at OCU:

1. Attain a bachelor's degree with a major in religion/religious education or religion/youth ministry. (Students continuing toward ordination as deacon must complete 8 hours of graduate credit in addition to the 27 basic theological graduate hours and other disciplinary requirements for ordination.)
2. Attain a bachelor's degree plus five graduate certification courses in the area of specialization, including a course in United Methodist doctrine and polity.
3. Attain a master's degree in the area of specialization.

The following are ways a person can fulfill the academic requirements for associate certification at OCU:

1. Complete a minimum of 24 semester hours in the area of specialization, such as the program for associate certification in youth ministry or program for associate certification in Christian education,
2. Complete a minimum of 24 semester hours in undergraduate course work, and
3. Complete five graduate certification studies in the area of specialization including a course in United Methodist doctrine and polity.

For additional information on requirements for certification, contact the registrar of the Annual Conference Board of Ordained Ministry, Section of Deacons and Diaconal Ministry.

Associate Certification Program in Youth Ministry

The associate certification in youth ministry is a program for persons over twenty-five years old who do not have a college degree and wish to receive training leading to certification in the United Methodist Church. The program is offered by colleges recognized by the United Methodist General Board of Higher Education and Ministry, Section of Deacons. Students must complete a minimum of 24 semester hours in the area of specialization.

Principles of investment and selling art, including portfolio, exhibition, and business information. (TBA)

2323 JEWELRY I 3 hours

Basic skills in metal design; sawing; soldering; forming silver, copper, and brass. Some experiments with clay, paper, fiber, and feathers. (TBA)

2343 BEGINNING CERAMICS 3 hours

Introduction to the basic skills necessary to produce a finished piece of pottery. Techniques include pinch, coil, slab work, and basic throwing on the potter's wheel. Techniques and information about glazes, clay, kilns, and tools are included. (fall)

2363 SPECIAL PROBLEMS I 3 hours

For art majors to specialize in depth with specific problems in specific media. This could include internships, special study with professionals, or workshops in specialized fields. Instructor's permission required. May be repeated with different content and section number. Topics include introduction to airbrush and history of graphic design. (TBA)

2453 DIRECTED READINGS 3 hours

A course that allows students to further expand their knowledge in specialized academically oriented subjects. Instructor's permission required prior to enrollment. (TBA)

2523 GRAPHIC DESIGN I 3 hours

Basic principles of graphic design including process, visual thinking, introduction to letter forms, and Macintosh computers. No previous art required. (spring)

2563 ART HISTORY II 3 hours

This course is primarily for students who want an emphasis in specialized areas of art history beyond the two survey courses. An in-depth study for persons interested in this area or who want to attend graduate school. May be repeated with a different content and section number. (TBA)

2623 GRAPHIC DESIGN II 3 hours

A continuation of Graphic Design I. This class stresses sensitivity to typography and the art of the letterform as communication. It also studies symbols and logos as visual language. Macintosh computers are used. Prerequisite: ART 2523. (fall)

2643 GRAPHIC DESIGN III 3 hours

This advanced class focuses on solving comprehensive graphic design problems. Included are both traditional methods and Mac-based solutions. Preparing projects for printing or production is stressed. Prerequisite: ART 2623. (spring)

2663 ART HISTORY III 3 hours

A course for students who want an emphasis in specialized areas of art history beyond the two art history survey courses. Instruction at the junior level. May be repeated with different content and section number.

2763 SPECIAL PROBLEMS II 3 hours

A course that allows students to specialize in depth with technical and theoretical problems and processes. This may include directed readings, seminars, classroom and studio instruction, internships, and special study with professionals or workshops in specialized fields. May be repeated with different content and section number. Topics include illustration and basic Macintosh. (TBA)

2863 ARTS AND CRAFTS 3 hours

Application of techniques, materials, and projects for elementary and high school teaching. A variety of media and craft projects are suggested or available for either non-teachers or prospective teachers. This class is for beginners through intermediate.

2963 PROFESSIONAL ARTS I 3 hours

This course allows students to pursue the study of specialized areas such as gallery techniques, professional screen-printing, mural painting, airbrush, or other areas by internship or classroom instruction. May be repeated with different content and section number. Topics include experimental imaging with PhotoShop and Native American art.

3063 PROFESSIONAL ARTS II 3 hours

A continuation of ART 2963. May be repeated with different content and section number. Topics include gallery techniques, packaging design, and the art museum. (TBA)

3123 CLAY SCULPTURE/FIGURE AND PORTRAITURE 3 hours

Modeling and sculpting in clay. Subject matter includes portrait, figure, and stylization in sculpture. Prerequisite: ART 1523. (TBA)

- 3163 ART TOPICS 3 hours
Similar to ART 2963 but a higher-level class that allows the highly motivated student a chance to study in a specialized area on an in-depth basis. May be repeated with different content and section number. Topics include design tools/technological process, collage, business practices/graphic design, and studio art. (TBA)
- 3223 SCULPTURE: ABSTRACT FORMS 3 hours
Application of clay, plaster, etc., modeling, employing subtractive and construction methods. Learning to abstract clay forms including portrait, figure, and still life. Prerequisite: ART 1523. (TBA)
- 3253 DIRECTED READINGS/ART HISTORY 3 hours
Systematic study of a particular area of art history through directed readings and tutorials. (TBA)
- 3263 ART HISTORY IV 3 hours
This course is for students who want an emphasis in specialized areas of art history beyond the two art history survey courses. May be repeated with different content and section number. (TBA)
- 3323 ADVANCED FIGURE DRAWING III 3 hours
This is not a classroom course but is approached as an independent study. Required for students working toward the B.F.A. degree. Instructor's permission required. Prerequisites: ART 2123 and ART 2223.
- 3363 SPECIAL TOPICS/ART HISTORY I 3 hours
In-depth study in areas of special interest that may involve student's emphasis. Junior-level commitment and achievement are expected in both student research and presentation. May be repeated with different content and section number. (TBA)
- 3423 JEWELRY II 3 hours
A continuation of Jewelry I with further instruction in advanced techniques in metal craft. Prerequisite: ART 2243 or ART 2323. (TBA)
- 3463 PRINTMAKING 3 hours
Students choose from the four main printmaking media. May be repeated with different content and section number. (fall)
- 3563 SPECIAL PROBLEMS III 3 hours
The same as ART 2763 but requires greater student involvement in refinement of techniques and processes. Junior-level or above consistency is expected of the student. May be repeated with different content and section number. Topics include publishing and editorial design and intermediate typography. (TBA)
- 3623 BEGINNING PAINTING I 3 hours
Introduction to oil, acrylic, or watercolor and their various techniques and processes. (spring)
- 3653 GRAPHIC DESIGN IV 3 hours
For all graphic design majors, this advanced class focuses on comprehensive, in-depth graphic design problems. Three major projects (2D and 3D), including a group project, are covered. This course should provide the student with some significant portfolio pieces of the highest quality. Prerequisite: ART 2643. May include service learning component. (fall)
- 3663 SPECIAL TOPICS I 3 hours
In-depth study in areas of special interest, including internships or seminars that may involve an individual's emphasis. Junior-level commitment and achievement are expected in both student research and presentation. May be repeated with different content and section number. Topics include internship, seminar, studio, and studio arts. (TBA)
- 3723 PAINTING II 3 hours
Continuation of ART 3623 stressing in-depth concentration in oils, acrylics, and mixed media. Prerequisite: ART 3623. (TBA)
- 3763-6 SPECIAL TOPICS II 3-6 hours
Investigation of a chosen or assigned art area within the advanced student's special field. Studio or study at least six hours per week. In certain cases contracts may be agreed to by the student and instructor. May be repeated with different content and section number. Topics include color concept and theory, photography as an art form, design for electronic media, and exhibit design. (TBA)
- 3823 BEGINNING CERAMICS/RAKU I 3 hours
For beginning and intermediate students. Designed to teach basic ceramic and raku techniques. Glaze, nonglaze, and patina instruction included. Techniques in pinch, coil, slab work, and throwing on the potter's wheel. Electric and gas kiln firing methods demonstrated. (spring)
- 3863 SPECIAL PROBLEMS IV 3 hours
For art majors to specialize in depth with specific problems in specific media. This could include gallery preparation courses, internships, special study with professionals, or workshops in specialized fields. Instructor's permission required. May be repeated with different content and section number. Topics include desktop publishing. (TBA)
- 3883 SPECIAL PROBLEMS V/INTERNSHIP 3 hours
Internship in art area of special interest. Required in certain art majors. Instructor's permission required. (TBA)
- 3923 CERAMICS/RAKU II 3 hours
Further in-depth emphasis on glazing and technique. Prerequisite: ART 2343 or ART 3823. (TBA)
- 4063-6 ADVANCED STUDY I 3-6 hours
Emphasis on special problems related to areas of special interest including academic, studio, or internships and their numerous techniques and solution possibilities. Instructor's permission required. May be repeated with different content and section number. Topics include water media, graphic design studio, portfolio. (TBA)
- 4163 SPECIAL TOPICS III 3 hours
Advanced study in areas of special interest: a thorough involvement in specific subject is confined to definite areas of the student's emphasis. Senior-level commitment and achievement are expected in both research and presentation. Can be repeated with different content and section number. Topics include advanced graphic computer and studio. (TBA)
- 4183 ADVANCED STUDY/INTERNSHIP 3 hours
Required in certain art majors. Students are placed in professional areas of their specific emphasis to work as if employed. Instructor's permission required. (TBA)
- 4263 SPECIAL TOPICS/ART HISTORY II 3 hours
Advanced study in areas of special interest with a thorough involvement in specific art history subjects. Senior-level commitment and achievement are expected in both student research and presentation. Can be repeated with different content and section number. (TBA)
- 4353-6 ADVANCED STUDIO I 3-6 hours
Emphasis on special problems related to areas of special interest including academic, studio, or internships and their numerous techniques and solution possibilities. Instructor's permission required. Can be repeated with different content and section number. Topics include advanced typography. (TBA)

4363 ADVANCED STUDY/ART HISTORY I 3 hours
Advanced study in a chosen or assigned art history area of special interest confined to specific predetermined requirements. May be repeated with different content and section number. (TBA)

4463-6 ADVANCED STUDIO II 3-6 hours
Instructor's permission required prior to enrollment. Involves producing art pieces for a senior exhibit. Required for studio and graphic design majors. (TBA)

4563 ADVANCED STUDIO 3 hours
Instructor's permission required prior to enrollment. Required for studio, graphic design, and photography majors. Topics include senior exhibit, senior capstone, and advanced studio/senior exhibit. (TBA)

4653-6 PROFESSIONAL ARTS III/TECHNIQUE 3-6 hours
Gallery policy and procedures of display, organization, public relations, documentation, research, and graphic preparations. (TBA)

4663 ADVANCED STUDY/ART HISTORY II 3 hours
May be repeated with different content and section number. Instructor's permission required. (See ART 4363). (TBA)

4793-6 INDEPENDENT STUDY 3-6 hours
Advanced study in areas of special interest with a thorough involvement in specific subjects. Senior-level commitment and achievement are expected in both student research and presentation. Instructor's permission required. May be repeated with different content and section number. (TBA)

ARTS MANAGEMENT (AMGT)

1743 INTRODUCTION TO ENTERTAINMENT BUSINESS I 3 hours

1753 INTRODUCTION TO ENTERTAINMENT BUSINESS II 3 hours

Two survey courses offered sequentially, examining the components of the entertainment industry in today's ever-changing world, with special attention given to business management in for-profit and nonprofit entertainment corporations, special event coordination, facility management, multimedia management, recreation management, and retail and fashion presentation and marketing productions. Students explore the challenges facing principal players such as administrators, producers, publicists, managers, agents, distributors, technicians, and talent. Students are exposed to professional fundamentals of the industry's varied corporate cultures, comportment, proposal preparation, written and oral presentation skills, and managing production meetings. The courses include investigation of the professional employment opportunities in the management side of the industry. Class discussion focuses on the impact of marketing, consumer behavior, media savvy, the law, and the Internet on an increasingly global industry.

2713 INTRODUCTION TO ENTERTAINMENT TECHNOLOGY FOR ARTS MANAGERS 3 hours

An introductory course to foster an understanding and appreciation of the mechanics and processes involved in creating and producing an entertainment project. Attention is given to how the technical aspects of a production in the entertainment industry evolve from initial conception to final presentation. Students learn how producers and managers communicate effectively with directors, designers, and technicians working in the entertainment industry. Guidelines and techniques for creating and managing budgets pertaining to the technical aspects of an entertainment project are examined. Sophomore standing required. (spring)

3393 DANCE STUDIO MANAGEMENT 3 hours

This is a course in how to establish, operate, and build a successful dance studio. All aspects of studio management are covered, including site location, physical plant requirements, classes to be offered, development of teaching staff, promotion, office management, and recitals. Junior standing required. (spring)

3701 ARTS MANAGEMENT COSTUME LAB 1 hour

This course covers the techniques of constructing, maintaining, and managing costumes for a professional performing arts company.

3703 STAGE MANAGEMENT AND PRODUCTION 3 hours

A comprehensive examination of stage management for a broad range of theater and entertainment events, examining the stage manager's backstage and front-of-house responsibilities from preproduction planning through postproduction. Students gain an understanding of the synergistic nature of production elements: direction, lighting, sound, sets, props, costumes, ticket office, and front-of-house management. Course topics include auditions, event planning, master calendars and scheduling, production meetings, running effective rehearsals, preparing the space, taking blocking notation, giving cues, making rehearsal reports, coordinating between director and division heads, preparing for rehearsals, running performances, and understanding human behavior as it relates to show production. The course includes a lab component consisting of show production assignments coordinated through the instructor. Junior standing required.

3713 MANAGEMENT OF NONPROFIT ARTS ORGANIZATIONS 3 hours

An introduction to the management of nonprofit performing arts organizations from the perspective of the general manager. The course covers organizational structure, boards of directors, staffing, budgeting, finance, marketing, fund-raising, and operations. Junior standing required. (fall)

3723 TOURING PERFORMING ARTS ORGANIZATIONS 3 hours

An introduction to the key concepts and techniques needed by a performing arts tour manager for planning, budgeting, marketing, and implementing a tour by a performing arts organization. Junior standing required. (fall)

3733 DEVELOPMENT AND FUND-RAISING 3 hours

An examination of the theory, practice, and techniques for raising funds and financial support for nonprofit, tax-exempt organizations such as orchestras, dance companies, opera companies, and theaters. (spring)

3742 CONTRACTS AND MANAGEMENT FOR PERFORMERS/ARTS MANAGERS 2 hours

For the student planning a professional performance career, this course is designed to provide basic but important information about contract law for performers, organizational structures in the performing arts, performing arts unions, artist agents and managers, unemployment insurance, and workers' compensation. Junior standing required. (performers section in fall; arts managers section in spring.)

3753 ENTERTAINMENT MARKETING 3 hours
The principles of marketing, advertising, and public relations are applied to promoting shows, concerts, and other performing arts events, organizations, and talent in order to achieve specific goals set by the arts or artist manager. Junior standing required. (spring)

3763 NONPROFIT ACCOUNTING FOR THE ARTS 3 hours
The principles of managerial accounting and finance applied to the not-for-profit arts environment. Junior standing required. (spring)

3793 DANCE COMPANY MANAGEMENT 3 hours
An examination of dance company management and the issues confronting dance managers. General arts management knowledge and techniques are specifically applied to managing professional dance companies. The course focuses on issues of concern to general managers, company managers, and stage managers for dance companies and dance-intense stage productions. Prerequisite: AMGT 3713. (spring)

4701 COMPUTERS FOR ARTS MANAGERS 1 hour
A class designed to advance performing arts managers' knowledge of and ability to apply the use of personal computers to performing arts management tasks. The course focuses on the uses of both common software as specifically applied to the performing arts as well as entertainment industry-specific software including, but not limited to, box office management, event coordination and planning, and the design and execution of entertainment technology. (spring)

This is a course in how to establish, operate, and build a successful dance studio. All aspects of studio management are covered, including site location, physical plant requirements, classes to be offered, development of teaching staff, promotion, office management, and recitals. Junior standing required. For dance pedagogy students only. (spring)

4793 PRESENTING AND SPONSORING PERFORMANCES 3 hours
Capstone course for entertainment business and dance management majors. An examination of the issues and considerations required to produce, sponsor, or present performances for performing arts series, festivals, and residencies. The course covers all aspects of presenting, including organizational structure, planning programming, budgeting, financing, marketing, and implementing sponsored performances. Senior standing required. (spring)

ASIAN STUDIES (ASTD)

1413 SURVEY OF ASIAN HISTORY AND POLITICS 3 hours
A survey course reviewing the history of Pacific Basin countries since the nineteenth century and the beginning of their interaction with the West, focusing on politics, history, culture, philosophy, and economics. Cross-listed HIST 1413. (TBA)

2103 PERSPECTIVES ON ASIAN CULTURE 3 hours
An introduction to the dynamics of East Asian and Southeast Asian cultural and communication patterns, including elements such as the historical and philosophical roots, the role of the family, interpersonal relationships, and ethical and moral obligations. (TBA)

3013 INTRODUCTION TO CHINESE LITERATURE AND CULTURE 3 hours
An overview of the literature of China in English translation.

3103 CHINESE HISTORY TO 1911 3 hours
Chinese history from prehistory to the Republican revolution of 1911. Cross-listed HIST 3103. (TBA)

3113 MODERN CHINA 3 hours
Chinese politics, economics, and history from the end of the Qing dynasty, including the Chinese economic reform movement and beyond. Cross-listed POLS 3113. (fall, odd)

3203 JAPANESE HISTORY TO THE TWENTIETH CENTURY 3 hours
The history, culture, and philosophy of Japan from the Nara period to the twentieth century. Cross-listed HIST 3203. (TBA)

3213 MODERN JAPAN 3 hours
Traces the history of Japan from 1867 to the present, including the growth and ruin of Japan as a military power and rebirth as an economic giant. Cross-listed POLS 3213. (TBA).

3313 MODERN SOUTHEAST ASIA 3 hours
An introduction to the history, politics, and economics of modern Southeast Asia, including Singapore, Indonesia, Vietnam, Burma, Laos, Cambodia, Myanmar, and Malaysia. Cross-listed HIST 3313. (TBA)

4163 ASIAN RELIGIONS AND PHILOSOPHY 3 hours
Variable topic course examining Asian religious and philosophical traditions. Topics include Confucianism, Taoism, Shinto, Buddhism, etc. The course explores the connections between religious and philosophical traditions and the development of politics, culture, and history of East and Southeast Asia. (TBA)

4263 TOPICS IN ASIAN STUDIES 3 hours
Variable topics in Asian Studies. (TBA)

4363SA STUDY ABROAD (PRC, Taiwan, Japan, HK) 3 hours
Study abroad courses to Asia. Content/times vary. (TBA)

BIOLOGY (BIOL)

1003 SCIENCE, TECHNOLOGY, AND SOCIETY 3 hours
This course focuses on the acquisition and meaning of scientific data leading to the development and support of hypotheses and theories. The use of scientific knowledge in selected areas is investigated with regard to its application to technology, human well-being, and related ethical problems. Topics related to pseudoscience and the abuse of science and technology are also discussed.

1014 SELECTED TOPICS IN BIOLOGY 4 hours
Themes to be developed will change. The course is designed for students who have little or no training in science and does not count as a course toward a biology major. Three hours lecture and three hours laboratory each week. (TBA)

1101 ORIENTATION TO BIOLOGY 1 hour
A weekly class meeting required for all new biology majors. The requirements for the major, schedule planning, and advisement procedures are introduced. On- and off-campus resources pertinent to the biology major are introduced, and practice in their acquisition and utilization are conducted. Career information, including immediate job entry opportunities and requirements for post-baccalaureate degree; programs (professional and graduate) are presented. Students initiate development of their portfolios, which will include specified examinations and other written assignments such as laboratory reports, and a list of objectives to be satisfied prior to graduation. (fall)

1114 SELECTED CONCEPTS IN BIOLOGY 4 hours
Concepts in biology, physiology, ecology, and evolution are examined in class and laboratory. The course is designed for students who have little or no training in science and does not count as a course toward a biology major. Three hours lecture and three hours laboratory each week. (TBA)

1214 FUNDAMENTALS OF BIOLOGY 4 hours
A survey course designed to examine the central concepts of modern biological thought and the evidence that provides support for these concepts. This course is a prerequisite for many advanced biology courses and is for majors only. Three hours lecture/discussion and three hours laboratory each week. (fall)

1314 ENVIRONMENTAL SCIENCE 4 hours
This course emphasizes biological aspects of the environment, including the effect of humans on other organisms (and vice versa), and their role in biological ecosystems. This course is designed for students who have little or no training in science and does count as a course toward a biology major. Three hours lecture and three hours laboratory each week. (TBA)

2003, HUMAN ANATOMY AND
2103 PHYSIOLOGY I AND II 3, 3 hours
Theoretical systematic study of the structure and function of the human body. BIOL 2003 initially examines the cellular and tissue structure and function of the human body. Thereafter, an in-depth study of the skeletal, muscular, nervous, and endocrine systems ensues. BIOL 2103 focuses on the circulatory, excretory, digestive, immunological, and reproductive system of the human body. Prerequisite or corequisite: CHEM 1025 or equivalent or permission of instructor. (I offered spring; II offered fall).

2141 PHYSIOLOGY LABORATORY I and II 1, 1 hour
Taught concurrently with Biology 2003, 2103. Concurrent enrollment recommended but not required. (I offered spring; II offered fall.)

2214 GENERAL BOTANY 4 hours
This is a survey course designed to examine plant structure and function. The emphasis is on mechanisms of plant adaptation to the environment. The laboratory involves hands-on activities related to concepts and principles discussed in lecture. Three hours of lecture/discussion and three hours of laboratory each week. Prerequisite: BIOL 1214. (spring)

2314 INTRODUCTORY MICROBIOLOGY 4 hours
This course, intended for nursing majors and students who plan to enter allied health fields, is an introduction to the structural and functional characteristics of microbes with a focus on bacteria and viruses. The importance of microbes to human health and welfare is a principle perspective in the architecture of this course. The laboratory component is devoted to the acquisition of skills required in the study of bacteria. Three hours of lecture/discussion and three hours of laboratory each week. Prerequisites: CHEM 1025 or equivalent and BIOL 2003 or equivalent, or permission of the instructor. (spring)

2414 GENERAL ZOOLOGY 4 hours
This course is a study of animal structure and function with an emphasis on animal diversity and mechanisms of adaptation to the environment. Most laboratory sessions include dissection of preserved specimens of the animals discussed in lecture. Three hours of lecture/discussion and three hours of laboratory each week. Prerequisites: BIOL 1214 or equivalent, or BIOL 2003, 2041, 2013, and 2141, or permission of instructor. (spring)

2615 COMPARATIVE ANATOMY 5 hours
Morphology of the organ systems in animals with special emphasis on vertebrates, providing a basis for the structure and developmental history of the human body. Detailed dissections of selected vertebrates. Three hours of lecture and two three-hour laboratories each week. Prerequisite: BIOL 1214 or equivalent. (fall, odd)

2852 MEDICAL VOCABULARY 2 hours
This course is designed for students who are in the biomedical track or premedicine track. The course focuses exclusively on terminology required for medical practitioners.

3003 INTRODUCTORY GENETICS 3 hours
This course deals with the fundamental principles and mechanisms of genetics; including, structure and function of nucleic acids; mechanisms of inheritance and genetic change; similarities and differences in viral, prokaryotic, and eukaryotic systems; applications of statistics and other analytical tools to understanding the mechanisms of genetics; and an introduction to population genetics and related questions in molecular evolution. Three hours of lecture/discussion each week. Prerequisite: BIOL 1214 or equivalent and a college chemistry course, or permission of instructor. (fall)

3014 INVERTEBRATE ZOOLOGY 4 hours
A study of the structure and function of invertebrate groups. Three hours of lecture and three hours of laboratory each week. Prerequisite: BIOL 1214 and BIOL 2414 or permission of instructor.

3041 INTRODUCTORY GENETICS
LABORATORY 1 hour
Laboratory investigations in Mendelian and non-Mendelian inheritance using experimental systems such as bacteria, bacteriophage, Drosophila, and Arabidopsis, and an introduction to techniques and tools used in the molecular genetics laboratory, that may include DNA isolation and manipulation, electrophoresis, PCR, and cloning techniques. Three hours of laboratory each week. Prerequisites: BIOL 3003 or concurrent enrollment or permission of instructor. (fall)

2851-8, DIRECTED STUDY IN BIOLOGY 1-8 hours
3851-8, 4851-8
Level designed for individual or small-group study within specialized areas of biological science. Under appropriate faculty guidance available, study opportunities range from specialized course work (i.e., courses not listed in the catalog) and seminars or colloquia to participation in a specific research project. The course level shown on enrollment reflects the level of complexity inherent in the study opportunity. (TBA)

3113 HISTOLOGY 3 hours
This course is a study of the anatomical features of cells, tissues, and organs. Emphasis is placed on observations at the light microscopic level. One hour of lecture and three hours of laboratory each week. Prerequisite: BIOL 1214 and BIOL 2414 or permission of instructor.

3114 GENERAL MICROBIOLOGY 4 hours
This course, intended for majors in biology and related fields, focuses on the structure and physiology of microorganisms, with an emphasis on bacteria. The skills required to handle and study bacteria are acquired in the lab portion of the course. Three hours of lecture/discussion and three hours of laboratory per week. Prerequisites: BIOL 1214 or equivalent and CHEM 1104 or equivalent, or permission of instructor. (fall)

3214 COMPARATIVE ANATOMY 4 hours

Morphology of the organ systems in animals with special emphasis on vertebrates, providing a basis for the structural and developmental history of humans and other animals. Detailed dissection of selected vertebrates. Three hours lecture/discussion and three hours of laboratory each week. Prerequisites: BIOL 1214 and either BIOL 2414 or BIOL 2003, 2041, 2013, and 2141, or permission of instructor. (TBA)

3314 PRINCIPLES OF ECOLOGY 4 hours

This course is designed for biology majors. Emphasis is placed on ecological theory in an effort to explain the development and maintenance of natural ecosystems. Field trips are included. Three hours lecture and three hours laboratory each week. Prerequisite BIOL 1214 or equivalent. (fall, odd)

3414 COMPARATIVE PHYSIOLOGY 4 hours

The integration of neural, hormonal, nutritional, circulatory, and excretory functions of the animal as related to cell-origin interrelationships. Laboratory exercises include instrumentation and techniques required for the study of animal systems. Three hours lecture/discussion and three hours of laboratory each week. Prerequisites: BIOL 1214 and either BIOL 2414 or BIOL 2003, 2041, 2013, and 2141, or permission of instructor. (TBA)

3514 CELL BIOLOGY 4 hours

Principles of cellular activity, molecular structure and protoplasm, surface and osmotic phenomena, permeability, energy exchange mechanisms, and the biochemistry of cellular replication. Three hours lecture and three hours laboratory each week. Prerequisite: BIOL 1214 or permission of instructor. (spring, even)

3714 GENERAL BIOCHEMISTRY 4 hours

See CHEM 3714.

3814 DEVELOPMENTAL BIOLOGY 4 hours

An experimental and descriptive approach toward understanding embryological development. An introduction to gametogenesis, fertilization, differentiation, growth, regeneration, and asexual reproduction. Three hours lecture and three hours lab per week. Prerequisite: BIOL 1214 or equivalent. (fall, even)

3851-8 DIRECTED STUDY 1-8 hours

3914 PLANT SYSTEMATICS 4 hours

This course emphasizes the origin and evolutionary patterns of vascular plants, with an emphasis on flowering plants. The importance of various techniques used in the development of classification schemes, including those related to computer analyses and molecular biology, are discussed. Reproductive biology of flowering plants constitute a significant component of this course. The laboratory emphasizes the flora of Oklahoma. The course consists of three hours of lecture and three hours of lab per week. Prerequisite: BIOL 2203 and BIOL 2241.

4114 ANIMAL BEHAVIOR 4 hours

A comparative study of the behavior of animals in their natural environments. Emphasis is placed on the ecological and evolutionary significance of the behavior of lower vertebrates and invertebrates. Two hours lecture discussion and two three-hour laboratory periods each week. Prerequisite: BIOL 1214 or permission of instructor. (TBA)

4214 MOLECULAR BIOLOGY 4 hours

This course focuses on biologic processes at the molecular level, including in-depth study of nucleic acids, gene organization, and gene expression. Modern recombinant DNA technology and approaches are addressed throughout the course. Three hours of lecture and three hours of laboratory each week. Prerequisite: Junior or senior standing or permission of instructor.

4314 PATHOGENIC MICROBIOLOGY AND IMMUNOLOGY 4 hours

This course addresses the mechanisms by which microorganisms, especially bacteria, cause disease. The human immune responses to invasive microorganisms also will be covered. Three hours of lecture/discussion and three hours of laboratory per week. Prerequisites: BIOL 3114 and junior or senior standing or permission of instructor. (TBA)

4403 ADVANCED BIOCHEMISTRY 3 hours

See CHEM 4403.

4442 LABORATORY TECHNIQUES IN BIOCHEMISTRY 2 hours

See CHEM 4442.

4481-8 INTERNSHIP 1-8 hours

Structured and evaluated experiential learning in a biology-related organization. Number of credit hours and location arranged through the Department of Biology. Prerequisite: Junior or senior standing and permission of the department chair. (TBA)

4502 BIOLOGY CAPSTONE 2 hours

This course fulfills the general education capstone requirement for all biology majors. The student completes a capstone project that requires conducting laboratory or library research on an approved question drawn from the field of biology. Course requirements include a written paper, which draws on the primary research literature in addressing the research question and an oral presentation of the capstone project to the department. Students are required to complete the development of their portfolios. Prerequisite: senior standing.

4991-8 RESEARCH 1-8 hours

Research projects are conducted under appropriate faculty guidance. By permission of department chair only. (TBA)

CHEMISTRY (CHEM)

1003 SCIENCE, TECHNOLOGY, AND SOCIETY 3 hours

This course focuses on the acquisition and meaning of scientific data leading to the development and support of hypotheses and theories. The use of scientific knowledge in selected areas is investigated with regard to its application to technology, human well-being, and related ethical problems. Topics related to pseudoscience and the abuse of science and technology are also discussed.

1014 CHEMISTRY 4 hours

A course for the nonscience major that includes the basic vocabulary and concepts of chemistry and the acquisition of chemical knowledge and applications of chemistry. Three hours of lecture/discussion plus three hours of laboratory each week. This course satisfies the general education laboratory science requirement.

1025 PRINCIPLES OF CHEMISTRY 5 hours

A survey course in chemistry designed to meet the needs of students majoring in education, exercise science, and nursing.

Four hours of lecture/discussion plus three hours of laboratory per week. This course satisfies the general education laboratory science requirement.

1104 GENERAL CHEMISTRY I 4 hours

This is the beginning chemistry course for students majoring in chemistry or other areas of science. It examines the structure and chemical properties of matter. Theories of bonding, chemical nomenclature, the stoichiometry of reactions, chemical equations, and thermochemistry are included. Four hours of lecture and discussion each week. Prerequisite: two years of high school algebra or equivalent. The combination of this course and CHEM 1141 satisfies the general education laboratory science requirement. (fall)

1141 GENERAL CHEMISTRY I LABORATORY 1 hour

An introduction to measurements and operations in the chemistry laboratory. Experiments in this lab follow the course content of CHEM 1104. Three hours of laboratory each week. Prerequisite: CHEM 1104 or its equivalent (may be taken concurrently with CHEM 1104). The combination of this course and CHEM 1104 satisfies the general education laboratory science requirement. (fall)

1204 GENERAL CHEMISTRY II 4 hours

A continuation of CHEM 1104. Examines features unique to solids, liquids, gases, and solutions. Applies concepts of chemical kinetics, equilibrium, thermodynamics, and electrochemistry. Four hours of lecture/discussion each week. Prerequisite: CHEM 1104 or Advanced Placement. (spring)

1241 GENERAL CHEMISTRY II LABORATORY 1 hour

Experiments in this lab follow the course content of CHEM 1204. Three hours of laboratory each week. Prerequisite: CHEM 1204 (may be taken concurrently with CHEM 1204.) (spring)

2303 QUANTITATIVE ANALYSIS 3 hours

Principles of volumetric, gravimetric, and instrumental methods of quantitative analysis. Introduction to statistical evaluation of data. Three hours of lecture/discussion each week. Prerequisite: CHEM 1204 or Advanced Placement. (fall, odd)

2342 QUANTITATIVE ANALYSIS LABORATORY 2 hours

Laboratory experiments utilizing the techniques of volumetric, gravimetric, and instrumental methods of quantitative analysis. Six hours of laboratory each week. Prerequisite: CHEM 1241. Corequisite: CHEM 2303.

2403 NUTRITION 3 hours

Basic principles of nutrition including the physiologic role of nutrients in the body, the psychosocial aspects of eating, and nutritional needs at various stages in the life cycle. Three hours of lecture each week. This course does not count toward the majors in science and chemistry. Prerequisite: CHEM 1204 or CHEM 1025. Cross-listed KES 2403, NURS 2403. (fall)

3103 ORGANIC CHEMISTRY I 3 hours

The chemistry of carbon compounds with special emphasis on reaction mechanisms and synthesis. Three hours of lecture/discussion each week. Prerequisite: CHEM 1204 or Advanced Placement. (fall)

3141 ORGANIC CHEMISTRY LABORATORY I 1 hour

3203 ORGANIC CHEMISTRY II 3 hours

A continuation of CHEM 3103. Three hours of lecture/discussion each week. Prerequisite: CHEM 3103 or equivalent. (spring)

3242 ORGANIC CHEMISTRY LABORATORY 2 hours

The synthesis of organic compounds and the application of qualitative analytical techniques in organic chemistry. Six hours of laboratory each week. Prerequisite: CHEM 1241 and CHEM 3203 (may be taken concurrently with CHEM 3203). (spring)

3503 PHYSICAL CHEMISTRY I 3 hours

The physical properties of chemical systems, including a study of fundamental physical laws, thermodynamics, and molecular structure. Three hours of lecture and discussion each week. Prerequisites: CHEM 1204, MATH 2004 and either PHYS 1603 or PHYS 2204. (fall, even)

3541 PHYSICAL CHEMISTRY LABORATORY 1 hour

Experiments designed to illustrate the physical chemistry concepts discussed in CHEM 3503 with special emphasis on data analysis and report writing. Three hours of laboratory each week. Prerequisite: CHEM 3503 (may be taken concurrently). (fall, even)

3603 PHYSICAL CHEMISTRY II 3 hours

A continuation of CHEM 3503. Three hours of lecture and discussion each week. Prerequisite: CHEM 3503. (spring, odd)

3714 GENERAL BIOCHEMISTRY 4 hours

Chemical properties and metabolism of constituents of living organisms. Three hours of lecture/discussion and three hours of laboratory each week. Prerequisite: CHEM 3103 or equivalent. Cross-listed BIOL 3714. (fall)

4162-4 SPECIAL TOPICS IN CHEMISTRY 2-4 hours

Exploration of new fields of chemistry. Prerequisite: advanced standing and consent of the instructor. (TBA)

4403 ADVANCED BIOCHEMISTRY 3 hours

Detailed analysis of selected areas of intermediary metabolism with an introduction to enzyme and hormone research. Three hours of lecture/discussion each week. Prerequisite: CHEM 3714 or BIOL 3714. Cross-listed BIOL 4403. (spring)

4442 LABORATORY TECHNIQUES IN BIOCHEMISTRY 2 hours

Introduction to techniques used in biochemical research with emphasis on experimental design, evaluation, and interpretation of data. Six hours of laboratory each week. Prerequisite: CHEM 3714 or BIOL 3714 (may be taken concurrently). Cross-listed BIOL 4442. (TBA)

4862 CHEMISTRY CAPSTONE 2 hours

This course fulfills the general education capstone requirement for all chemistry and biochemistry majors. Each student will conduct a capstone project involving library research on an approved topic in chemistry or biochemistry. Course requirements include a research paper and an oral presentation.

4991-6 CHEMISTRY RESEARCH 1-6 hours

Research on specific, current problems in chemistry. Three to eighteen hours of laboratory each week. Prerequisite: Advanced standing and consent of instructor. (TBA)

CHINESE (CHIN)

1013 INTRODUCTION TO CHINESE LANGUAGE AND CULTURE 3 hours

This course provides students with basic skills in speaking and understanding Chinese language. Attention is given to Chinese customs, mannerisms, and traditions. (fall)

1113 BEGINNING CHINESE I 3 hours
Emphasis on listening and speaking. Students learn "survival" Chinese and have mastery of "classroom" language. Three hundred common Chinese characters are introduced for beginning reading skills.

1213 BEGINNING CHINESE II 3 hours
Students learn basic conversational skills on an informed basis. Students will be able to identify four hundred additional Chinese characters.

2113 INTERMEDIATE CHINESE I 3 hours
Conversation skills are expanded to include nonpersonal items such as world affairs, geography, and international business. Four hundred Chinese characters are included.

2213 INTERMEDIATE CHINESE II 3 hours
Further development of students' abilities to speak and write Chinese. Historical, cultural, and contemporary Chinese issues are discussed in Chinese to facilitate the development of more sophisticated conversational skills.

2513 BUSINESS CHINESE 3 hours
This course presents a practical introduction to basic Chinese business vocabulary and phrases and terms useful in travel for persons interested in doing business in China and Taiwan. Basic Chinese etiquette, cultural background, and business ethics are addressed. (TBA)

3013 INTRODUCTION TO CHINESE LITERATURE AND CULTURE 3 hours
This course involves an overview of the literature of China in English translation, with additional focus on Chinese culture as necessary for greater understanding of its literature. Emphasis is placed on the masterpieces of Chinese literature, primarily from Tang Dynasty poetry to the modern Chinese novel. The course is primarily a reading course. (spring)

3113 ADVANCED CHINESE I 3 hours

3213 ADVANCED CHINESE II 3 hours

4851-3 DIRECTED READING 1-3 hours

COMPUTER SCIENCE (CSCI)

1003 INTRODUCTION TO PROGRAMMING 3 hours
An introduction to computation and functions of computer systems, including an introduction to programming. This course may serve as a first course in computer science for students without previous computer experience or who are unsure of interest or aptitude. Entering and running programs are required. Two hours of lecture and two hours of laboratory each week. Mathematics at the level of first-year high school algebra is presumed.

1113 COMPUTER CONCEPTS AND APPLICATIONS 3 hours
An introduction to computer science concepts and the use of selected commercial software. A general education core course. Not required of computer science majors.

1514 ALGORITHM DESIGN AND PROGRAMMING I 4 hours
A study of the principles and techniques of algorithm development and computer programming. The emphasis is on problem-solving techniques and the logic of program structure. This course may serve as a first course in computer science for students with programming experience. Otherwise, the course should follow CSCI 1003. Encoding, entering, and running programs comprise a significant part of the course. Three hours of lecture and two hours of laboratory each week. Mathematics at the level of MATH 1303 is presumed.

1614 ALGORITHM DESIGN AND PROGRAMMING II 4 hours

A study of structured programming. The emphasis is on advanced programming concepts, including multidimensional arrays, pointers, recursion, and the syntax of classes. Encoding, entering, and running programs comprise a significant part of the course. Three hours of lecture and two hours of laboratory each week. Mathematics at the level of MATH 1503 is presumed. Prerequisite: CSCI 1514.

2004 COMPUTER STRUCTURES, ASSEMBLER, AND DIGITAL DESIGN 4 hours

A study of the organization and architecture of computer systems. Topics include logic gates, combinational logic circuits, processor design, computer arithmetic, caching techniques, memory organization, input and output, assembly languages, and machine languages. Three hours of lecture and two hours of laboratory each week. Prerequisite: CSCI 1614. (fall, even)

2303 JAVA 3 hours

A study of programming techniques in Java including fundamental programming structures and concepts, GUI applications and applets, and introductory concepts in object-oriented programming. Previous experience in at least one high-level programming language is assumed. Two hours of lecture and two hours of laboratory each week. Prerequisite: CSCI 1614 or permission of instructor. (fall, odd)

3114 DATA STRUCTURES 4 hours

The development of the concepts and techniques of structuring data for efficient storage and retrieval. Topics include linked lists, trees, stacks, queues, hash tables, sorting, and searching. Three hours of lecture and two hours of laboratory each week. Prerequisites: CSCI 1614 and MATH 1503.

3303 COMPUTER NETWORKING AND DATA COMMUNICATIONS 3 hours

A study of computer networks. Topics include packet switching, routing flow control and congestion avoidance, communication protocols and interfacing, high-level protocols, terminals in the network, message authentication, network optimization, and system network structure. Prerequisite: CSCI 2004, CSCI 3114, and MATH 1503. (spring, odd)

3503 DISCRETE MATHEMATICS 3 hours

A survey of selected methods of reasoning and objects of study in discrete mathematical structures. Topics include Big O notation, elementary math (logic, set relations, functions, and number theory), proof and counting techniques, recurrence relations, graph theory, and trees. Prerequisite: MATH 1503 or three years of high school algebra. Recommended: MATH 2004.

3613 DATABASE DESIGN AND MANAGEMENT 3 hours

An introduction to application program development in a database environment. Topics include loading, modifying, and querying the database; database normalization; and entity-relationship modeling and database analysis, design, and implementation. Prerequisite: one programming language. (fall)

3863 SPECIAL TOPICS IN COMPUTER SCIENCE 3 hours

A study of a special topic in computer science; subject and prerequisite may vary. (TBA)

4003 PROGRAMMING LANGUAGES 3 hours

A study of the concepts of programming languages, including the definition of syntax vs. semantics, data types and abstractions, expressions, control structures, functions, subprograms, binding, and exception handling. A brief study of logic programming and functional programming are included. Prerequisite: CSCI 3114. (spring, odd)

4063 SENIOR SEMINAR 3 hours

A capstone course required of all tracks. Topics include computer science ethics and law, computing and society, and recent research in computer science. Prerequisite: senior standing or permission of instructor. (spring)

4203 LOGIC FOR COMPUTER SCIENCES 3 hours

A survey of classical and modern logic including Boolean operators, truth tables, and Karnaugh maps; theorems, argument verification, inference rules, and proof techniques in zeroth- and first-order logic; multivalued logics; and fuzzy logic, including applications such as artificial intelligence and controllers. Prerequisite: MATH 2004.

4213 INTRODUCTION TO SOFTWARE ENGINEERING 3 hours

An overview of the major aspects of contemporary software engineering designed to introduce students to the software development life cycle as defined by various software-engineering paradigms. Development of a team-programming project, including system documentation, is an important part of the course. Prerequisites: CSCI 1614 and CSCI 3114. (spring)

4303 INTRODUCTION TO OBJECT-ORIENTED PROGRAMMING 3 hours

An introduction to object-oriented programming concepts. Topics include the object model, classes and objects, classification, object-oriented analysis and design, class libraries, object-oriented languages and applications. Writing object-oriented programs will comprise a significant portion of the course. Prerequisite: CSCI 3114. (spring, even)

4313 OPERATING SYSTEMS 3 hours

A study of system management and control software in a variety of hardware and user environments. The course illustrates common approaches to the development of operating systems and examines in more detail several existing operating systems that will be of continuing importance in the future. Encoding, entering, and running programs are a part of the course. Two hours of lecture and two hours of laboratory each week. Prerequisites: CSCI 3114 and CSCI 2004. (fall)

4503 APPLICATION PROGRAM INTERFACING 3 hours

A practical course on designing and implementing software interfaces for application programs running in the Microsoft Windows environment. The course includes a study of the Visual Basic.NET programming environment. Encoding and running programs comprise a significant part of the course. Two hours of lecture and two hours of laboratory each week. Prerequisite: CSCI 3114. (fall, even)

4513 WEB SITE PROGRAMMING AND DESIGN 3 hours

A practical course on installing and maintaining a Web site. The course emphasis is on Web site administration and server programming in Unix and Windows environments. Topics include CGI, HTML, Java, JavaScript, VRML, Perl, and custom Web clients. Encoding, entering, and running programs comprise a significant part of the course. Prerequisite: CSCI 3114. (spring, even)

4582-3 INTERNSHIP IN COMPUTER SCIENCE 2 or 3 hours

A practicum working with computers. The work may be on campus or by arrangement with an off-campus facility. Prerequisites: senior standing and 24 credit hours of computer science.

4603 ADVANCED DATABASES 3 hours

A quantitative study of the tools and methodology of database design. The intent of the course is to equip a student to design a conceptual database, specify its implementation, and predict the performance of the system when implemented. Topics include hashing, B-trees, database structures and schemas, structured query language (SQL), and system performance and protection. Experience with ORACLE and DBMS is assumed. Prerequisite: CSCI 3613. Cross-listed MS 5603.

4803 GRAPHICS 3 hours

An integrated study of the hardware, software, data structures, mathematics, and algorithms of image manipulation, computer graphics, and computer-assisted design. Topics include raster technique geometric transformation, illumination models, shading models, basic animations, and strategies for creating representations of three-dimensional objects. Prerequisites: proficiency in C ++, MATH 2104 and CSCI 3114. (fall)

4983 INDEPENDENT STUDY 3 hours

Individualized study of a particular topic in computer science under the supervision of a member of the faculty. By permission of instructor.

4991 PRACTICUM IN PROGRAMMING 1 hour

A survey of practical techniques in solving problems using high-level computer languages and preparation for local, regional, and national programming competitions. This course is required for students who wish to participate in the OCU Programming Team, which requires travel to contest sites. Enrollment by permission of instructor only.

CRIMINAL JUSTICE (CJ)1003 INTRODUCTION TO THE CRIMINAL JUSTICE SYSTEM 3 hours

An introductory course examining fundamental principles and components of the criminal justice system.

2003 PRISONS, PRISONERS, AND THE LAW 3 hours

This course provides a survey of the field of corrections. The history of corrections, international comparisons, theories of corrections, alternatives to incarceration, and current issues in corrections are included. (spring)

3003 URBAN POLICE ADMINISTRATION 3 hours

An examination of the historical development and present organization and administration of police departments and a consideration of the principles of organization best adapted to ensure effective service to the urban community.

3303 PROBATION AND PAROLE 3 hours

This course examines approaches to both the theoretical assumptions and the practical techniques of probation and parole. A review of research findings in probation and parole are presented.

3953 DOMESTIC VIOLENCE 3 hours

This course examines the patterns and theories of intrafamily violence as well as intimate violence. Violence directed at children and elders is also analyzed, e.g., physical, sexual, and psychological maltreatment.

4063SA1 INTERNATIONAL CRIMINAL JUSTICE SYSTEMS 3 hours

The growth of the extended economic and cultural orders demands that students be well versed in diverse approaches to common social problems and social solutions. Through comparisons of varied criminal justice systems, students assess the effectiveness of each and gain insights into the cultural influences at work in different parts of the world. Participants visit selected sites and meet with criminal justice experts to discuss cross-cultural comparisons between the U.S. and other nations.

4113 RESTORATIVE JUSTICE 3 hours
Restorative justice is an alternate response to the retributive justice model. Restorative justice, heavily influenced by a variety of religions as well as by peacemaking perspectives, makes the victim, offender, and community central to the process of restoring balance to society.

4114 CONSTITUTIONAL LAW 4 hours
See POLS 4114.

4203 VICTIMOLOGY 3 hours
Analysis of the victimology model. Emphasis on the victim, the academic institutional perspective, the criminal justice perspective, and the statistical approach.

4313 CRIMINOLOGY 3 hours
Analyzes the nature and extent of criminal behavior. Emphasizes current theory and research as they relate to the cause of crime.

4403 THE LAW AND THE POLICE 3 hours
A study of the legal aspects of law enforcement and the impact of law on police behavior. Emphasis is on criminal procedure. While structured as a general elective, the course is a required core course for criminal justice majors and recommended as an elective for all criminal justice majors. The course is an excellent elective for pre-law majors.

4503 WOMEN, LAW, AND SOCIAL CONTROL 3 hours
This course examines the social control of females in the public sphere, e.g., through violence, legislation, and family.

4513 JUVENILE DELINQUENCY 3 hours
An overview of the theories developed to explain juvenile delinquency as well as an assessment of the relationship between the system of juvenile justice and the delinquent. An analysis of various strategies that may be effective in preventing juvenile delinquency or diverting individuals from the criminal justice system.

4603 DEATH AND DYING 3 hours
As the last stage in lifespan development, Death and Dying may be the most important course you'll take as a college student. We explore a variety of issues such as coping with chronic illness, death awareness, stages of dying, hospice, capital punishment, suicide (including physician-assisted), euthanasia, funeral customs, children's experience, and traumatic death—and the impact of each on society. When possible, relevant field trips are arranged.

4603 SELECTED TOPICS IN CRIMINAL JUSTICE 3 hours

4703 BEHAVIORAL CHANGE 3 hours
A major objective of correctional agencies has been to change persons convicted of crime so that they are reformed, resocialized, treated, and modified. This course deals with the issue of such changes and examines techniques of producing changes.

4803 SENIOR SEMINAR 3 hours
The senior seminar is a capstone course for the criminal justice major. Students are expected to synthesize the knowledge they have gained since beginning the program.

4983 INTERNSHIP 3 hours
Structured and evaluated apprenticeship in a criminal justice organization or program. Number of hours and location of work experience arranged through the criminal justice department.

4991-6 INDEPENDENT STUDY 1-6 hours
Juniors and seniors may propose a plan or project of independent study on a topic of their choice. Assignment approval through department faculty.

DANCE (DANC)

1131 DANCE WORKSHOP I 1 hour
An orientation class focused on the examination of the professional musical theater rehearsal and backstage environment with special attention to personal professionalism during class, rehearsals, and performance. (fall)

1152 DANCE HEALTH 2 hours
An examination of health issues of vital concern to professional dancers—nutrition, communicable diseases, and prevention and care of injuries. Open to dance majors only. (fall)

1171 MUSICALS FOR DANCERS 1 hour
This course introduces dance performance and dance management majors to dance performance opportunities in American musicals through film, lecture, and discussion. Special attention is given to plots, historical significance, composer/librettist/choreographer teams, and important dance and production numbers. (fall)

1111, 1311, 1511 BASIC MOVEMENT—BALLET, JAZZ, TAP 1,1,1 hour
Introductory courses to ballet, jazz, or tap technique for the beginner. May not be applied to the requirements of the B.P.A. in dance degree. (fall, spring)

1211, 1411, 1611 BEYOND BASIC MOVEMENT—BALLET, JAZZ, TAP 1, 1, 1 hour
A continuation of introductory courses to ballet, jazz, or tap technique for the beginner. May not be applied to the requirements of the B.P.A. in dance degree. Prerequisite: Basic Movement in the same technique. (fall, spring)

1193, 3193 BALLET TECHNIQUES I, II, III, IV, V, VI, VII, VIII 3 hours
Leveled technique classes concerned with ballet, especially as it relates to the American musical theater stage. Classes are taught as movement labs and also include academic assignments. Prerequisite: leveling and approval by the dance department. (fall, spring)

1391, 1392, 3391, 3392 JAZZ I, II, III, IV, V, VI, VII, VIII 1, 2 hours
Leveled courses designed to familiarize students with the styles and innovations of twenty-first-century American jazz dance. Prerequisite: leveling and approval of the dance department. (fall, spring)

1591, TAP I, II, III, IV, V, VI, VII, VIII 1 hour
3591

Leveled courses using the techniques and terminology of tap steps, combinations, and dances as used in musical theater. Prerequisite: leveling and approval by the dance department. (fall, spring)

1991 THEATER DANCE 1 hour

This course is designed to expose the dancer to the dynamic style pieces used in musical theater choreography. Prerequisite: approval of the dance department. (fall, spring)

2851 MEN'S CLASS 1 hour

A ballet class exclusively for men emphasizing the technical aspects of large masculine movement. (TBA)

2191 POINTE CLASS I 1 hour

2791 PARTNERING I 1 hour

The study of finely balanced maneuvers performed by a female dancer with the assistance of a male partner. This class is offered both for the classical ballet technique and for the musical theater stage. (TBA)

3141 DANCE WORKSHOP II 1 hour

An examination of issues important to the personal and career development of the professional dancer. Topics include personal budgeting, image development, résumé development, auditioning strategies, information sources for job opportunities, Equity eligibility requirements, and more. Majors only, with junior standing. Dance department approval required. (spring)

3383 DANCE STUDIO TECHNOLOGY 3 hours

A study of the audio, visual, and computer technology utilized within the modern dance studio and dance school or academy to support instruction, recitals, performances, and video collections.

3623 SURVEY OF HISTORY OF DANCE FOR MASTER TEACHERS 3 hours

An in-depth study of the history of primitive dance through ballet and modern dance to meet the needs of the master dance teacher. An extensive research project is required. For dance pedagogy majors only. Prerequisite: ENGL 1113 & 1213; junior standing.

3633 HISTORY OF AMERICAN DANCE FOR MASTER TEACHERS 3 hours

An in-depth study of the history of American musical theater dance and dance for the entertainment industry. An extensive research project is required. For dance pedagogy majors only. Prerequisite: ENGL 1113 & 1213 and DANC 3623; junior standing.

3642 HISTORY OF TEACHING DANCE 2 hours

An historical examination of the development of ballet, jazz, tap, and modern dance technique and the development of instructional systems and methodologies for helping dancers to advance through a continuum from beginner to advanced levels. For dance pedagogy majors only. Prerequisite: ENGL 1113 & 1213; junior standing.

3792- DANCE HISTORY:
3892 1. BEGINNING TO TWENTY-FIRST CENTURY 2 hours
2. AMERICAN DANCE 2 hours

The first course traces the history of primitive dance through ballet and modern dance. The second course concentrates on the development of American musical theater dance. For majors only. Prerequisite: ENGL 1113 & 1213; junior standing.

3912 ANATOMY AND PHYSIOLOGY FOR DANCERS 2 hours

This course emphasizes understanding how the dancer's body functions and how to avoid injury. For majors only. Prerequisite: junior standing. (fall)

4283 CHOREOGRAPHY FOR MASTER TEACHERS I 3 hours

An in-depth study of theory and fundamentals of choreography and composition in all dance forms. Students are presented with a wide variety of choreographic challenges requiring attention to issues including style, casting, music, audience, and ethnic/cultural influences. For dance pedagogy majors only. Prerequisite: DANC 4412, 4512, or 4712.

4291 CHOREOGRAPHY—THEORY 1 hour

The student is taught basic theory and fundamentals of choreography and composition in all dance forms. For majors only. Prerequisites: junior standing and approval of the dance department. (spring)

4391 CHOREOGRAPHY—PERFORMANCE 1 hour

Capstone course for dance performance majors. The student is provided an opportunity to apply choreography theory and composition, resulting in a public performance. Students must select music, choreograph an original dance, hold auditions, cast, determine costume and technical requirements, and rehearse and clean their dances, which are presented in the annual Student Choreography Show. Evaluation is by course instructor and faculty jury. For dance performance majors only. Prerequisites: DANC 4291, senior standing and approval of the dance department. (fall)

4293 CHOREOGRAPHY FOR MASTER TEACHERS II 3 hours

A continuation of work begun in DANCE 4283 with increasing focus on choreographing within a workshop environment for dancers of varying ages and abilities. An increasing focus will be placed in analyzing and critiquing the work of peers and professional choreographers. For dance pedagogy majors only. Prerequisite: DANC 4283.

4412, DANCE PEDAGOGY FOR
4422, MASTER TEACHERS 2,2,2,2 hours

4522,
4712,
4722

These courses cover the academic and practical sides of preparing students to become qualified professional teachers of tap, jazz, and ballet. For dance pedagogy majors and dance management majors by permission only. Prerequisite: junior standing, DANC 3912.

4521, MASTER TEACHERS LAB
4721 1,1,1 hours

Labs for ballet, tap, and jazz offering students opportunities to apply knowledge and gain experience in real-life teaching situations, including teaching in the school's dance academy.

4491, DANCE PEDAGOGY – 1,1,1 hour
4591, BALLET, JAZZ, TAP
4791

ECONOMICS (ECON)

2003 ECONOMICS AND THE QUALITY
OF LIFE 3 hours

This is an issues approach to economics. Elements of economic theory are used to provide a basic understanding of individual issues such as how markets for specific goods and services work, what causes prices and output of these goods to change, how unemployment and inflation and budget deficits are interrelated, and how the American economy is interrelated with the global economy. For nonbusiness majors only.

2013 PRINCIPLES OF ECONOMICS I 3 hours

Following a general description of the subject matter of economics and basic concepts including supply and demand analysis, this course develops the foundations of macroeconomics, Gross Domestic Product and its measurement, and theories of aggregate demand and aggregate supply. The monetary and banking systems and international trade and finance are also studied. These are all used to understand the causes and effects of changes in unemployment, inflation, economic growth rates, interest rates, exchange rates, and other economic variables.

2113 PRINCIPLES OF ECONOMICS II 3 hours

This course studies the foundations of the supplies and demands of individual products and resources. It uses the theory of consumption to provide an understanding of the demand side of the market. Production and cost theory provide an understanding of the supply side. Combined, these show the effects of firm and consumer behavior on prices and outputs. Relations between firms within an industry are studied in perfectly and imperfectly competitive markets. This material is applied to consider the advantages and disadvantages of the market system, the effects of government policies, income distribution, economic efficiency, and other issues.

2123 BUSINESS STATISTICS 3 hours

Collection and presentation of statistical data; studies of various statistical distributions and their applications in business; introduction to probability theory, sampling, hypothesis testing, regression analysis, and forecasting through the use of computerized statistical packages to manage real databases. Proficiency with college-level algebra is expected. Prerequisites: MATH 1503.

2203 ECONOMICS OF POVERTY 3 hours

This course covers basic economic principles of supply and demand analysis and decision-making on the part of consumers and firms. Using this theoretical framework, specific economic issues addressing poverty are studied. Approximately half of the course is conducted in the traditional lecture/seminar format, concluding with a midterm exam. The second half consists of volunteer experience with an approved social service agency and periodic class meetings. The semester concludes with a report and presentation from each student on his or her volunteer experience. (TBA)

2323 QUANTITATIVE APPROACHES
TO MANAGEMENT 3 hours

A survey of applied mathematical techniques used in management science. The course serves as an introduction to the techniques of linear programming, decision theory, inventory control, and queuing models. These concepts form the basis of management science. Prerequisite: ECON 2123.

3013 INTERNATIONAL ECONOMIC POLICIES 3 hours

This course studies and compares existing economic systems or policy regimes across countries. The emphasis is on macroeconomic issues. These include government ownership, regulation, and control of firms, including policies toward foreign investment; monetary policies, including those concerned with currency convertibility, capital mobility, and exchange rate regimes; and other policies. Policies of countries in economic transition are discussed in this context. Prerequisite: ECON 2113.

3113 MONEY AND BANKING 3 hours

The functions of money, credit, and financial institutions in our economy. Prerequisite: ECON 2113. (fall, summer I)

3213 MICROECONOMICS 3 hours

This course expands on the principles and analysis of ECON 2013 and 2113. It gives an exposition of contemporary economic theory and its uses. The student learns how to apply economic logic to many different business and government decisions, especially involving pricing policies, market structure, welfare analysis, and the workings of the modern market system. Prerequisite: ECON 2113. (fall)

3313 MACROECONOMICS 3 hours

Macroeconomics is concerned with the aggregate economy more than with individual firms or consumers. Perhaps the most important issues are the relationships among inflation, unemployment, and interest rates. Understanding these relationships allows one to better appreciate the logic of Federal Reserve policies and other policies. Other issues include business cycles, government deficits and surpluses, productivity, growth, and the different schools of macroeconomic thought. Prerequisite: ECON 2113. (spring)

3413 LABOR ECONOMICS 3 hours

An economic view of labor and the relationship of the laborer to his employer, union, and society, the development of human capital; trade unions; and wage differentials in different industries and between races and sexes. Prerequisite: ECON 2113. (fall-alternate)

3613 NATURAL RESOURCE AND ENVIRONMENTAL ECONOMICS 3 hours

Upon completion of this course, a student will be able to appreciate the problems that societies face regarding sustainable growth and its effects on the environment and natural resources, both exhaustible and renewable. Participants gain an understanding of the basic principles of cost-benefit analysis and are able to analyze regulatory policies regarding pollution and other environmental issues. Prerequisite: ECON 2113. (spring-alternate)

3713 GAME THEORY 3 hours

This course shows how business activity, politics, and individual interaction can be described as games. From this understanding, it then moves to how to play these games to win or not lose. It focuses on how to make strategically appropriate decisions based on predicting the likely behavior of other players. The basic structure of games is introduced as are the solution concepts used in each structure. Prerequisite: ECON 2113 (spring-alternate)

4013 INTERNATIONAL ECONOMICS 3 hours

International economics can be split into macroeconomics and microeconomics. On the microeconomic side are the benefits and costs of free international trade, the effects of trade policies such as tariffs and export subsidies, international investment and the multinational corporation, and the effects of free trade agreements and the World Trade Organization. On the macro side, topics include the determinants and effects of exchange rates, exchange rate policies, and the cause and effects of the Current Account deficits. Prerequisite: ECON 3013 or MBM 3513. (TBA)

4113 PUBLIC ECONOMICS 3 hours

While most of economics studies the workings of the private sector, public economics is concerned with government operations, especially taxes and spending. The course looks at the effects of taxes on the rest of the economy and the logic of different tax policies; tax equity or fairness; and the effects of various government spending programs, including those concerned with public goods and income redistribution. The course also studies the incentives to which politicians and government employees respond. Prerequisite: ECON 2113. (TBA)

4213 GOVERNMENT AND BUSINESS 3 hours

This course deals with the relationship between economically important U.S. laws and the effects these laws have on the economy. The laws are examined by their development and intent. Alternative market structures are developed. How different laws have different effects in different markets is examined to see how the laws actually affect the economy. Prerequisite: ECON 2113. (spring-alternate).

4313 HISTORY OF ECONOMIC THOUGHT 3 hours

"The great economists" from the Physiocrats to the present, and their influence on current economic thinking. Prerequisite: ECON 2113. (TBA)

4413 ECONOMIC GROWTH AND DEVELOPMENT 3 hours

Economic growth and development problems are the central problems in most countries. INDP 3163H HONOR JUNIOR SENIOR SEMINAR 3 hours

A variable-topic seminar that is the capstone course for all honors students.

INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY (IT)

1003 COMPUTERS IN SOCIETY 3 hours

The objective of this course is to provide students with an understanding of information technology in business. Students learn to effectively manage information technology in business, see how information technology is used to transform the business, and further refine and develop individual computer skills associated with the use of information technology in organizations. This course is meant to prepare students to solve managerial and organizational problems of limited complexity using popular end-user application programs (word processing, spreadsheets, e-mail, Web browsers, and rudimentary database) and build a personal Web site using Microsoft Front Page and introduce HTML language.

2113 STRUCTURED QUERY LANGUAGE (SQL) 3 hours

The course is designed for students who want to learn to interact with Oracle databases. The course not only offers an understanding of SQL, it also prepares students for the first exam in both the Oracle Database Administrator and Internet Application Developer Certification Tracks. Students progress to simple creation of data files and read-write programming. Further topics include elementary data processing followed by advanced topics such as sorting, indexing and merging, control-break programming, data validation, array processing and table handling, and master file/transaction file processing. Database management techniques such as data modeling and the relational database model are introduced. This course prepares students for upper-level IT courses and a career in information systems management.

2213 OBJECT-ORIENTED SYSTEM DESIGN WITH "VISUAL" TOOLS 3 hours

This course provides an opportunity to gain an understanding of the concepts and technology of object-oriented systems and to learn system design techniques that take full advantage of this technology. Students develop competence in using Visual tools. Prerequisite: 3 hours of a programming language.

3133 MANAGEMENT INFORMATION SYSTEMS 3 hours

This course seeks to expand students' working knowledge, gained in previous courses, of computer hardware. Computer software categories and applications are covered as are the use of tools such as management support systems (expert systems, decision support systems, executive information systems, and groupware) and Web browsers. Finally, the course examines the effects of computer systems upon humans with respect to information systems management. Prerequisites: IT 1003 and IT 2213 or another computer language approved by the instructor.

4313 BUSINESS SYSTEMS ANALYSIS AND DESIGN 3 hours

This course exposes students to structured systems analysis and design through implementation of the systems development life cycle. Deliverable for this course is a comprehensive group case involving systems proposal, cost estimation, interpersonal interviewing techniques, process modeling, data modeling, network modeling, interface design, file and database construction, security concerns, and maintenance issues. Prototyping and rapid development techniques are discussed. Prerequisite: IT 3133.

4323 DATABASE MANAGEMENT SYSTEMS 3 hours

This course is designed to provide students with skills required to develop data structures in order to store organizational memory. The course begins with a brief review of SQL through comprehensive assignments, followed by instruction in Oracle, then database management and development techniques. Topics covered are flat file, hierarchic, network and relational database models; data modeling using Logical Data Structures; Structured Query Language; data normalization; storage concerns; data warehousing; and distributed database systems. Upon completion of this course the student will be able to conceptualize, develop, test, and maintain a complete database system on either microcomputers or mainframe systems. Prerequisite: IT 4313.

4333 BUSINESS SYSTEMS INTERNSHIP 3 hours

The internship is designed to allow students to obtain practical work experience prior to completion of the course of study while integrating knowledge and abilities gained in earlier IT courses. Interns must work with the internship coordinator and a sponsor for an organization external to the university to develop an internship proposal. Prerequisites: completion of all required IT track courses, senior standing, and an approved proposal.

4823 TOPICS IN COMPUTER INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY 3 hours

The subject matter varies from semester to semester emphasizing important computer information technology topics not sufficiently covered in other information technology courses. The course may be repeated with a different content. Prerequisites: IT 3133, junior standing, and permission of the instructor.

4833 NETWORKING 3 hours

This course is a conceptual and technological survey of the structure of distributed information systems architectures, operating systems, network operating systems, data management systems, application development environments, peripheral technology, and user interfaces. Interoperability between these architectural components is explored. Current technology and trends in each architectural element are reviewed. Students are exposed to home pages, graphics, search engines, and other items of interest on the Internet. We discuss accomplishing electronic commerce over the Internet and how businesses will evolve in the future with the use of the Internet. Prerequisites: IT 3133, junior standing, and permission of the instructor.

4843 STRATEGIC INFORMATION SYSTEMS 3 hours

This course examines the use and implementation of information systems for strategic and competitive advantage in an organization. The focus is an analysis of frameworks, which provide students an understanding of the elements of competitive advantage from an upper management point of view. This foundation of frameworks is linked to the organization's information systems through the use of case studies and augmented with "real-world" examples. This course covers a sampling of commercial enterprise software packages and the various implementation methodologies. Students are required to develop requests for proposals for the acquisition of an enterprise software package and evaluate multiple alternatives to meet the needs of a case study organization. Permission of the instructor required.

INTERDEPARTMENTAL (INDP)

1013 ARTS AND HUMAN VALUES 3 hours

An introduction to a variety of art forms, including cinema, drama, music and musical theater, and graphic arts. This course has both aesthetic and humanistic orientations: it examines the nature, form, and intrinsic value of works of art and what they express concerning human values. Practicing artists present their art forms where possible. Students observe performances and exhibits on the OCU campus and in the Oklahoma City area.

1113 SURVEY OF AMERICAN POPULAR MUSIC 3 hours

This course deals primarily with American pop music and the culture of twentieth-century America. We study the various genres of American pop music and how other aspects of American cultural life are reflected in this music. Because music, like other forms of art, is a reflection of people's lives and dreams, we examine how society's cultural lives are reflected in popular music. Not only will we study in depth the aspects of the different pop music genres, but we will also examine what cultural phenomena caused the music to turn out the way it did.

2103 ISSUES IN WOMEN'S STUDIES
HIST/POLS/PSYC/INDP 3 hours

A survey of women's roles and status in American society. Emphasis is on the importance of gender and social institutions such as the family, government, workplace, and religion in shaping the lives and opportunities of women. (spring)

3163 HONORS JUNIOR-SENIOR SEMINAR 3 hours

3363 CINEMA AND INTERNATIONAL EXPLORATIONS 3 hours

The course explores cinema as a serious art form—perhaps the major one of the 20th century. Through the techniques of cinematic analysis, we challenge ourselves to move from viewing visual images in an uncritical and passive manner to analyzing how these images work on us and help shape our values and understanding. The films reflect different ethnic and cultural experiences in order to provide a comparative context. We view a range of films to develop a sense of film history. The difference between cinema as entertainment and cinema as art is a central issue. Another essential viewpoint is consideration of the human face as the most important “special effect” in film. Cross-listed MIAP 3363.

4893 RESEARCH AND WRITING
IN WOMEN'S STUDIES 3 hours

The student researches a topic in his or her major/field as it relates to women's studies. Using directed readings, the student produces an integrative paper. Approaches to such an integrative study might include examination of the current place of women's studies in the major, research from women's studies that might influence the major, or current research in the major conducted by women or from a women's studies approach. Prerequisite: 6 hours in women's studies minor.

KINESIOLOGY AND EXERCISE

Course emphasis is on the techniques and practical skills necessary for the public relations professional. Focus is concentrated on planning, management, funding, budgeting, and production information and resources essential to successful media relations and special event coordination. Prerequisite: MCPR 2313. (spring)

3713 PRINT PRODUCTION TECHNIQUES 3 hours
Designed for advertising and public relations students who must plan, supervise, or produce persuasive publications. Content focuses on sound design and production guidelines for print media, paper selection, ink and color theory, type selection, printing processes, and production techniques.

3803 STRATEGIC PLANNING FOR PUBLIC RELATIONS 3 hours
This course focuses on development of strategic planning and problem-solving techniques essential for implementation of effective public relations programs. Students utilize actual public relations situations to learn how to relate to diverse publics, determine the most credible communications strategies, and analyze the impact of public relations programming and lack of programming on the organization's bottom line. Special attention is given to marketing, public relations, issues management, and international public relations. Prerequisite: MCPR 2313. (spring)

4013 INTEGRATED CAMPAIGN DEVELOPMENT 3 hours
As advertising evolves in the marketplace, so does the classic advertising campaign. The integrated marketing campaign is the format now used by major advertisers and advertising agencies. Students learn how to research, evaluate, and analyze the product, market, target consumer, and competition in order to create an effective integrated communications plan that includes advertising, promotion, public relations, and direct marketing components. Prerequisite: MCAD 2213 or MCPR 2313. (fall)

4161-3 SELECTED TOPICS/PUBLIC RELATIONS 1–3 hours
Variable content seminar relating to public relations topics. Example: Public Relations Case Problems, Crisis Management, etc. (TBA)

4343 THE BLACKWELDER GROUP/ PUBLIC RELATIONS 3 hours
Students provide staffing for a nonprofit student-run public relations company. By permission only. (TBA)

4483 THE PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE/ PUBLIC RELATIONS 3 hours
A look at the profession of public relations from the inside out. By permission of the instructor and department chair.

4853 DIRECTED READING/ PUBLIC RELATIONS 3 hours
Specialized readings relating to intensive study of public relations subjects. By arrangement with instructor and department chair.

4991-3 INDEPENDENT STUDY/ PUBLIC RELATIONS 1–3 hours
Independent study in an area of public relations specialization. By permission of the instructor and department chair.

MATHEMATICS (MATH)

1103 PROBLEM-SOLVING APPROACHES IN MATHEMATICS 3 hours
This course follows the content of arithmetic, geometry, and pre-algebra as it is sequenced through the eighth grade. Each area is connected to problem-solving strategies included in the NCTM goals and standards for the reform of mathematical education. This course gives the student practice with operations including whole number, rational number, informal geometry, integers, and linear equations. Emphasis is on the solution of algorithms and word problems while integrating strategies and variation of techniques as applied to the scope of math learning. Content is used to strengthen the math skills of education majors. (spring)

1203 BASIC CONCEPTS FOR THE UNDERSTANDING OF PRE-ALGEBRA 3 hours
This math content course is designed to prepare the education student for college algebra while including ways to implement the NCTM standards for pre-algebra skills including problem solving, cognitive approaches, and thinking skills, connections and manipulatives. Math content includes work and practice with integers, variables, expression, equations, number theory (factors, multiples and exponents), fractions, probability, decimals, percents, the coordinate plane, square roots, and polynomials. This course includes a recorded journal reflecting the experiences with the above mathematical concepts. (spring)

1213 BASIC CONCEPTS FOR THE UNDERSTANDING OF GEOMETRY 3 hours
This math content course prepares the education student for geometrical aspects of informal geometry in both the elementary and intermediate classroom. Content includes a historical perspective of geometry, angles and measures, lines and line segments, patterns, polygons, circumference and area of circles, and volume and surface area. As each concept is practiced, students analyze ways to implement the NCTM standards. (fall)

1303 INTERMEDIATE ALGEBRA 3 hours
Our most elementary algebra course, the first semester of a two-semester algebra sequence. Prerequisite: one year of high school algebra.

1503 COLLEGE ALGEBRA 3 hours
The second semester of a two-semester algebra sequence.

1602 TRIGONOMETRY 2 hours
The equivalent of high-school trigonometry. (fall)

1703 PRECALCULUS 3 hours
A review of trigonometry and algebra skills necessary for calculus.

2004 CALCULUS AND ANALYTIC GEOMETRY I 4 hours
Differential and integral calculus of one variable, application to elementary functions. Prerequisite: MATH 1503 or 1602 or equivalent.

2104 CALCULUS AND ANALYTIC GEOMETRY II 4 hours
Application of differentiation and integration to hyperbolic trigonometric functions, special integration techniques, infinite series, Taylor and McLaurin series, functions in polar coordinate form. Prerequisite: MATH 2004.

2203 CALCULUS III 3 hours
Multivariate calculus, use of vectors, Gauss', Stokes', and Green's theorems. Prerequisite: MATH 2104. (fall)

3003 LINEAR ALGEBRA 3 hours
An introduction to vector spaces, matrices and determinants, linear mappings, eigenvalues, bilinear and quadratic forms. May be taken concurrently with MATH 2203. Prerequisite: MATH 2104. (spring, even)

3103 ALGEBRAIC STRUCTURES I 3 hours
An introduction to the theory of algebraic structures including groups, rings, and fields. Prerequisite: MATH 3003. (fall, even)

3203 PROBABILITY AND STATISTICS I 3 hours
An introduction to probability and statistics, discrete and continuous random variables, algebra of expectation, moment-generating functions; binomial, hypergeometric, multinomial, Poisson, normal distributions. Prerequisite: MATH 2203. (fall, odd)

3303 ORDINARY DIFFERENTIAL EQUATIONS 3 hours
Ordinary differential equations, including transfer methods introduction to partial differential equations. May be taken concurrently with MATH 2203. Prerequisite: MATH 2104. (spring, even)

3403 NUMERICAL METHODS 3 hours
Numerical techniques applied to solving equations and systems of equations, interpolation and extrapolation, integration of differential equations, etc. Prerequisites: CSCI 1513 and MATH 2104. (spring)

3503 DISCRETE MATHEMATICS 3 hours
A survey of selected methods of reasoning and objects of study in discrete mathematical structures. Topics include Big O notation, elementary math (logic, set relations, functions, and number theory), proof and counting techniques, recurrence relations, graph theory and trees. Prerequisite: MATH 1503 or three years of high school algebra. Recommended: MATH 2004.

3603 ADVANCED CALCULUS I 3 hours
A rigorous study of number systems, sequences, convergence, continuity, differentiation, and integration. Prerequisites: MATH 2203 and MATH 3303. (fall, even)

3703 ADVANCED GEOMETRY 3 hours
Analytic projective geometry of one, two, and three dimensions, with specializations of Euclidean and non-Euclidean geometries. Prerequisites MATH 2203 and MATH 3003. (fall, even)

3804 ENGINEERING MATH I 4 hours
The course covers many of the postcalculus topics in mathematics that are necessary for the modern engineer. Coordinate systems, coordinate transformations, matrices, vector analysis. Ordinary differential equations. Laplace transform. Cross-listed PHYS 3804. (TBA)

3903 ENGINEERING MATH II 3 hours
A continuation of Engineering Math I. Waves, boundary value problems, special mathematical functions, Fourier analysis and Fourier transform, complex variables. Cross-listed PHYS 3903. (TBA)

4103 ALGEBRAIC STRUCTURES II 3 hours
Structure of groups, lattices, categories and adjoint functors; tensor products and multilinear algebra. Prerequisite: MATH 3103. (TBA)

4203 PROBABILITY AND STATISTICS II 3 hours
Interval estimation, hypotheses testing linear regression, and distribution-free methods. Prerequisite: MATH 3203. (spring, even)

4303 PARTIAL DIFFERENTIAL EQUATIONS 3 hours
Prerequisite: MATH 3303. (TBA)

4403 TOPOLOGY 3 hours
An introduction to point-set topology. Prerequisites: MATH 3003, MATH 3103, and MATH 3603. (fall, odd)

4503 QUANTUM MECHANICS 3 hours
See PHYS 4503. (TBA)

4603 ADVANCED CALCULUS II 3 hours
A continuing rigorous examination of the calculus, including Fourier series and line and surface integrals. Prerequisite: MATH 3603. (TBA)

4703 FUNCTIONS OF A COMPLEX VARIABLE 3 hours
Analytic functions, Taylor and Laurent series, conformal mapping, Schwartz-Christoffel transformation, contour integration. Prerequisite: MATH 2104. (spring, odd)

4991-6 INDEPENDENT STUDY 1-6 hours
By permission of the department chairman. (TBA)

MOVING IMAGE ARTS (MIAP)

1013 INTRODUCTION TO FILM STUDIES 3 hours
The course introduces students to the essential techniques of film analysis to develop the critical vocabulary to view, discuss, and write about film as an art form. Distinction between the importance of the literary and cinematic analysis of film are emphasized. Examination of approaches to the study of film include auteurism, genre study and how film forms establish or subvert expectations, theoretical and historical developments in the history of cinema, and the tension between film as an art form and film as a business. Discussion is rooted in the screening of appropriate films.

1123 BEHIND THE SCENES: THE PROCESS OF MAKING FILMS 3 hours
See MCFM 1123.

1213 AMERICAN FILM: PRE-1945 3 hours

An exploration of the historical and cultural contexts that governed the emergence of film as art and mass culture. From early silent film through the American pre-war studio products, different approaches to narrative filmmaking as a developing form of communication are examined and screened. Readings, screenings, and written reports required.

2023 INTERMEDIATE TECHNOLOGY AND EQUIPMENT PRACTICUM 3 hours

Students learn to plan for and operate the most commonly used moving image art technical hardware employed in the processes of professional content production. Equipment needs and usage in each major labor category are examined. Guest lectures and hands-on workshops focusing on results planning, efficiency of usage, safety, and set operations.

2223 PROJECT 1: SOPHOMORE 3 hours

Taken in the second semester of the sophomore year, students are immersed in the physical processes of content production and create individually produced short, basic sync-sound moving image productions. Production hardware is provided. Successful completion of this course is required for continued study in the major. Prerequisite: MCBC 1123.

2273 FILM PRODUCTION AND BUSINESS 3 hours

Students study the professional moving image production management process from product concept to completion. Students learn script selection, breakdown and production scheduling, budget development and management, casting and staffing, production execution, and the visual and aural post production processes. Publicity, marketing techniques, distribution plans, copyright, and chain of title are analyzed.

2473 FILM DIRECTING: THE COLLECTIVE VISION

Students analyze the techniques and resources used in modern film directing necessary for the successful development and completion of a filmed production. Students examine the duties of the director from the perspective of the various craft categories. Emphasis is on the development of the directing leadership model of organization and film production administration.

2513 FILM: A COMMUNICATOR OF SOCIAL VALUES 3 hours

See MASC 2513. (spring, odd)

3023 FILM SOUND RECORDING 3 hours

Fundamentals of motion picture sound characteristics and recording methods in both studio and field environments are studied. Emphasis is on technical and hardware considerations for proper sound design needs and the aural landscape as a narrative element.

3073 SPECIAL TOPICS IN FILM PRODUCTION 3 hours

Proposed by the student and approved by the program director, a specific topic not included in other moving image arts production classes is studied. Instructor, course competencies, and subjects vary. May be repeated with a change in content. Prerequisite: approval of program director.

3103 NONLINEAR EDITING 3 hours

See MCBC 3103.

3123 WRITING FOR STAGE AND SCREEN 3 hours

See ENGL 3123. (spring, odd)

3173 SPECIAL TOPICS IN FILM STUDIES 3 hours

Proposed by the student and approved by the program director, a specific topic not included in other moving image arts film studies classes is studied. Instructor, course competencies, and subjects vary. May be repeated with a change in content. Prerequisite: approval of program director.

3204 INTERMEDIATE DIGITAL EDITING 4 hours

Continuing from the fundamentals of MCBC 3103, students explore advanced techniques of montage and nonlinear image and sound track construction utilizing the Final Cut Pro platform. Editorial theory, transitions, effects, and advanced methods of time manipulations and narrative structure construction are stressed. In-class and out-of-class projects required. Prerequisite: MCBC 3103.

3223 INTRODUCTION TO CINEMATOGRAPHY 3 hours

Students master the fundamental systems and operations of the professional digital motion picture camera and accessories with a focus on camera care, maintenance, lens optics, and performance. Composition, movement, image continuity, and basic digital photographics are included. Outside classroom assignments are given. Prerequisite: MIAP 3123.

3313 GREAT FILMS 3 hours

The course explores cinema as a serious art form, perhaps the major one of the 20th century. We focus on the interpretation of films through the techniques of cinematic analysis in order to learn the art of seeing. Although other approaches to film are presented, the auteur theory, that the director is the primary creative force behind a great film, predominates. We view and discuss the films to consider what the auteur (director) is saying, how the auteur is saying it, and how successfully the auteur says it. We consider such topics as whether the true cinema was the silent one; the tension between the cinematic and literary components of a film's structure; how the style of a film can reflect the cultural texture of its director; the importance of film movements—the French New Wave, for example—on film history. The films viewed reflect different cultural experiences to provide an international dimension.

3323 INTRODUCTION TO FILM LIGHTING 3 hours

Using classical painters and paintings as a reference, students learn the specifics of portrait, object, and spatial lighting and apply these techniques to the dynamics of moving image content illumination. The basic lighting units, their electrical requirements, performance specifics and the safety of operations are covered. Emphasis is given to the fundamentals of light value maintenance, manipulation, and use of lighting to enhance story. Prerequisite: MIAP 2023.

3363 CINEMA AND INTERNATIONAL EXPLORATIONS 3 hours

See INDP 3363.

3483 MOVING IMAGE ARTS INTERNSHIP 3 hours

Qualified students find a workplace opportunity and under the structure and evaluation of the program director, gain field experience. Prerequisite: 12 hours of earned MIAP credits.

3513 ON-CAMERA ACTING 3 hours

See THRE 3513.

4113 PRODUCTION DESIGN 3 hours

Students learn the specifics of the production design/art department; its contributions, fundamentals, and applications as a means to communicate story elements. Guest lectures, discussions, and hands-on workshops focusing on story breakdown, storyboarding, and execution of design concepts.

4124 INTERMEDIATE FILM SOUND EDITING TECHNIQUES 4 hours

Study of the technical and aural forces of moving image sound editing at the professional level. Practical and aesthetic considerations relating to recording, editing, and sound design utilizing Logic software. Prerequisite: MCBC 3103 and MIAP 3023.

4391 SENIOR CAPSTONE—PLANNING 1 hour

All degree candidates are expected to synthesize their comprehensive knowledge by creating a structured, detailed written plan of their project or thesis as a preparation for the capstone. Prerequisite: approval of program director.

4453 SEMINAR IN THEORY AND CRITICISM 3 hours
See ENGL 4453.

4493 SENIOR CAPSTONE—EXECUTION 3 hours

A required program measurement, in the senior year, is either a comprehensively produced moving image thesis project or an in-depth senior seminar with a written thesis requirement in moving image theory/culture. Production hardware/software provided. Prerequisite: MIAP 4393; approval of program director.

MULTINATIONAL BUSINESS MANAGEMENT (MBM)

3513 WORLD TRADE AND INVESTMENT 3 hours

An introduction to the environmental, economic, political, and social constraints on doing business in a global economic environment. Covers the nature of international business, international trade, foreign investment and the reasons and methods for going abroad. Multinational firms and their relations with host and home countries, the international organizations, international monetary systems, international financial markets, and foreign exchange markets are reviewed. Trends and new directions of international firms are discussed and the effects of economic integration, foreign trade, and international investment on domestic and foreign economics are examined. Prerequisites: ECON 2013, 2113, junior standing. (fall)

3523 INTERNATIONAL MARKETING AND GLOBAL SOURCING 3 hours

Examination of the importance of international marketing and global sourcing to the economy of the United States and other countries. Analysis of characteristics, structure, and competitive forces of international markets. Export and import procedures, production in multiple locations, and transportation challenges. The roles and responsibilities of export and import managers with emphasis on the problems and practices of managing international marketing activities. The advantages and problems of standardization of marketing programs across several countries, selection of appropriate entry strategies, and different aspects of marketing mix management. Prerequisites: MKTG 3013 and MBM 3513.

3533 INTERNATIONAL FINANCIAL MANAGEMENT 3 hours

This course covers the global financial environment and introduces the concepts and techniques required to fulfill the roles and responsibilities of financial managers of multinational firms or domestic companies with some degree of international exposure. Includes analysis of international balance of payments, foreign exchange markets, determinants of exchange rates, the risk of foreign exchange fluctuation, and methods of protecting against these risks. Financing international trade, sources of short-term and long-term funds, the effective cost of borrowing foreign currencies, international equity markets, financial evaluation of foreign projects, and financial management of international operations are examined. Prerequisites: FIN 3023, MBM 3513. (spring).

4543 CURRENT ISSUES IN POLITICAL ECONOMY OF THE WORLD 3 hours

Analysis of the current issues in political economy of the world and business-government relations. The economic factors in foreign policy, international trade agreements, the motives and obstacles in economic integration, politics of international economic relations, the impact of international organizations and government relations on the practice of international business. Multinational firms, global industries, and political or economic ambitions of nation-states. Economic growth strategies; varying patterns of national economic developments; international flows of capital, goods and services; foreign debt problems and their impacts on different nations and potential consequences for the United States and other nations. Topics covered vary from one semester to another depending on current important events and the professor conducting the course. Prerequisites: MBM 3513 and senior standing. Cross-listed POLS 4543. (spring)

4563 INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS TOPICS 3 hours

This course allows students to develop competence and expertise in international aspects of a certain industry, country, or a functional area of business. Selected topic must be approved by the supervising professor before initiation of the study. A comprehensive written report and an oral presentation are required. Prerequisites: MBM 3513, 3523, 3533, and senior standing.

4573 INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS STRATEGY 3 hours

The course serves as an integrated capstone for all majors. The management of multinational corporations requires all of the standard business skills applied in domestic corporations plus skills to deal with complications of different cultures, multiple currencies, varying government regulations, and different regulations dealing with financial, labor, and product markets. Students learn to develop and use strategic, organizational, and financial policies for global competitive business management. The format includes lectures, case studies, presentations, and discussions. Prerequisites: MBM 3523 and MBM 3533.

MUSIC—THEORY (MUS)

1102-1202 MUSIC FUNDAMENTALS 2, 2 hours

These courses deal with the basic aspects of music, including notation, key signatures, intervals, elementary harmonic structure, ear training, and simple sight-reading. Designed for the nonmusic major. Credit is not acceptable for the B.M. degree.

1112-1212 THEORY I, THEORY II 2, 2 hours

Notation, scales, intervals, four-part harmony, using principal and subordinate triads, dominant seventh, dominant ninth, cadences, harmonization of melodies, figured and unfigured basses, original phrases and periods. Application of the preceding to keyboard harmony. This course is taken concurrently with a corresponding theory course. The same instructor teaches both classes. Prerequisite: Elementary knowledge of music. (MUS 1112—fall, spring; MUS 1212—spring, summer)

1122-1222 AURAL SKILLS I, AURAL SKILLS II 2, 2 hours

Designed to improve musical skills related to melodic, harmonic, and rhythmic dictation, sight-reading, and keyboard harmony. This course is taken concurrently with a corresponding theory course. The same instructor teaches both classes.

Prerequisite: MUS 1112 and MUS 1212, respectively. (MUS 1122—fall, spring; MUS 1222—spring, summer)

2112-2212 THEORY III, THEORY IV 2, 2 hours

Study of eighteenth-century harmony by analyzing, writing, hearing, and playing at the keyboard. Seventh chords, altered chords, altered nonharmonic tones, and augmented sixth chords are included. Modulations to all keys. Analysis of nineteenth-century music. Prerequisite: MUS 1212 Theory II. (MUS 2112—fall; MUS 2212—spring)

2122-2222 AURAL SKILLS III, AURAL SKILLS IV 2, 2 hours

Advanced musical skills development to complement the corresponding theory course. Emphasis is on advanced melodic, harmonic, rhythmic dictation, sight-reading, and keyboard development. Prerequisite: MUS 1222. (MUS 2122—fall; MUS 2222—spring)

2232 ACOUSTICS 2 hours

Elementary physics of sound, the overtone series. Tuning and temperaments. The physical and acoustic aspects of the various families of musical instruments. Sound regeneration through transducers and the modern recording studio. (spring)

3113 ORCHESTRATION 3 hours

The study of idiomatic writing for the instruments of the orchestra. Arranging of short compositions for small ensembles of varying instrumentation. Prerequisites: MUS 2112. (fall)

4013 THEORY REVIEW 3 hours

A comprehensive review of music theory. Preparatory class for graduate school examinations. (TBA)

4113 FORM AND ANALYSIS 3 hours

A comprehensive study of form from folk songs to symphony. Training in recognizing the various forms by sound and sight. Prerequisites: MUS 2212. (fall)

4212 COMPOSITION II 2 hours

More advanced composition techniques with emphasis on the modern idioms. For noncomposition majors only. Prerequisites: MUS 2212, MUS 3113, and MUS 4313. (TBA)

4313 COMPOSITION I 3 hours

Study of theory and techniques of composition. Original composition employing these techniques. For noncomposition majors only. Prerequisite: MUS 2212. (fall)

4413 EIGHTEENTH-CENTURY COUNTERPOINT 3 hours

Two-part inventions in Bach style. Introduction to fugal writing. Prerequisite: MUS 2212. (spring)

Composition. (TBA)

MUSIC COMPOSITION (MUS)

(The following courses are for composition majors)

1211 INTRODUCTION TO MUSIC COMPOSITION 1 hour

This course provides an introduction to current compositional styles with emphasis on analysis and the composition of short examples in various styles. Prerequisite: MUS 1112. (spring)

2312 COMPOSITION A 2 hours

This course continues the analysis of contemporary styles begun in MUS 1211. Composition of examples in various styles is continued. Prerequisites: MUS 1212 and MUS 1211. (fall)

2412 COMPOSITION B 2 hours

Emphasis is on the development of an individual style through the composition of short pieces for various mediums. Prerequisites: MUS 2112 and MUS 2312. (spring)

3313 COMPOSITION ELECTRONIC I 3 hours

This course serves as an introduction to electronic music synthesis. The student is exposed to the lab environment and the technical aspects of working with electronic equipment. Prerequisites: MUS 2212 and MUS 2412. (fall)

3413 COMPOSITION ELECTRONIC II 3 hours

A continuation of MUS 3313 with emphasis on creating several works for the electronic medium. Prerequisite: MUS 3313. (spring)

4513 ADVANCED COMPOSITION I 3 hours

This course utilizes techniques gained in the first three years of study through composition of larger pieces for various mediums. Prerequisite: MUS 3313. (fall)

4613 ADVANCED COMPOSITION II 3 hours

This course is a continuation of MUS 4513. Prerequisite: MUS 4513. (spring)

MUSIC HISTORY AND LITERATURE (MUS)

1133 or 1233 MUSIC SURVEY 3 hours

Introduction to the study of music literature. Survey of music and its place in relation to art, literature, politics, mores, and customs. Recognition of styles and forms from studying and listening to representative compositions of all periods.

3123-3223 HISTORY OF MUSIC I, II 3, 3 hours

A critical study of the historic periods and literature in the development of music. Prerequisites: MUS 1133 or MUS 1233 and MUS 2212. (3123—fall; 3223—spring)

4023 CHORAL LITERATURE 3 hours

A specialized study of choral music from medieval to present times. (TBA)

4123 HISTORY OF TWENTIETH-CENTURY MUSIC 3 hours

A survey of musical technology and compositions from 1900 to the present.

4323 OPERA HISTORY 3 hours

A study of the development of opera in Italy and a survey of its subsequent development in other countries. (fall)

4423 VOCAL LITERATURE SEMINAR 3 hours

A specialized study of vocal literature with emphasis on style and idiomatic characteristics. (spring)

4563 JAZZ HISTORY 3 hours

A study of the foundation of jazz and its development from the early years to the present. (fall)

4523 WIND LITERATURE 3 hours

A detailed study of the history of wind instruments, musicians, composers, and repertoire from Biblical times to the present through reading, writing, listening, and research.

4583 MUSIC THEATER LITERATURE SEMINAR 3 hours

A survey of the development of the musical theater genre from operetta to the present. (fall)

4623 KEYBOARD LITERATURE SEMINAR 3 hours

A study of the repertoire and styles of keyboard music from the pre-Bach period through the twentieth century. (TBA)

4723 ORGAN LITERATURE SEMINAR 3 hours
A study of the repertoire and styles of organ music from the pre-Bach period through the twentieth century.

4823 ORCHESTRA LITERATURE SEMINAR 3 hours
A study of representative symphonic and chamber literature by means of analysis and discussion of form, style, and instrumentation. (spring)

4923 GUITAR LITERATURE SEMINAR 3 hours
A study of guitar literature from the Baroque period to the present.

MUSIC—CLASS APPLIED (MUS)

1241 GUITAR IMPROVISATION 1 hour
A thorough introduction to improvisation on the guitar from lead playing to developing a complex chord vocabulary. A variety of musical styles are covered with extra emphasis on jazz. May be repeated for credit.

1371- CLASS VOICE (AMVC) 1 hour

A course designed for instrumental music education majors and for the student majoring in dance who has not had experience in vocal performance. Students learn the basics of breath control and support, phonation, free tonal production, and anatomy of singing mechanisms. Students study and prepare to perform vocal literature. Upon successful completion of Class Voice, students are eligible to take private voice study. An additional fee is charged to the student for accompanist's services. Prerequisite: MUS 1102 or MUS 1202. (fall)

1571 CLASS PIANO I (AMA) 1 hour
A class designed for the student with no prior keyboard experience or limited keyboard experience. Classes are limited to eight students and are taught in an electronic piano lab.

2242 JAZZ IMPROVISATION 2 hours
The development of basic techniques used in the art of playing a spontaneous melodic line against a given chord progression. The course includes the study of theory and its practical application to the instrument, as well as study of different styles of jazz and the influence they have on the performance.

2342 JAZZ IMPROVISATION II 2 hours
Independent study in jazz improvisation. Prerequisite: MUS 2242

3142 CONDUCTING FUNDAMENTALS 2 hours
This course is concerned with the development of all aspects of conducting related to musical communication through so-called "baton technique." Beat patterns, attack and release, phrasing, the fermata, dynamics, and various aspects of musical interpretation are covered. Prerequisite: MUS 1212. (fall)

3242 CONDUCTING—INSTRUMENTAL 2 hours
Continued concepts and techniques from Conducting Fundamentals. Practical experience in conducting instrumental ensembles. Prerequisites: MUS 1212 and MUS 3142. (spring)

3323 SOUND ENGINEERING I 3 hours
An introduction to the equipment, techniques for recording, microphone set-ups, and sound board operations. Students are involved in "hands-on" experiences during this class in a professional recording studio. There is an additional lab fee. (fall)

3423 SOUND ENGINEERING II 3 hours
A continuation of MUS 3323 with special emphasis on producing sound effects and mixing sound to film and video mediums. There is an additional lab fee. (spring)

3442 CONDUCTING—VOCAL 2 hours
The techniques of conducting. Practical experience in conducting choral organizations. Prerequisites: MUS 1114-1214 and MUS 3142. (spring)

4142 CONDUCTING SEMINAR I 2 hours
Advanced score reading, rehearsal, research, and conducting techniques that continue concepts from Conducting Fundamentals. Permission from professor required for enrollment. Prerequisites: MUS 3142 and MUS 3242.

4242 CONDUCTING SEMINAR II 2 hours
Advanced score reading, rehearsal, research, and conducting techniques that continue concepts from the beginning conducting. Permission of professor required for enrollment. Prerequisites: MUS 3142, MUS 3242, and MUS 4142.

MUSIC DICTION (DICT)

1152 ENGLISH DICTION 2 hours
Elements of pronunciation necessary for proper singing in English. Credit allowed on B.M. degree only.

1252 ITALIAN DICTION 2 hours
Elements of pronunciation and rudiments of grammar. Credit allowed on B.M. degree only. (spring)

2252 FRENCH DICTION 2 hours
Elements of pronunciation and rudiments of grammar. Credit allowed on B.M. degree only. (spring, odd)

2352 GERMAN DICTION 2 hours
Elements of pronunciation and rudiments of grammar. Credit allowed on B.M. degree only. (spring, even)

MUSIC EDUCATION AND PEDAGOGY (MUED)

1142 STRING METHODS 2 hours
To enable students to teach the various string instruments—violin, viola, cello, and bass—to beginning students. (spring)

1242 WOODWIND METHODS 2 hours
To enable students to teach the various woodwind instruments—flute, oboe, clarinet, bassoon, and saxophone—to beginning students. (spring)

1342 BRASS METHODS 2 hours
To enable students to teach the various brass instruments—trumpet, euphonium, tuba, trombone, and horn—to beginning students. (fall)

1442 PERCUSSION METHODS 2 hours
To enable students to teach the various percussion instruments to beginning students. (fall)

2032 PIANO PEDAGOGY I 2 hours
Introduction to teaching beginning group piano and private instruction. (fall)

2033 BASICS OF COMPUTERS AND MUSIC 3 hours
An introduction to computers and associated hardware and software as they relate to education, creation, and performance of music. This course is approved for an academic music elective. This is not a music composition course.

2042 PIANO PEDAGOGY II 2 hours
A continuation of the survey of methods and materials for beginning students, including the adult beginner. (spring)

3132- INSTRUMENTAL METHODS	2, 2 hours	+0462 UNIVERSITY SINGERS	2 hours
3232		Open to majors and nonmajors by audition.
Techniques and procedures in teaching instrumental music grades 1–12. (fall)		+0561 MEN'S CHOIR	1 hour
3332 VOCAL METHODS—ELEMENTARY	2 hours	Open to majors and nonmajors by audition.
Techniques and procedures for teaching music, including vocal and general music, in the elementary and middle schools. (fall)		0661 MUSIC THEATER WORKSHOP	1 hour
3432 VOCAL METHODS—SECONDARY	2 hours	Study of scenes from major musicals. (spring)
Techniques and procedures in teaching vocal music in grades 8–12. (spring)		+ 0761 CHAMBER CHOIR	1 hour
3032 PIANO PEDAGOGY III	2 hours	Open to majors and nonmajors by audition.
Working with intermediate-level students and appropriate literature. (fall)		0861 PIANO ENSEMBLE I	1 hour
3042 PIANO PEDAGOGY IV	2 hours	The study of works for two pianos, piano four-hand, piano trios and quartets. (fall)
Teaching major solo compositions, including solo masterworks, concertos, etc. (spring)		0861 PIANO ENSEMBLE II	1 hour
3302 VOCAL PEDAGOGY	2 hours	Chamber music study. (spring)
The course covers information about vocal anatomy and explores techniques of singing through a systematic discussion of respiration, phonation, and resonance. Designed to help students gain a better knowledge of their own instruments and the ability to explain what they know about voice to others. Discussion of methods and exercises used in private vocal instruction. Observation of voice faculty and supervised teaching in and out of the class. Intended for both singers and teachers. (fall)		0941 ACCOMPANYING I	1 hour
3732- ORGAN PEDAGOGY	2 hours	An introduction to accompanying solo vocal literature. (fall)
3832		0951 ACCOMPANYING II	1 hour
Principles and procedures in private instruction. (fall)		An introduction to accompanying solo instrumental literature. (fall)
3831 VIOLA PEDAGOGY	1 hour	0961 ACCOMPANYING III	1 hour
3931-2 GUITAR PEDAGOGY	1, 2 hours	An introduction to accompanying choral ensembles. Prerequisite: MUEN 0941 or MUEN 0951. (spring)
Working with intermediate-level students and appropriate literature. (spring)		0971 ACCOMPANYING IV	1 hour
4131- STUDENT TEACHING	1, 1 hour	An introduction to accompanying vocal and instrumental ensembles, orchestra reading, band situations. (spring)
4231		+ Classes are considered major ensembles.
Applying principles of pedagogy classes to teaching students. Prerequisites: MUS 3032, MUS 3932; MUS 3301, MUS 3401, MUS 3732, MUS 3832.		MUSIC—OPERA AND MUSIC THEATER (OMT)
4239 STUDENT TEACHING*	3 hours	1182 ACTING: OPERA AND MUSIC THEATER I	2 hours
Observation and teaching in the elementary and secondary schools. Prerequisite: 12 hours of professional education.		Introductory course that explores the basics of acting on the stage. Basic body and vocal control, actor's orientation to the stage and its elements, the singing actor's basic areas of preparation, and the performer/audience relationship are explored through monologue work, song work, improvisation, group scenes, and theater games.
*See Department of Education requirements for certification.		1282 ACTING: OPERA AND MUSIC THEATER II	2 hours
MUSIC ENSEMBLE (MUEN)		Audition techniques, formal script analysis and scoring techniques, proper stage etiquette and professionalism are reinforced. Building a character through textual analysis, use of introduction and use of Laban technique, scene study, application of the dramatic process, and vocal performance. Prerequisites: 1182 or permission of director of opera and music theater.
+0061 SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA	1 hour	2182 ACTING: OPERA AND MUSIC THEATER III—IMPROVISATION	2 hours
Open to majors and nonmajors by audition.		An exploration of current techniques of improvisation as an aid to character development and for nonscripted storytelling. The course deals with techniques in game theory, group expression, musical/vocal improvisation, physicalization and improvisational theory, play-making, pantomime, ongoing drama, story dramatization, and role playing. Prerequisites: 1182 and 1282 or permission of director of opera and music theater.
+0161 WIND PHILHARMONIC	1 hour
Open to majors and nonmajors by audition.
0261 JAZZ ARTS ENSEMBLE	1 hour
Open to majors and nonmajors by audition.
0361 SMALL ENSEMBLES	1 hour
Trios, quartets, quintets, and other combinations of piano, string, percussion, and wind instruments.
+0461 AD ASTRA (WOMEN'S CHOIR)	1 hour

2282 ACTING: OPERA AND MUSIC THEATER IV—
ADVANCED ACTING 2 hours

Stanislavsky/Strasberg theories and terms as they apply to creating an opera/music theater role, the psychology of the character, nonverbal communication, and music and movement relationships are subjects for study. Individual and group presentation of scenes for class discussion and criticism. Prerequisites: 1182 and 1282 or permission of director of opera and music theater.

3182 ACTING: OPERA AND MUSIC THEATER V—PERIOD MOVEMENT, BODY,
AND IDENTITY 2 hours

This course provides the student with an approach to advanced physical skills and movement as they relate to period music, period clothing, period styles of movement, and period awareness of the character profile. The student is introduced to a variety of techniques concerned with ideal posture for performance function. Prerequisites: 1182 and 1282 or permission of director of opera and music theater.

3282 ACTING: OPERA AND MUSIC THEATER VI—PHYSICAL SKILLS 2 hours

This is an introductory course to physical skills used in theater. The course introduces the student to the fundamentals of stage combat, basic punches, falls, knife-, sword-, staff-work, and movement with music. The student receives instruction in clown art—juggling and magic. Prerequisites: 1182 and 1282 or permission of director of opera and music theater.

NURSING (NURS)

2403 NUTRITION 3 hours
See CHEM 2403.

3002 PROFESSIONAL NURSING 2 hours
This theory course provides an overview of professional nursing practice. Theories of nursing, concepts of caring, self-care, health, wellness, and illness are presented as a basis for nursing practice.

3003 HEALTH ASSESSMENT 3 hours
This theory and laboratory course introduces the nursing process and focuses on the role of the professional nurse in assessing the health status of clients.

3004 FOUNDATIONS OF NURSING 4 hours
This theory, laboratory, and clinical course focuses on the principles, strategies, and procedures related to the practice of nursing. Students are provided with opportunities to use the nursing process, develop effective communication techniques, and practice psychomotor skills.

3103 NURSING PHARMACOLOGY 3 hours
This theory course introduces basic principles of pharmacology and pharmacotherapeutics. A review of the major drug groups includes emphasis on nursing care.

3306 ADULT HEALTH NURSING I 6 hours
This is the first in a series of theory and clinical courses focusing on the role of the professional nurse in the promotion of self-care and the delivery of nursing care to adult clients experiencing selected alterations in health.

3505 FAMILY HEALTH NURSING 5 hours
This theory and clinical course focuses on the role of the professional nurse in the promotion of self-care and the delivery of nursing care to childbearing families.

3701-3 SERVANT LEADERSHIP: A TRANSCULTURAL APPROACH 1-3 hours

This course introduces the student to service in an underserved area. The course focuses on use of assessment and communication techniques in a transcultural setting. Expenses are the responsibility of the student. Open to all majors.

3706 ADULT HEALTH NURSING II 6 hours
This is the second in a series of theory and clinical courses focusing on the role of the professional nurse in the promotion of self-care and the delivery of nursing care to adult clients experiencing selected alterations in health.

3905 CHILD HEALTH NURSING 5 hours
This theory and clinical course focuses on the role of the professional nurse in the promotion of self-care and the delivery of nursing care to the child and family.

4105 COMMUNITY HEALTH NURSING 5 hours
This theory and clinical course focuses on the role of the professional nurse in the promotion of self-care and the delivery of nursing care within community based health care systems.

4305 MENTAL HEALTH NURSING 5 hours
This theory and clinical course focuses on the role of the professional nurse in the promotion of self-care and the delivery of nursing care to clients experiencing alterations in mental health.

4313 HUMAN SEXUALITY 3 hours
See KES 4313.

4503 NURSING RESEARCH 3 hours
This theory course focuses on the application of research to professional nursing practice.

4705 ADULT HEALTH NURSING III 5 hours
This theory and clinical course focuses on the role of the professional nurse in the delivery of nursing care to adult clients requiring complex assessments and high intensity nursing care.

4905 NURSING LEADERSHIP 5 hours
This capstone theory and clinical course focuses on synthesis of aspects of the professional nurse's role related to managing, coordinating, collaborating, and delegating nursing care of clients.

4991-3 INDEPENDENT STUDY
IN NURSING 1-3 hours

Variable course content designed to meet specific student needs. Requires permission of instructor.

4202 RN-TO-BSN PROFESSIONAL NURSING 2 hours
This theory course provides an overview of professional nursing practice. Theories of nursing, concepts of caring, self-care, health, wellness, and illness are presented as a basis for nursing practice. Open to Registered Nurses only.

4403 RN-TO-BSN HEALTH ASSESSMENT 3 hours
This theory and laboratory course focuses on the role of the professional nurse in assessing the health status of clients. Open to Registered Nurses only.

4503 RN-TO-BSN NURSING RESEARCH 3 hours
This theory course focuses on the application of research to professional nursing practice. Open to Registered Nurses only.

4605 RN-TO-BSN COMMUNITY HEALTH NURSING 5 hours
This theory and clinical course focuses on the role of the professional nurse in the promotion of self-care and the delivery of nursing care within community based health care systems. Open to Registered Nurses only.

4805 RN-TO-BSN NURSING LEADERSHIP 5 hours
This capstone theory and clinical course focuses on synthesis of all aspects of the professional nurse's role related to managing, coordinating, collaborating, and delegating nursing care of clients. Open to Registered Nurses only.

NURSING ELECTIVES

These courses will be chosen by RN-to-BSN students to enhance their personal educational goals with approval of the RN-to-BSN advisor.

PHILOSOPHY (PHIL)

2004H CLASSICS OF WESTERN CULTURE I 4 hours
See Honors 2004H.

2013 AESTHETICS: PHILOSOPHY OF THE FINE ARTS 3 hours
Examination of the many critical questions that surround the serious study of art as an essential human activity. Principally, these questions are of two sorts: questions about the experience of art and the value judgments we make about these experiences and the objects that evoke them and questions about the "object" of aesthetic experience. The dominant question that unites the course is, "What is art, and why is it important for human life?" This course satisfies the values and culture requirement in the general education curriculum.

2114H CLASSICS OF WESTERN CULTURE II 4 hours
See Honors 2114H.

2163 MORAL ISSUES IN CONTEMPORARY CULTURE 3 hours
Reflection on and analysis of moral issues that arise in a particular area of contemporary culture (e.g., medicine, politics, law, ecology, mass media, etc.). The course may be repeated with a different content. This course satisfies the values and culture requirement of the general education curriculum. Cross-listed REL 2163.

2203 BUSINESS ETHICS 3 hours
A study of the role of business and its moral relation to society. Cross-listed MGMT 2213.

2213 MORAL AND SOCIAL PHILOSOPHY 3 hours
Consideration of the nature and scope of ethical reflection as an inherently social phenomenon. Through an analysis of several classical and contemporary ethical theories, the course deals with such issues as the nature of value, the basis of normative value judgments and ethical prescriptions, and the implications these reflections on value and conduct have for our conceptions of the truly human community. This course satisfies the values and culture requirement of the general education curriculum. Cross-listed REL 2213. (fall, even)

2413 PHILOSOPHY OF RELIGION 3 hours
Analysis and evaluation of the classical arguments for the existence of God, the problem of evil and the traditional answers to this problem. The course explores the relation between theological reflection and the concept of a worldview and focuses on a comparison between the prescientific worldview and the modern worldview and its impact on contemporary theology. This course satisfies the values and culture requirement of the general education curriculum. Cross-listed REL 2413. (spring, even)

2513 ETHICS OF COMMUNICATION 3 hours
Systematic study of moral issues as they effect personal communication with special attention given to the ethics of the mass media. Cross-listed PHRH 2513. (spring, even)

2563 PROBLEMS OF PHILOSOPHY 3 hours
Systematic analysis of a particular philosophical problem or area of philosophy (e.g., philosophy of history, philosophy of science, existentialism, philosophy of technology, etc.). This course may be repeated with a different content. (TBA)

2613 POLITICAL PHILOSOPHY 3 hours
Analysis of the relation between politics and ethics, involving a systematic study of classical political theories. Cross-listed POLS 2613. (spring, odd)

2703 INTRODUCTION TO CHRISTIAN ETHICS 3 hours
See REL 2703. (fall, odd)

2713 CRITICAL THINKING 3 hours
This course introduces the student to the standard methods of informal reasoning as applied to the creation of written arguments. Methods of demonstration, criticism, and defense are examined, along with rhetorical strategies for creating a persuasive case. Informal fallacies are covered, as are questions of truth, validity, and consistency. (spring)

2763 PHILOSOPHICAL ISSUES IN CONTEMPORARY CULTURE 3 hours
Analysis of the way metaphysical, epistemological, and other traditional philosophical issues and problems appear in the context of some facet or facets of modern culture, e.g. advertising, marketing, mass media, etc.

3114 HISTORY OF PHILOSOPHY I 4 hours
Systematic study of the major figures in the history of ancient and medieval philosophy (e.g., Plato, Aristotle, St. Augustine, St. Thomas Aquinas, Duns Scotus, Ockham, etc.) Prerequisite: three hours of philosophy or permission of the instructor. (every third semester)

3214 HISTORY OF PHILOSOPHY II 4 hours
Systematic study of the major figures in the history of modern philosophy from Descartes to Kant. Prerequisite: three hours of philosophy or permission of the instructor. (every third semester)

3314 HISTORY OF PHILOSOPHY III 4 hours
Systematic study of major figures and movements in contemporary philosophy (e.g., Hegel, Marx, Kierkegaard, Nietzsche, Husserl, Sartre, Heidegger, James, Dewey, Wittgenstein, Whitehead). Prerequisite: three hours of philosophy or permission of the instructor. (every third semester)

3563 TOPICS IN PHILOSOPHY 3 hours
Systematic treatment of a particular philosophical problem or area of philosophy at an intermediate level (e.g., American philosophy, metaphysics, epistemology, philosophy of mathematics, philosophy of language, philosophy of mind, etc.). (TBA)

3613 PROBLEMS AND ISSUES IN CHRISTIAN ETHICS 3 hours

See REL 3613. (spring, even)

3713 SYMBOLIC LOGIC 3 hours

Systematic study of symbolic logic beginning with truth-functional analysis and proceeding through the two most prevalent formal languages, sentential and predicate calculus. Direct, indirect, and conditional methods of derivation are covered, as are techniques for converting natural language into logical symbols. Mathematical induction is covered if time permits. (TBA)

3763 TOPICS IN ETHICS 3 hours

Examination in depth of a special area, individual, problem, or issue in the area of ethics. This course may be repeated with a different content. Prerequisite: 3 hours of philosophy or religion.

4003 RHETORIC AND REALITY 3 hours

See PHRH 4003

4163 SEMINAR IN PHILOSOPHY AND THEOLOGY 3 hours

See REL 4163.

4313 CONTEMPORARY POLITICAL THEORY 3 hours

See POLS 4313. (spring, even)

4451-3 DIRECTED READINGS 1-3 hours

Systematic analysis of a particular philosophical problem through directed readings and tutorials. Topics and readings are decided upon through mutual agreement between the student and his or her faculty advisor in the philosophy department. (TBA)

4563 ADVANCED TOPICS IN PHILOSOPHY 3 hours

Systematic treatment of a particular philosophical problem or area of philosophy at an advanced level (e.g., philosophy of psychology, advanced logic, semiotics, hermeneutics, structuralism, deconstruction, cognitive science, philosophy of art, philosophy of education, etc.). The course may be repeated with a different content. Prerequisite: three hours of philosophy or permission of the instructor. (TBA)

4893 SENIOR THESIS 3 hours

Individual research for senior majors in connection with the preparation of the senior thesis. The course is conducted by arrangement with the Department of Philosophy.

4991-6 INDEPENDENT STUDY 1-6 hours

PHILOSOPHY (PHRH)

1003 PUBLIC SPEAKING 3 hours

This class focuses on human communication theory with an emphasis on public speaking. Through trial and error, students learn to organize and deliver effective speeches for a variety of purposes.

1103I PUBLIC SPEAKING FOR INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS 3 hours

This class focuses on human communication theory with an emphasis on public speaking, but is designed for international students only.

2313 PERSUASIVE COMMUNICATION 3 hours

This class introduces students to theories of persuasion, from the Greeks to the present day, and focuses on specific, relevant examples of how symbols are used to exercise influence—especially in advertising, politics, pop culture, and mass media. (fall, even)

2513 ETHICS OF COMMUNICATION 3 hours

See PHIL 2513 (spring, even)

2613 HISTORIES AND THEORIES OF RHETORIC 3 hours

See ENGL 2613

3113 ARGUMENTATION AND DEBATE 3 hours

This class focuses on effective models for the process and practices of argumentation, providing specific techniques, procedures, and critical-thinking skills to empower speakers and train potential members of OCU's Speech and Debate Team.

3513 RELIGIOUS COMMUNICATION 3 hours

This course examines the unique dimensions of speech in a religious context and is designed for students who are likely to be speaking in the context of worship, funeral services, weddings, or other religious events. (TBA)

3813 POLITICAL COMMUNICATION 3 hours

This course examines the rhetorical nature of political communication as manifested in various channels, including oratory, debates, press conferences, and advertisements, and explores the role of logical argument, image, and mythology in forming candidate appeal.

3863 SPECIAL TOPICS IN COMMUNICATION 3 hours (TBA)

4003 RHETORIC AND REALITY 3 hours

This course explores the philosophical and ethical dimensions of language itself, with special attention given to the linguistic creation of reality, especially through "doublespeak," and other deceptive uses of language. Cross-listed PHIL 4003. (TBA)

4513 LEARNING IN PARABLES 3 hours

Students are introduced to the parable as a literary form uniquely suited to the communication of profound religious and philosophical truth. They are also given the opportunity to think and write "parabolically." (TBA)

4851-3 DIRECTED STUDIES 3 hours

A variable content course generally taught on an individual basis to meet specific student needs. Permission of the instructor required. (TBA)

PHOTOGRAPHY (PHOT)

2113 HISTORY OF PHOTOGRAPHY I 3 hours

A lecture and hands-on course that explores the history of photography from 1839 through 1945. Emphasis is on processes, photography movements, and photographers. Lab fee required. (spring)

2163 BASIC PHOTOGRAPHY I 3 hours

This is an introductory course in fine art black and white photography. Strong emphasis is placed on camera functions, acquiring the negative, and film and print processing. The goal is to establish an understanding of photography aesthetics while building work skills in camera and darkroom techniques. A short introduction to digital photography is given. Students must provide a camera with manual capability. Lab fee required. (fall)

2263 PHOTOGRAPHY II 3 hours

3163 SPECIAL STUDIES I 3 hours

First course in independent studies directed entirely toward establishing personal techniques, photographic direction, and portfolio building. Lab fee required. Prerequisite: PHOT 2263. (TBA)

3213 HISTORY OF PHOTOGRAPHY II 3 hours

A lecture and hands-on course that explores the history of photography from 1946 through the present. Emphasis is on processes, photography movements, and photographers. Lab fee required. (spring)

3263 SPECIAL STUDIES II 3 hours

This course is primarily for students who are seeking a B.A., B.F.A. or M.L.A. in fine art photography. Strong emphasis is placed on personal techniques and establishing a portfolio with photographic direction. Lab fee required. Prerequisite: PHOT 3163.

3363 SPECIAL STUDIES III 3 hours

This advanced independent study course focuses on special problems within the photographic processes. Students may emphasize darkroom experimentation or alternative photographic processes. The portfolio is still a primary objective. Lab fee required. Prerequisites: PHOT 3263, approval of instructor. (TBA)

3463 DIGITAL PHOTOGRAPHY I 3 hours

This is an introductory course in the digital image-making process. A strong emphasis is placed on understanding the digital SLR, point and shoot cameras, lighting, scanning, printing, and basic Adobe Photoshop as it relates to photography. The objective is to establish a basic knowledge of digital photography as it relates to the fine art process. The course is open to both major and nonmajor students. A personal digital camera is not a requirement for this course. Prerequisite: none required, however; a basic course in film photography is extremely helpful. Lab fee required. (fall)

3563 PHOTOGRAPHY ELECTIVES 3 hours

These courses allow students to fulfill their photography elective requirements. They also offer highly motivated students the opportunity to expand their portfolios. Courses offered are Alternative Processes, Pinhole Photography, Commercial Photography, Photography Criticism, Documentary/Photojournalism, Creative/Experimental, Landscape, Cityscape, Studio/Environmental Portrait, Critical Issues in Photography, Photography Internship, Medium/Large Format Camera, Darkroom Techniques, Architectural Photography, Business in Photography, Color Photography, Digital Photography, Fashion Photography, A Study of Photographers, The Zone System, and Specialized Photography Workshops. (TBA)

3663 DIGITAL PHOTOGRAPHY II 3 hours

This course is an advanced continuation of Digital Photography I. Special emphases are placed on intermediate to advanced Adobe Photoshop techniques as they apply to fine art photography. A personal digital SLR is not a requirement for this course. Prerequisite: PHOT 3463. Instructor permission and lab fee required. (spring)

4463 SPECIAL STUDIES IV 3 hours

This is an internship course in a specific photography area of student interest and is a requirement for all B.F.A. photography majors. Prerequisite: PHOT 3363. Instructor permission required. Lab fee may be required.

PHYSICS (PHYS)1003 SCIENCE, TECHNOLOGY, AND SOCIETY 3 hours

This course focuses on the acquisition and meaning of scientific data leading to the development and support of hypotheses and theories. The use of scientific knowledge in selected areas is investigated with regard to its application to technology, human well-being, and related ethical problems. Topics related to pseudoscience and the abuse of science and technology are also discussed.

1014 ASTRONOMY 4 hours

An elementary introduction to the sun, moon, planets, comets, stars, clusters, galaxies, pulsars, quasars, stellar evolution, models of the universe, nature of light and use of the telescope, orbits of spacecrafts and exploration of space. Three hours lecture and two hours laboratory each week, including use of the observatories.

1303 ACOUSTICS 3 hours

An introduction to the physics of sound: sound generation and propagation, waves and pulses, superposition and interference of waves, resonance, infra and ultrasound. The application of the physical principles of sound to music: musical instruments, sound perception, sound recording, the acoustical environment. The combination of this course and PHYS 1341 satisfies the general education laboratory science requirement.

1341 ACOUSTICS LABORATORY 1 hour

Laboratory paralleling the Acoustics lecture course. Corequisite: PHYS 1303.

1503 GENERAL PHYSICS I 3 hours

Fundamental concepts in mechanics, sound, heat, and thermodynamics. Three hours lecture per week. Prerequisite: high-school algebra or MATH 1503. (fall)

1541 GENERAL PHYSICS I LABORATORY 1 hour

Experiments paralleling the lectures in PHYS 1503. (fall)

1603 GENERAL PHYSICS II 3 hours

Continuation of General Physics I Lecture: electricity, magnetism, optics, and atomic physics. Three hours lecture per week. Prerequisite: PHYS 1503. (spring)

1641 GENERAL PHYSICS II LABORATORY 1 hour

Experiments paralleling the lecture PHYS 1641. (spring)

2104 UNIVERSITY PHYSICS I 4 hours

Required for physics, mathematics, and pre-engineering majors; recommended for others with appropriate background. A calculus-based introduction to the principles of mechanics and wave motion. Four hours lecture per week. Prerequisite or corequisite for MATH 2004. (fall)

2141 UNIVERSITY PHYSICS I LABORATORY 1 hour

Experiments paralleling the lectures in PHYS 2104 and 2204. Three hours laboratory each week. (fall)

2204 UNIVERSITY PHYSICS II 4 hours

Continuation of University Physics I Lecture: Heat, electric and magnetic fields, optics. Prerequisite or corequisite: PHYS 2104, MATH 2104. (spring)

2241 UNIVERSITY PHYSICS II LABORATORY 1 hour
Experiments paralleling the lectures in PHYS 2204. (spring)

2314 INTRODUCTION TO ELECTRONICS 4 hours
An introduction to electronics and the circuit characteristics of discrete components and simple integrated circuits. The course includes the theory and operation of electronic instrumentation, amplifiers, oscillators, and elementary circuit modeling. Two hours of lecture and two hours of laboratory each week. Corequisite: MATH 2004. (TBA)

3041 ADVANCED PHYSICS LABORATORY 1 hour
Advanced experiments in classical and modern physics. Three hours laboratory each week. Prerequisites: PHYS 2204 and 2241. (TBA)

3103 ANALYTICAL MECHANICS 3 hours
Kinematics and dynamics of a particle, momentum, energy, conservative forces, statics and dynamics of rigid bodies, introduction to vibration theory. Prerequisite: PHYS 2204. (fall)

3203 THERMODYNAMICS 3 hours
Transfer of heat, laws of thermodynamics, temperature, entropy, enthalpy, and reversibility and irreversibility. Carnot and other cycles, thermodynamic properties of materials, changes of phase, introduction to chemical thermodynamics, and low-temperature physics. Prerequisite: PHYS 2204. (TBA)

3303 ELECTRICITY AND MAGNETISM 3 hours
Laws of Coulomb, Gauss, Faraday and Ampere, electric fields, electric potential, dielectrics and conductors, direct and alternating currents, magnetic fields, magnetic materials, and Lorentz force. Prerequisite: PHYS 2204. (spring)

3403 OPTICS 3 hours
Geometrical treatment of lenses and mirrors, aberrations, optical instruments, analytical treatment of physical optical phenomena of reflection, refraction, interference, diffraction, polarization, scattering, introduction to magneto-optics, electro-optics, and quantum optics. Prerequisite: PHYS 2204. (TBA)

3503 MODERN PHYSICS 3 hours
Existence of the electron, determination of fundamental constants, atomic nature of matter, particle beams in electric and magnetic fields, photoelectric effect, x-rays, Compton effect, Bohr-Sommerfeld theory, deBroglie's hypothesis, Schrodinger equation, and introduction to special relativity. Prerequisite: PHYS 2204. (TBA)

3603 ELECTRIC FIELDS AND CIRCUITS 3 hours
Advanced treatment of DC and AC circuits, including Thevenon's theorem, Norton's theorem, complex representation of AC phenomena, matrix description of circuits and applications. Prerequisite: PHYS 2204. (TBA)

3703 SOLID STATE PHYSICS 3 hours
Nature and property of materials, crystal structures, x-ray diffraction, lattice vibrations, thermal properties of solids, free-electron model, band theory of solids, Brillouin zones, semiconductor crystals, and superconductivity. Prerequisite: PHYS 3503. (TBA)

3804 ENGINEERING MATH I 3 hours
See MATH 3804. (TBA)

3903 ENGINEERING MATH II 3 hours
See MATH 3903. (TBA)

4003 CLASSICAL MECHANICS 3 hours
Lagrangian and Hamiltonian formulation of the mechanics of particles, field concepts, vibrational structures, and accelerated reference systems. Prerequisite: PHYS 3103. (TBA)

4102 INTRODUCTION TO BIOPHYSICS I 2 hours
This course introduces students to the Newtonian approach to biology, biomechanics, applications of thermodynamics to biological systems, and physiology. Two hours lecture and two hours laboratory each week. Prerequisites: PHYS 2204, BIOL 2303, CHEM 2203. (TBA)

4103 FLUID MECHANICS 3 hours
An introduction to fluid statics and dynamics, including properties of fluids, continuity equation, hydraulics, equations of motion, Bernoulli's equation, types of flow, flow in pipes an over submerged bodies, boundary layers. Prerequisites: PHYS 2104, MATH 2104. (TBA)

4141 INTRODUCTION TO BIOPHYSICS I, LABORATORY 1 hour
Laboratory paralleling the lectures in PHYS 4102. (TBA)

4202 INTRODUCTION TO BIOPHYSICS II 2 hours
This course is a continuation of PHYS 4102 and emphasizes the applications of modern physics on biology systems. Two hours lecture and two hours laboratory each week. Prerequisites: PHYS 3503, 4102, BIOL 3914, CHEM 3103. (TBA)

4203 STATISTICAL MECHANICS 3 hours
Introduction to statistical methods, representative physical ensembles, statistical formulation of laws of thermodynamics, simple applications, quantum statistics of ideal gases, application of blackbody radiation, systems of interacting particles, application to crystalline solids, and other areas. Prerequisite: PHYS 3203. (TBA)

4241 INTRODUCTION TO BIOPHYSICS II, LABORATORY 1 hour
Laboratory paralleling PHYS 4202. (TBA)

4302 TOPICS IN BIOPHYSICS 2 hours
This course introduces students to the theory and application of high-technology equipment (X-ray tubes, MRI, nuclear radiation, ultrasound imaging, etc.) used in medicine. Two hours lecture and two hours laboratory each week. Prerequisite: PHYS 4202. (TBA)

4303 RELATIVITY 3 hours
Special relativity, applications to various areas of physics, introduction to general relativity. Prerequisite: PHYS 3103. (TBA)

4341 TOPICS IN BIOPHYSICS LABORATORY 1 hour
Laboratory paralleling the lectures in PHYS 4302. (TBA)

4403 ELECTROMAGNETIC THEORY 3 hours
Maxwell's equations, potentials, wave equation, electromagnetic radiation, forces, energy relations, and relativistic formulation of Maxwell's equation. Prerequisite: PHYS 3303. (TBA)

4503 QUANTUM MECHANICS 3 hours
Schrodinger formulation, Heisenberg formulation, potential well problems, harmonic oscillator, hydrogen atom, perturbation theory, emission and absorption probabilities. Prerequisite: PHYS 3503. Cross-listed MATH 4503. (TBA)

4603 ATOMIC AND NUCLEAR PHYSICS 3 hours
Atomic models, exclusion principles, periodic table, magnetic and optical properties of atoms, optical spectra, radioactivity, nuclear structure and models, nuclear forces, nuclear reactions, fission, fusion, and neutron physics. Prerequisite: PHYS 3503. (TBA)

4691-3 INTRODUCTION TO PHYSICAL RESEARCH 1–3 hours
Studies of research techniques, studies in technical journals, studies in treatment of experimental data and pursuit of research in preparation for graduate work. Prerequisite: 12 hours of physics beyond PHYS 2204. (TBA)

4991-3 INDEPENDENT STUDY 1–3 hours
Prerequisite: 12 hours of physics beyond PHYS 2204. (TBA)

POLITICAL SCIENCE (POLS)

1003 GOVERNANCE IN AMERICA 3 hours
This course meets the State of Oklahoma college degree requirements for three semester hours of American government.

1012 INTRODUCTION TO LEGAL STUDIES 2 hours
A survey of ethics and jurisprudence; English and American legal history; salient features of the legal system; the nature of the legal profession; the various areas, both traditional and emerging, of law and legal practice; and a brief introduction to legal research and law school Socratic method. Prerequisite: POLS 1003. (spring 2008)

1013 COMPARATIVE POLITICS 3 hours
A wide-ranging survey of the similarities and differences among major contemporary political systems. Included are examinations of government and politics in liberal democracies, communist and postcommunist countries, the newly industrializing states, and the less-developed countries. This course is specifically designed for international students as a substitute for POLS 1003. It can also be taken by domestic students to fulfill the cross-cultural study requirement for general education.

2103 ISSUES IN WOMEN'S STUDIES 3 hours
See INDP 2103.

2114 INTRODUCTION TO POLITICAL RESEARCH 4 hours
An introduction to the scientific study of politics, including specific research techniques and the nature of theory in behavioral science. (spring)

2301 STATISTICS FOR THE BEHAVIORAL SCIENCES LABORATORY 1 hour

Provisions of this bulletin are subject to change without notice and do not constitute an irrevocable contract between any student and the university. Oklahoma City University reserves the right to modify or change policies, courses, and program requirements described herein.

Every student is responsible for reading and understanding the academic requirements for the degree program as outlined in this catalog and as may be changed from time to time. Academic advisors are available for counseling and advising to assist students in this process; however, the final responsibility remains with the student to meet any and all academic requirements.

Oklahoma City University provides equality of opportunity in higher education for all persons, including faculty and employees, with respect to hiring, continuation, promotion, and tenure, applicants for admission, enrolled students, and graduates, without discrimination or segregation on the ground of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, age, handicap or disability, sexual orientation, or veteran status.

The vice president for administration, located in Room 402 of the Clara E. Jones Administration Building, telephone (405) 208-5029, coordinates the university's compliance with titles VI and VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, the Americans with Disabilities Act, and the Age Discrimination in Employment Act.

Oklahoma City University complies with the Student Right to Know and Equity in Athletics Disclosure Acts. This report is compiled and made available by October 15 each year. Requests for this report can be made to the athletics director.

In accordance with requirements by The Higher Learning Commission of the North Central Association of Colleges and Schools, the university will provide information to the accrediting agency regarding written complaints from a student against any faculty, staff, or institutional process or procedure. The information will contain the date the complaint was formally submitted to a university official; the nature of the complaint (e.g. dispute about a grade, allegation of sexual harassment, etc.); steps taken to resolve the complaint; the university's final decision regarding the complaint, including referral to outside agencies; and any other external actions initiated by the student to resolve the complaint, if known to the university (e.g. lawsuit, EEOC investigation, etc.).

Any information provided to The Higher Learning Commission of the North Central Association of Colleges and Schools will be presented in such a way as to shield the identities of faculty, staff, or students involved with the complaint.

Students may contact The Higher Learning Commission of the North Central Association of Colleges and Schools by writing or phoning
